

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AUTHOR.

S I could not mention all the Historians in the Body of this Work, which would have engaged me in an Affair, more tiresom and tedious, than exact, I thought it necessary to put a Catalogue of the most considerable Historians at the End of this Work. I have generally observed the same Order, as in the Method, and have also begun with those, which are either Historical Draughts, or General Histories, and should be read before the particular Histories. I desire Excuse for my Freedom, in so much characterizing the Works, as well as pretending to determine the best Editions. My Observations being short and succinet, I have Vol. II.

The PREFACE.

Reason to fear, they'll be taken for Abridgements, and in their Brevity and Deciliveness have the nature of Oracles. But I have not done this for Vanity's Sake, as I well know, that nothing is more taking than such a Modesty, which every virtuous Man should profess. I have thought it my Duty not to stray wide of this Character, which is more necessary to me, than to almost any other Person, that I may avoid speaking in a diffuse and languid Manner, to which, I find, I am too naturally inclined. I see well, with how much · Ease I could have made a long and tedious Work, and I doubt not but my Readers are sensible of the Violence I used to my self, to keep within the present narrow Limits.

Let none be Surprized, if they find some Works mentioned more than once; I have not done this by Neglect, so much as to range some Works under several Classes, which belong to several Provinces, or treat on different Subjects. I have been rather willing to make Repetitions, although it may seem useless, than give Room to think, that I have omitted one necessary Book. But this does not occur so often, as to tire out the Attention and Diligence of my Readers.

HISTORIANS.

CHAP. I.

Authors who have treated on the Method of writing History.

UCIANUS de scribenda Historia. This most excellent and exact Piece of Lucian is to be found amongst his other Works.

Joan. Antonius Viperanus de scribenda

Essential Strain Antonius Viperanus de Jerioende Essential 820. Antverp. 1369. This is also printed t Boil, with many of the same Sort, in a Book, intiuled, Penus Artis Historica.

Christophori Mylæi Theatrum scribende Historia universa, 420. Florentiæ 1548. Idem in fol. Basileæ 1557. This is also re-printed in the Penus Artis Historica; and though the Edition of Florence be the best and most beautiful, the Work it self being but little valued, it is no longer enquired after.

* Francesco

Francesco Patrizio della Storia Dialoghi X. in 41 in Venetia 1560. This is the Original Edition of the excellent Work, the Latin of Giannicola Stup, being on by a Translation, as is that printed in the Penus Andrews Historice.

Ubertus Folieta de Ratione scribende Historie, 41 Romæ 1574. This is one of the ablest Writers of taly, and is reprinted in the Penns, &c. as well as mongst the Author's Works.

Antonius Riccobonus de Historia, 800. Veneti 1568. Though Mr. Fresnoy says this is printed the Penus, I do not find any such Treatise therein.

Paulus Benius de Historia. 410. Venetiis 1607, (

1611. This Work is little enquired after.

Joan. Costa de conscribenda rerum Historia. 410. Casa Augusta 1591. This Piece is little looked afte as little known, and less read.

Sebastianus Maccius de Historicis Libri III. in 41 Venetiis 1613. This is as little valued as the last.

Luis Cabrera de Cordova Historia para entendarla, escrivirla, 420. Madrit, 1611.

Le Roy, des Verius & des Vices de l'Histoire, & la maniere de la bien scrire, 40. Paris 1620. This is much read.

Agostino' Mascardi dell' Arte Istorica Trattati, As in Roma 1636. This is a curious Piece, thous somewhat tedious and long. Paul Pirani has made Continuation at Venice in 1646, 410. and 1662, 12 Our Author Mascardi, though esteemed the best P of Italy in his time, by Printing at his own Expensive Piece, had much damaged himself, had not Cart nal Mazarin caused a Quantity of Copies to be sold Paris. See Dial. Naud. pag. 70.

Guill. Sossius de Numine Historia, 120. Paris 162

Giovanni Felice Astolfi della Officina Historica. 410. in Venezia 1642.

Gerard. Joan. Vossius de Arte Historica, in 420: Lugduni Batavorum 1653. This is the fullest and best Edition, and is re-printed in the Corpus of the Works of Vossius.

Alessandro Sardo; Precetti storici, 8vo. in Venezia 1586. These are Rules for writing of History, printed with other Discourses of the same Author.

M. De la Motthe le Vayer, Discours de l'Histoire, in 8vo. Paris 1636. Idem 1647. Or in his Works printed together in Folio, or in 120. The same Author has wrote a Discourse concerning the Uncertainty of History, in which, though he may perhaps have advanced his Notions too far, yet we cannot deny but at the Bottom there is some Foundation.

Le P. Le Moyne; de l'Histoire, 120. Paris 1670. This Book has never been well considered, and at present is little searched for.

7 M. De Silhon; de la maniere d'ecrire l'Histoire. 120. Paris. This excellent Dissertation is become very scarce.

M. De Cordemoy; de la maniere d'ecrire l'Histoire. This Piece wrote with Judgement, is to be found amongst the Works of Mr. Cordemoy, or in a Collection of the same Author printed at Paris in 120, under the Title of a Treasise of Metaphysicks.

Le P. Rapin Jesuit; Instructions sur l'Histoire, 120. Paris. And in a Collection of the Works of Mr. Ramin. I am at present more Concise, as I have spoke elewhere of this excellently well penned Treatile.

This large Catalogue of Authors, who have given Rules for the better Writing of History, puts me in Mind of those Verses of the French Poet,

La Cour en Counscillers foisonne, Mais vient-on à l'Execution, On ne rencontre plus persagne,

To conclude, There are sewer of excellent Historians, than of Writers, who have laboured on the Subject of forming them.

CHAP. II.

Authors who have breated on the Manner of Studying of HISTORY.

CLASSI

Such who have given us Historical Extracts, or rather Common-place Books.

Pierre Droit de Gaillard, methode qu'on doit tenir en la lecture de l'Histoire in 120. Paris 1604. Of this we have spoke in the Preface to the former Volume.

* M. l'Abbé de S. Real, de l'Usage de l'Histoire in 120. Paris 1672. Or in the Works of Mr. l'Abbe

St. Real.

Le P. Thomassin, Methode pour Etudier Chretiennement les Historiens, in 8vo. Paris 1690, 2 Vol. We have mentioned this in the Preface to the first Volume.

CLASS II.

Reineri Reineccii Methodus legendi Historiam Sacrame & Profanam, in Fol. Helmæstad. 1583. Consult the Preface last mentioned.

Andr. Franckenbergeri, Institutiones antiquitatis &

bistoriarum in 8vo. Wittebergæ 1586.

Matt. Dresseri, Isagoge histerica, in 8vo. Lipsiæ 158

Jo. Bapt. De Rocoles, Introduction generale à l'Histoire, in 120. Paris 1664. 2 Vol. Idem Paris 1672. 3 Vol. Read the Preface of the former Volume concerning this Author. There have been also other Editions of this Work, but not on this Account are we to esteema it the more. This Author, who was a Canon of the Order of St. Benedict, has printed the Description of the World. wrote by Daviti, in six Volumes, a Work of equal Stupidity with its Author. He afterwards turned Huguenes, and retired into Holland, where he has handed into the World some ill wrote Pamphlets.

Samuel Puffendorf; Introduction à l'Histoire des principaux Etass de l'Europe, 120. Utrecht 1685. 4 Vol. Idem in 120. Amsterdam 1711. 4 Vol. We have taken Notice of this excellent Work in our first Volume. The third and fourth Volumes respect only the History of Sweden, the two first the other States of Europe, and even the first Monarchies.

L'Histoire reduite à ses Principes, in 120. Paris 1685.
2 Vol. This Book is as little esteemed, as it is known.

*M. de Lelevel; Entretiens sur l'Histoire de l'Univers, in 120. Tolouse 1696. 2 Vol. This Piece is wrote by Way of Dialogue, and though very little read, its Principles are good. Read the third Chapter on the Head of Universal History.

CLASS III.

Ambors who have wrote Introductions to the Study of HISTORY.

† Joannis Bodini Methodus ad facilem Historiarum aguicionem, in 410. Paris 1569. Idem, in 120. Amstelo-tami 1640. It has been printed several Times in France and Germany, and particularly in the following Work.

Penus Artie Historicz in que sunt

Joan. Bodini Methodus Historiarum; Francisci Patricii Diologi X. de Historia;

Joan. Pontanus de Historia;

Franciscus Balduinus de Historia universa, & ejus cum Jurisprudentia conjunctione;

Sebastianus Foxius de Historica Institutione;

Joan. Anton. Viperanus de scribenda Historia, Antw. 1569, 8vo. Perus. 1570. 410. Basil 1576, 8vo.

Francisco Robortellus de Historia;

Dionysius Halicarnassensis de Thucydidis Historia;
* Christophori Mylæi, Consilium Historia Univer-

Sitatis scribende;

Ubertus Folieta de Ratione scribenda Historia; David Chytræus de recte instituenda Historia lectione; Simon Grynæus de militate legenda Historia; Cœlius Secundus Curio de Historia;

* Christophori Pezelii Oracio de Historia;

Theodorus Zwingerus
Ioannes Sambucus

* Antonius Riccobonus

de Historia;

In 8vo. Basileæ 1574. 2 Vol. Idem 8vo. Basileæ 1579. 2 Vol. Item alia Editio 8vo. Basileæ 1576. 1 Vol. There are several Editions of this Collection, viz. those of 1574 and 1579, which contain the eighteen last mentioned Pieces. An Edition of 1576 in one Volume, which contains only thirteen. Those marked with a Star are omitted; and this last, though not so full, is not less valuable, as the Authors lest out are not esteemed, and it is the best Piece of this Nature, Morzillus de Historie Institutione, 8vo. Paris 1557.

David Chytræus de lectione Historiarum rette instituenda, in 8vo. Rostochii 1567. Consult the Preface of the first Volume.

Chr. de la Ruelle; succints adversaires contre l'Hiszoire & ses Professeurs, 820. Poitiers 1574.

Johan. Bernartius de militate legenda Historia, 820. Antverpiæ 1593. This Book is of very little Consideration, deration, as it only is a Sort of Declamation in Praise of History, and the different Opinions of the World concerning some Historians. Menchenius is of Opinion, that this Censure is not just on this young Author, the learned Scholar of Justus Lipsus.

Witteberg 1597.

Lancelot Voisin de la Popelinière; Histoire des Histoires avec l'Idée de l'Histoire accomplie, in 8vo. Paris 1599. The Author has not put his Name to it; and we have spoke more of it at large in the Presace to the sirst Volume.

Philippi Glaseri Syngramma Historia Theoretica, sem introductio ad bistorium, in 410. Argent. 1611.

René de Lusinges des Alymes; maniere de lire l'Hiswire, in 8vo. Paris 1614.

Degoreus Whear; Pralettiones Hyemales de ratione, & methodo legendi Historias, in 8vo. Cantabrigia 1684. In English by Mr. Bohun, in 8vo. 1685 and 1694. We have mentioned this Piece in the Preface. A German Author, by Name New, has published a Supplement at Tubing in 1704, 1706, and 1708.

Michaelis Routartii Oculus bistoria, sen Isagoge Histo-rica, in 120. Bruxellis 1659.

La Science de l'Histoire, in 120. Paris 1665. We have spoke of this Book in the Preface to the first Volume.

Casparis Sagittarii Tractaus Varii de Historia legenda, in 410. Jenz 1675. This Author was esteemed as a Man of Learning in Germany, but always a true High Datcheson in all Points.

Idem, Introductio ad Notitiam Rerumpublicarum, in 410. This Author, though a learned Man, is too superficial.

A CATALOGUE of the

Le P. Menestrier Fesuite. Les divers caracteres des ouvrages Historiques, ou introduction à la lecture de l'Histoire, in 120. Lyon 1694. We have mentioned this Piece in the Preface to the first Volume.

CHAP. III.

CHRONOLOGY and UNIVERSAL HISTORY.

The Latin, French, or English Chronological Tables extracted from Father Petau's Rationarium Temporum, Archbishop Usher, and others, will be very necessary.

Iscours sur l'Histoire universelle de M. l'Eveque de Meaux, in 410. and in 120. The Edition in 4to is the most beautiful and scarce; but the Continuation to it is a very mean Performance. We have long expected that begun by the late Right Reverend the Bishop of Mesux himself; lest unfinished.

This Work was turned into Italian, and printed in 120. at Venice 1715.

Dionysii Petavii Rationarium Temporum, 120. Paris. Cramoisi 1652. Idem 1663. Idem 800, Franeckeræ, & Amstelod. These two Editions are preserable to that printed at Paris in 1703, as has been observed in the first Part of this Work. But the best is that of Leyden in 1710.

Philippi Brietii Annales Mundi, 120. Paris. 7 Vol. This is a good Book, and is a Sequel to Father Per tass. The Edition of Paris is uncommon. There is one printed in Folio in Germany, very little known; and another larger and more correct in seven Volumes in 120. at Venice, in the Year 1693.

Philippi Labbæi & Brietii Concordia Chronologica, fol. 5 Vol. 1670. Printed at the Lowere. This Edition is remarkable for its Beauty, and though but of little Use, is very dear.

Marshami Chronicus Canon Ægyptiacus, Hebraicus, Gracus in fol. Londini 1672. Idem Lipsiæ, 1676, 410. Idem Franecker. 1696, 410. The Edition of London is scarce and beautiful, and that of Franeker, though very incorrect, exceeds that of Leipsick. This is a large Fund of Learning. Mr. Menckenius thinks the Author mistaken in his Censure of his Leipsick Edition, which he says is correct, and was revised by a Man of good Learning.

Jacobi Usserii Annales utriusque Testamenti, sol. Londini 1650, & 1654. Idem Paris. 1673. Idem Bremæ 1686. The London Edition is the most beautiful, and that of Paris, though not so correct, is augmented with a Geographical Table by Father Lubius.

and some other Pieces.

Josephi Scaligeri Opus de Emendatione Temporum, fol, Lugd. Bat. 1598. Id.: fol. Genev. 1629. This is a Work of deep Learning, though at present but little used, the best Editions are those printed at Leyden and Geneva.

Eusebii Chronicon ab Arnaldo Pontaco edium, fol, Burdigalæ 1604. This Edition is recommended by Scaliger himself, who has made Notes on this Author.

Eusebii Chronicon cum notis Scaligeri, fol. Ludg. Bat. 1648. This is better than the Edition of 1606.

LANCELOTTI Chronologia Sacra. This is to be found at the End of Vitre's Bibles, or joined to those printed in Latin and French at Liege.

Joan. Clerici Compendium Historia universalis, in 8vo. Amstelod. 1698. This is a poor Performance; of which we have treated more at large, and one would think think the Name of an Author should not be able to support such Stuff.

Eduardi Simsoni Chronicon, Historiam Catholicam complettens, ab orbe condito ad ann. Christi 71. fol. Oxon. 1671. This Piece is more learned, than clear, or exact.

Jacobi Tirini Chronicon facrum. This Chronology, which is good, may be found in the Beginning of his Commentaries on the Holy Scriptures.

Sethi Calvisii Chronologia, fol. 1650. Francos. Idem Francos. 1685. This Author, who follows the Principles of Scaliger, is very exact, but at present little used.

Jacobi Capelli Historia Sacra, & exotica, 4to. Sedani.

Ludovici Capelli Chronologia facra, 410. Paris 1655. Ubbonis Emmii Opus Chronologicum novum, fol. Groning. 1619. A Work esteemed and scarce.

Abregé Chronologique du P. Labbé, 120. Paris 1666. 5 Vol. This is an excellent and exact Piece, with very few Errours.

Chevreau, Histoire du Monde, in 410. Paris 1686, 2 Vol. Ibid. in 120, 5 Vol. 1698. This Book was re-printed in Holland in 1699, translated into English in four Volumes. Although this is a learned Piece, yet is it not read so much as it should be, perhaps be, cause not entirely regular in its Method. The Editions of 1698 and 1699, are the best.

Joan. Georgii Herwarti Chronologia, 410. Monach.

1612. A Work very exact, but ill digested.

Joan. Baptist. Riccioli Chronologia Reformata, fol. Bonon. 1699. This Book answers not well its Title, nor is valuable, or deserves esteem.

Henrici Noris Epocha Orbium Syro Macedonum, 4ta. Florentiæ 1690. Ibid. 1692. or — 94. Lipsiæ 1696. A Piece of profound Learning and great Accuracy. The Edition of Florence in 1692, is the largest and most beautiful.

¥ Joan,

* Joan. Cluverii Epitome Historiarum totius mundi; 410. Amstelod. 1668. Idem Roterodami 1672. These are the best Editions of this valuable Author.

Christ. Matthiæ Theatrum Historicum in IV Monarchias, 420. Amstelod. 1656. These two last Authors are very good, though they descant more on the Affairs of Germany, than on the other Monarchies: The Method this last follows is very singular, he is no less a Moralist than Historian.

Marci Zuerii Boxhornii Historia universalis Sacra & Profuna, Lugdi Bat. 410. 1650. & 1652. Idem Coloniz Allobrog. 410. 1674. Idem Lipsiz 410. 1679. This is no extraordinary Book, nor needed to have been re-printed so often.

If our Author runs not out so as Vignier and others, on the antient History, his Design was not to rake into high Antiquity, but rather to launch out into the more modern. This is a very useful Piece to all such who look after the Originals and Priviledges of Nations. And the ten Years Continuation in the Leipsick Edition, were wrote by Otho Menckenius, my Father.

Bibliotheque Historiale de Vignier, fol. 5 vol. 1587. & 1650. A Piece of a very diffused Nature, and but little Use.

Hug. Robinsoni Annales Mundi, fol. Lond. 1677. A Book very consused and inaccurate, and ends with the Destruction of Ferusalem.

Joan. Gualteri Chronicon Chronicorum, 8vo. Francof. 1614. 4 vol. This Book might be of some Use, were it not stuffed with so many Trisles. Amongst other Things, there is a Catalogue, with the Successions of all the Princes of Europe. The Author is John Gruter.

Conringii & Oldenburgeri The faurus Rerum Publicarum, 8vo. 4 vol. Genev. 1675. Although this Book be not so accurate, as could be wished, it is yet useful for the Study of the new Monarchies. Comingins has difowned it.

Elemens de l'Histoire par M. l'Abbé de Vallemont, 120. Paris 1702. 3 vol. We have mentioned these two Works in the eighth Chapter of the first Vofume.

Atlas Historique, ou nouvelle introduction à l'Histoire, à la Chronologie, & à la Geographie ancienne, e moderne representée dans de nouvelles Cartes par MR. C avec les dissertations de Geudiville, fol. Amsterd. 1708. 2 Tom. or 3 vol. This Piece, in three Volumes, has the Recommendation of a great Number of Figures, and is much enquired after.

Le Grand Theatre Historique, fol Leyde 1703. 5

La nuova Galleria Storica, 8vo, [in High-dutch] Norimberga 1697. The first of these two Books is only a Translation of the last, adorned with many Copper Plates, which are more beautiful in the French than in the Original. Mr. Imhoss, a Counsellor of Sultzbach is the Author, and gives us an exact History, from the Creation to the Year 1699. Some Time after was added a fixth Volume, for which we are obliged to the happy Pen of Rinck, publick Prosessor of Law in Altdors, which is not yet translated into French.

Dr. Heylin's Cosmography, Lond. 1652. 1682. 1703. & Oxon 1622. in 410. under the Title of Microcosm.

Sir Walter Raleigh's History of the World, Lond. t. 1. 1614. t. 2. 1652. G in 8vo. 1708. 4 vol. A second Volume was wrote and burnt by the Author. This learned Person has brought down his History no farther than to the Kingdom of Macedon. Alexander Ross has made a Continuation to 1640. And others down to the Year 1707.

John Lewis Gotofredus, Historical Chronicle Frankf. 1682, in High Dutch. This Piece, embellished with Figures

Figures by Menan, contains the History of the four Monarchies, down to the Year 1682, where begins a Piece entituled, the Theatre of Europe, which may serve as a Continuation.

The Theatre of EUROPE. Francf. 1583. 15 Volumes fol. in High Dutch. The Author of the first Volume, John Philip Abelin, (who publish'd the following Book under the Name of Gotofredus) succeeded well in this Work; the like Fate the Continuators of the subsequent Volumes had not. He begins in 1684, and ends in the Year 1700.

The Diary of EUROPE. Francf. 1659, 1683. in 45 vol. fol. Here is a wretched Detail of the Affairs of Europe, from the Year 1657 to 1681. However the original Papers, and other Memorials at the End of each Volume, are of great Use to a Reader. It is to be wished that some one would attempt an exact Index.

Job Ludolphus: Theatre of the World, in High Dutch, in fol. at Francf. vol. 1. 1699. vol. 2. 1701. vol. 3. 1713. This Author (who was a Member of the Imperial Historical College, founded in the Time of the Emperor Leopold) proposed to give us a compleat History of the last Century, but has not reach'd half Way in the two first Volumes; and Mr. Joucher added a third, which comes down to the Year 1662, and flatters us with the Hopes of a Continuation.

Everard Happel. The modern History of EURGRE, in High Dutch. Ulm. 1691. fol. Without any Method this Author has collected several memorable Facts from 1649 to the Year 1671.

Henry Anselm Zeigler. The Historical MERCURY Lips. 1700. fol. in High Datch. This Author, who was ever esteemed one of the best Pens in Germany, follows a very peculiar Method, in relating the Months and Days on which each Fact happened.

The Historical Labyrinth. Lips. 1701. fol. in High Dutch. Zeigler, whose Name appears in the Frontispiece of this Book, left only an impersect Sketch, found after his Death amongst his Papers. To which, an able Man put the last Hand, and published it as it appears at present. This is a Work equally diverting and instructive, in which he describes what has passed most remarkable in Europe, in a most near concise Style, without wearying his Reader. In a short Time we are promised the third and sourth Volumes.

John Hubner. Short Questions of Political History. Lips. 1702. 1703. 10 vol. 120. This universal History was so well received by the publick, that the Bookseller soon reprinted it several Times. It is difficult sufficiently to commend the Method of this Author, who has a wonderful Talent in unravelling great Events, and relating them with a Clearness adapted to every Capacity; and in this he is almost inimitable. Besides, we are obliged to him for his most useful Labours in Geography and Heraldry, which we shall mention in their proper Place. In 1709, He began a short and succinct Relation of what happened the Year before, under the Title of a Supplement to his Historical, Geographical, and Genealogical Questions, which he continues yearly.

Christophori Cellarii Historia universalis breviter, ac perspicue exposita, in antiquam, medii avi, ac novam divisa, cum notis perpetuis, 120. Jen. 1711. This is the best Abridgement we have in the Laim Tongue. The Edition, now mentioned, which succeeded many others, was revised and continued by Stravius.

Antonio Foresti, Mappamondo Istorico, 4to. V nezia 1691. 1707. vol. 11. The fix first Volum only were wrote by Father Foresti. The first Part the seventh Volume was lately published, which indeed the twelsth, which treats of the Emperours China, and the second Part of the sixth Volume we continue the Series of the Ottoman Line.

Horatis Tursellini Epitome Historiarum. This celeb ted Abridgement has been printed several Times, a in different Places, in Twelves, and was translated a into Italian by Lewis Aureli, who added a Supplement to the Author (who ends at 1600) to the Year 163

Berm

Bernard Oldoini, and others, made Additions and Continuations. The last is, I believe, that of 1675.

CHAP. IV.

Authors, who have wrote CHRONOLO-GICAL DISSERTATIONS.

Istoire du Calendrier Romain, par Blondel, 410. Paris, 120. la Haye 1684, 120. In this Piece, the general Principles of Chronology are very well explained: The Edition of Paris is the most beautiful, and not uncommon.

Dionysii Petavii Rationarii Temporum pars ultima. This Part of Father Petan's Labours is, though con-cife, very exact.

Dionysius Petavius de Doctrina Temporum, fol. Paris 1628. 2 vol. Idem fol. Amstelod. 1703. This is a Work of most extensive and deep Learning; and is the best Book yet published on the Subject of Chronology.

Gravii Epocha celebriores, 410. Londini 1650.

Ægidius Bucherius de Cyclo Paschali, fol. Antverp. 1634.

Roberti Baylii opus Historicum, & Chronologicum fol. Amstelod. 1662. Though this Piece is not accurate, yet has it many good Things.

Humfridi Prideaux Marmora Oxoniensia ex Arundellianis, Seldenianis, aliifque conflata, fol. Lond. 1677. This is a most learned Work. The great Authority of the antient Greek Chronology has not been forgot to be mentioned, in the Notes to the Comparison between INSCRIPTIONS and MEDALS, in the first Volume; all I shall now add, is, that it is very rare be found, if not in the Libraries of the curious, and bears an excessive Price: It is not without many and gross Errours, which we expect corrected from Mr. Michael Mattaire, M. A. who has, some Time fince, published Proposals for that End.

Gerardi Joan. Vossii Isagoge Chronologia Sacra, 410. Haga-com. 1693. This Piece is to be found amongst the Works of Vollius; as also, in the Abridgement of Universal History, but is not very considerable.

Is. Vossius de Vera Ætate Mundi, 4to. Hagacom.

Leo Allatius de mensura Temporum Antiquorum, 8ve. Colon. 1645.

L'Antiquité des tems retablie, par le P. Pezron, 410. or 120. Paris 1687. A learned and well wrote Book.

Defense de l'Antiquité des tems, par le P. Pezron, 410. Paris 1691. This is an Apology for the foregoing Book.

L'Antiquité des tems detruite, par le P. le Quien, in 120. Paris 1693. A most accurate and judicious Piece.

Idem, Defense du Texte Hebreu, 120. Paris.

Le P. Martianai, Defense du Texte Hebren, 120. 2 Vol. Paris 1689. Very inaccurate.

Henrici Philippi Quastiones Chronologica, 410. Colo-

CHAP. V. GEOGRAPHERS.

Petri Bertii, fol. Amstelod. 1618. This is the Edition of Ptolomy, and is very rare. We have Edition of Ptolomy in Italian collated, corrected, and mented with Figures and Notes by Anthony Ma, and printed at Venice 1598, fol. and before by rame Ruscelli, who added an Explanation and Fies in two Volumes at Venice in 1566 and 1599, 4to. e Edition by Magini is the most esteemed, and the res are Engraven by Jerome Porri.

itrabonis Geographia ab Isaaco Casaubono, fol. Ge-2 1587. Idem, fol. Paris 1620. or in fol. Amstelod. Tol. 1707. This is a most excellent Geography, the last Edition is the most beautiful, as augmentwith some Treatises, and better regulated than the t; notwithstanding this, the Learned have always ferred the Editions of Geneva and Paris. It was salated into Italian by Alphonsus Bonaccinoli, and printn two Volumes in 410, in 1562.

itephanus Byfantinus de Urbibus ed. à Thoma de edo, fol. Amstelod. 1678. Idem cum notis Bercke-& Gronovii, fol. Amstelod. 1688. This last E-on is the best.

Lucæ Holstenii Notæ in Stephanum Bysantinum Urbibus, fol. Amstelodami 1684. A most curi-Book, a proper Addition to Stephanus Bizantinus, dished in the Year 1688.

Geographia Veteris Scriptores Graci Minores, 8vo. on. è Theatro Sheldoniano 1698, 4 Vol. The late ned Dr. Hudson, chief Keeper of the Bodleian wary in Oxford, published this Collection.

Ejustem veteris Geographia Tabula, fol. Paris 1628.
Ejustem Theatrum Geographia veteris, fol. Amstelod.
1618. This excellent Corpus contains Ptolomy, the Itineraries of Antonine, the Tables of Peutinger, the Maps of Ortelius. It is become very scarce. It is the same Work, of which I spoke under the Head of Ptolomy.

Æthici Cosmographia : Antonini Aug. Itinerarium Provinciarum, &c. e Bibl. P. Pithæi cum schol. Jos.

Simleri, 120. Basil. 1575.

Itinerarium Antonini; Augusti, & Burdigalense cum Hieron. Suritæ Commentariis, 8vo. Coloniæ 1600. A very rare Book, and most necessary for the antient Geography.

Abrahami Ortelii Theatrum Orbis terrarum, fol. Antverp. 1624. This Edition is much better than that of 1592.

Ejustem Thesaurus Geographicus, in 410. Hanoviz 1612. Idem in 410. Antverp. 1624. This last Edition is the best of all: It is an excellent Dictionary, considering the Time when published, but at present wants Correction.

Philippi Brietii Parallela Geographia veteris, & mevx, 410. Paris 1649, &c. 3 Vol. A most excellent and exact Work, of which we have but a part, the rest being not yet printed.

Philip. Ferrarii Lexicon Geographicum auctius editum à Michaele Baudrand, fol. Paris 1682. 2 Vol. This last Edition, though very incorrect, is much preferable to that of 1670.

Le Dictionnaire Geographique de M. Baudrand, 410. Amsterd. 17:1. This is a Translation of the last Book. Le Dictionnaire Geographique de M. Baudrand, fol-Paris 1706. This also is a Translation from the Latin of Bandrand, augmented, but worse, and more full of Faults than the former.

Dictionaire Geographique de Thomas Corneille in fol. Paris, 3 Vol. 1709. This is the Labour of an Author, well known for the Number of his Poetical Performances; and it may be faid to his Honour, that we have not as yet had so diffusive a Geographical Dictionary: And as vast Materials were sent him from the principal Cities of France, we may imagine, that he has spoke more to the purpose than former Authors.

Les Cartes Geographiques du meme, fol. 4 Vol. These Maps are the best of all. Nor can any compare with them but those of Monsseur de Lille.

Christophori: Cellarii Notitia orbis Antiqui, 4to. Cantabr. 1703. 2 Vol. This Work is admirable for the Understanding of antient Writers; we have not on this Head any equal. The Edition at Leipsick, revised by the Author, is better than the former.

Philippi Cluverii Introductio ad Geographiam, in 120. In 410. and in 240. This Abridgment is much esteemed, and has had many Editions.

M. Sanson Introduction à la Geographie, 120, Paris

Le Monde par M. Duval in 120. Paris, 2 Vol. An Author very inaccurate.

Methode pour apprendre la Geographie, par M. Robbe, 120. 2 Vol. Paris. This Geographical Compendium is passable.

Geographie Universelle du Sr. De la Croix, Lyon 1705, 5 Vol. A very wretched Book, tho' too much read.

Description de l'Univers par Alain Manesson Mallet, 870. 5 Vol. Paris 1683. A Work very ill put together, as being only plundered from Daviti and others. His Figures render him most remarkable, and yet it is become rare and dear.

Geographie nouvelle, par M. Martinau, 120. 3 Vol. Amsterd. 1700. This Geography is very good, even the best Abridgement yet printed.

Joan. Luyts Introductio ad Geographiam, 410. Ultrajecti 1692. This Author, who tread in Sanson's Steps, is much valued.

M. Audifret Geographie Ancienne, & Moderne, & Fiiftorique, 410. Paris 1689, 3 Vol. or in 120. Hollande, 3 Vol. This Book is too prolix for an Abridgement, and too concise for an Atlas: It contains but one Part of Europe.

Le monde par Daviti, fol. Paris, 6 Vol. 1660. A Piece very unexact, ill digested, and equally tiresome.

Le Grand Atlas, fol. 12 Vol. par Jean Bleau, Amflerd. 1667. The Maps are for the most part very good, the Exposition passable, and this is the largest Geographical Work yet extant. It is searched after, because rare, and rare, as part of the Edition and the Copper Plates were destroyed by Fire. But intelligent Persons make a proper Allowance, and do not cry it up too much. There is an Edition in Latin, in 11 Volumes, which is more valued.

Geographia Nubiensis ex Arab. in Latin. versa, 410.

Alexand. Sardi, de Moribus, & Ritibus Gentium, Lu. III. 120. Lipfiæ 1619. A valuable and rare Ecok.

Alexandre Ross, des Religions du monde, 410. or in 120. Amsterd. A curious Book, but ill translated into French, and to be read with much Caution: It was rote in English, and printed in 8vo. at London several Times.

Gerard. Joan. Vossius de Theologia Gentili, seu Idoislaria, fol. Amstel. 1668. This Piece is very Learned, and though imperfect, yet gives us an excellen: Account of the Pagan Worship; this and the sollowing Editions in Holland are the best.

Idem, fol. Franecker. 1700. 3 Vol.

Idem, fol. Francof. 1696. Idem, 8va. Amstelod. 1701. The Francfore Edition in Folio in 1696, is the best, and particularly esteemed for some Notes of Obrecht. That of Amsterdam in 1701, is esteemed for its Conveniency, as having the Notes under the Text; some of which, wrote by Gronovius, are injurious to Monarchy, and the Authority of Kings. That of Franceker in 1700, in three Volumes, has the Notes of Vandermensen, which are differently esteemed by the Learned, and there is a good Translation of this Work in French very little regarded.

Ittigius has taken Pains in that printed at Leipsick, which is correct. He has made a new Preface, and some Additions. An Edition was begun in England by Dr. Bernard, and only one Volume printed. We expect, with Impatience, that from Boivin, Sen. and Dr. Hudson. This last has been actually finished fince the Publication of our Author.

Les Antiquitez l'Indaiques de Josephe traduites par M. Arnauld d'Andilly, fol. Paris 1666, 2 Vol. Idem, 120. Paris 1668. Idem, 120. Bruxell. 1676. Idem; fol. Amsterd. 1681. With Figures. These are the best Editions as yet made of this Translation of 70-Sephus's fephus's Antiquities, and hath bore a numerous Impression, although not universally esteemed, nor altogether incorrect. It was also translated into Italian by Francis Baldelli, whose Edition printed at Venice by Giolico in 1581, is most valuable. In an English Dress it came from Sir Roger L'Estrange and Dr. Craff.

M. Jacques Basnage, Histoire de la Religion des Juiss depuis J. C. jusqui à present pour servir de continuation à l'Histoire de Josephe, in 120. Rotterdam 1707, 5 Vol. A Piece, which excepting what regards the Roman Catholick Religion, is highly instructive, and contains a large Fund of Learning, and most useful for the Knowledge of the Jewish Opinions and Ceremonies. It was reprinted in France with Alterations and Corrections, which no way hurt the Dutch Edition.

Idem, Antiquiter Judaiques, on remarques critiques fin la Republique des Hebreux Tome I. on quatrieme de la Republique des Hebreux, 8vo. Amsterd. 1713. This is an excellent Supplement to the three Books of the Republick of the Jews by Cunsus.

Histoire de l'Ancien, & du Nouveau Testament, avec des sigures, sol. Anvers 1700, 2 Vol. The Figures of this Book are fine, the History very exact; but as the Author is a Protestant, he has some Passages injurious to the Romish Religion.

M. Jacques Basnage, Histoires du Vieux, & da Nouveau Testament, representées en tailles douces, dessinées par Romain de Hogue, in fol. Amsterdam 1704. Idem, in fol. Amsterdam 1707. This Work, which is very entertaining, and valuable, has often been printed in Holland and Geneva, one Edition there is printed in Spanish Flanders. The two French Editions we have taken Notice of, are the best, and particularly that of 1707, larger than the former. Catholicks ought not to scruple reading a Book that is so very instructive, and where so sew Exceptions may be taken.

Athanas. Kircheri Arca Noe, fol. Amst. 1675. —Ejussem Turris Babel. fol. Amstelod. 1679. These are two curious and learned Works.

Joan. Buteo de Arca Noe, This is a very good Book, and printed in the Collection of Criticks in England.

M. Pelletier, Traité sur l'Arche de Noe, 120. Rouen:

1700. This is a curious Treatife.

Henr. Baumann, de Statua Salis, 410. Witteb. 1665, & 1674.

Joan. Saubert, de Statua Salis, & Lothi ex Sodoma e-gresse, 410. Helmst. 1674.

Ve de Mosse, 8vo. or in 120. Luxembourg. A Piece very little enquired after.

De vita & morte Moysis Ilebr. & Latin. cum No-213 Gilberti Gaumin. 8vo. Paris 1629. This is the Work of a fewish Rabbin, and in it are a Multitude of Jewish Whimsies.

Jacob. Schmalzii de Uxore Moysis Æthiopissa. 410.

Lipliz 1674.

Historia sacra Patriarcharam a Joan. Henr. Heideggero, 410. Amstelod. 1666. In this Book there is much excellent Learning.

Hustoria Balaam a Georg. Moebio. Lipsie 1676. Vira Davidis it Joan. Boschio. 800. Antwerp.

Historia politica de Persecutione Davidis à Virg. Mal-122213, 120 Ludg. Bat. 1660. A Book worth little.

Vie de David par M. l'Abbé de Choisi. This is in the Beginning of his Paraphrase on the Psalms of David.

Idem. Vie de Salomon, 8vo. Paris 1687.

Joan. Cognatus de Frosperitate, & Exilio Salomonis, 8vo. Duaci 1599. An Author of small Esteem.

Pineda de rebus gestis Salomonis, fel. Antverp. 1620. A valuable Work, little read, but deservesto be more studied.

Concordia Libror. Regum, & Paralipomenon. 4to. Paris 1691. Here should a Reader add the 54th and 55th Chapters of the ninth Book of Father Petan de Doctrina Temporum.

Familia Regum Judæorum à Rein. Reineccio. 800.

Lips. 1572.

Essai d'un Commentaire Historique sur les Prophetes par le P. Pezron. The Method of this small Piece is admirable; it is to be wished that we had the Prophetick History on this Plan.

Verite de l'Histoire de Judith, par le P. Bernard de Montsaucon, 120. Paris 1690. This, as well as the other Works of this learned Benedictme, is very exact.

Vie de Jesus Christ, par M.l'Abbè de S. Real, 410. or in 120. Paris. It was not a proper Province for the Abbé St. Real, a Man only of excellent Humour and polite Learning, to write a Life of Christ, for which Reason, it is but little inquired after.

Vie de Jesus Christ, par le P. Montreuil, corrigée par le P. Brignon, 120. Paris 2 or 4 vol. This Life is good, and well wrote, since Father Brignon interposed; and is beyond all the Harmonies that have been attempted of the Evangelists.

Concordia Evangelica, 120. Paris 1660. This Edition is valuable.

Unitas

Unit as Evangelistarum par le P. Amelot, 120. Pa-

Harmonia quatuor Evangelistarum a Bernardo Lami. 1689. 120. Paris. This Concordance is very good for forme Particularities.

Histoire Evangelique par le P. Pezron, 120. Paris 1696. 2 vol. This Concordance is excellent, and contains much prophane History, more perhaps than is seccessary for one, who would be acquainted only with the Life of Christ.

Francisc. Gomerus de Genealogia Christi, 120. Groning. 1631. Or in the Collection of his Works, and is of no Value.

Sylvestri Steyer Historia Genealogia J. C. fol. Francos.

Eman. Thesaurus de Genealogia Christi Salvatoris, fol.

Mediol 1661. A very mean Performance.

Ger. Joan. Vossius de Genealogia, & annis Christi, 410. Amstel. 1643. A poor Piece.

Historia Apostolica a Jacobo Capello.

Annales Paulini a Joanne Pearson, 420. Lond. 1687.

Printed with his other posthumous Works by a learned Divine of the Church of England.

ECCLESIASTICAL Historians.

D'schii Pamphili Historia Ecclesiastica Gr. & Lat. ab
Henr. Valesso, fol. Paris 1659.
Socratis & Sozomeni Historia Ecclesiastica Gr. & Lat.
Hen. Valesso fol. Paris 1668. And since publish'd in 3 Vol. in fol. at Cambridge by the Reverend Mr. Reading, Keeper of the Library, belonging to the London Clergy, in Sion College.

Theodoreti, & Evagrii Hiltoria Ecclesialtica, cum excerpiis Philostorgii, er Theodori lectoris Gr. et Lat. ab Henr. Valesio, fol. Paris 1673. This is also publish'd by Mr. Reading. The Text of these Editions of the Ecclesiastical Historians is very exact, the Translation faithful and elegant, and the Notes very learned. All these Historians have been also reprinted in Germany, but far worse than those at Paris. They were well translated into French by the President Consin. and printed at Paris in four Volumes, and in Holland in fix small Tomes; Theodoret is rare, as having been printed but once, whereas there have been two Editions of Eusebius and Socrates. Our English Translation we owe to the Reverend Dr. Shorting, late Master of Merchant-Taylors School in London.

Philostorgii Ecclesiastica Historia a Constantino M. ad sua usque Tempora, Libri XII. a Photio in Epitomen contracti, cum Differtat. Jac. Gothofredi, 4to. Genev.

Lactantius de Mortibus Persecutorum cum variorum Notis, 8vo. Ultraject, 1693. This is a Book of great Use to Ecclesiastical History. The Notes of learned Men amassed together in this Edition are very curi-Ous.

Lucilius Cacilius, de Mortibus Persecutorum cum Notis D. Nicholai Nourry, 8vo. Paris 1710. This is the same Book with the former, compared with a M.S. in the Library of Mr. Colbert, by Father Nonry, a Monk of the Order of St. Benedict. This Religious has added a long Differtation to prove that this Piece was not wrote by Lactantius, and to clear up fome Historical Points. There are learned Men of a different Opinion about this Matter.

Marii Mercatoris opera cum notis Garnerii, fol. Paris 1673. Idem cum notis Baluzii, 8vo. Paris 1684. It may be necessary to have both these Editions, as the Notes are different, and both are good. That published by Mr. Baluze is augmented with some Fragments.

Liberati Breviarium Historic Nestorianorum cum notis Garnerii. 8vo. Paris 1675. This Book is useful for the History of the Nestorian Herely.

Victor Vitensis de Persecutione Vandalica, cum Notis Theodor. Ruinart. 8vo. Paris 1699. This is excellent for the History of Arianism, and Father Chifflet has published an exact Edition of it.

Nicephori Callisti Historia Ecclesiastica a Langio, & Frontone Ducao, fol. Paris 1630. 2 vol. A very inaccurate Author, and beyond Measure credulous, but yet to be preserved.

Joan. Zonaræ Historia Ecclesiastica a Carolo du Cange, fol. Paris e Tipog. regia 2 vol. 1646. This Piece is very good for the middle Ages, was translated into Italian, and published by Giolito in 4to. in 1569.

Anastasii Bibliothecarii Historia Ecclesiastica cum Notis

Fabroti. fol. Paris e Typog. Regia 1642.

Acta Martyrum vera & sincera, cum Notis Theodorici Ruinart. 410. Paris 1689. Id. fol. Amst. 1713. This is an excellent Collection of authentick Acts of the Martyrs of the three first Centuries.

The last Dutch Edition is augmented by the Au-

Cardinalis Baronii Annales Ecclesiastici, fol. 12 vol., Romæ. Idem 12 vol. Antverp. Plantin. Idem 6 vol. Moguntiæ 1601. Idem 6 vol. Colon. Agripp. Joseph Scaliger, he, who once boasted, that there was nothing more for him to learn, consesses, that he never read Baronius, without gaining some new Light, D 3

And it is an Opinion, almost universal, that considering the Time, nothing so large or better methodized. on the Subject of Ecclesiastical History, has yet appeared. The finest Editions are those of Rome and Answers, but the most useful, that at Mentz, as the Authorities of the antient Authors are put in a different Character, from the Text of Baronius, and it is printed in two Columns. In this Work there are some Errours, which have been corrected by diff:ren Authors.

Odorici Raynaldi Continuatio Annalium Baronii, in fol. Roma 10 vol. 1646, 1648, &c. Idem Colon, Agripp. 8 vol. Though this Work is not a Continuation equal to Baronius, yet is it of great Use, as it was compiled from the Vatican Archives. and has in it many original Papers. To the Edition printed at Cologn, are wanting the two last Volumes, which relate to the Council of Trene.

Odorici Raynaldi octo priora Volumina in epitomen redacta. fol. Rom. 1668. I hough this Abridgement is very mean, yet wants it not Buyers at a very high Rate.

Abrahami Bzovii Annales Ecclefiastici post Baronium. fol Colon. Agripp. 1616. &c. 9 vol. This Author is very inaccurate, and rather gives a History of the Order of St. Dominick, of which he was a Fryar, than of the Church.

Henrici Spondani Epitome Annalium Card. Baronii, fol: 2 vol. Paris.

Idem Continuatio Annalium Card. Baronii, fol. Paris 2 or 3 vol. The best Edition of Spondanus his Works was published by None, in fix Volumes in fol. Afterwards was printed by the Booksellers of Paris, and the last and worst is that of Lyons.

Antonii Pagi Cruica in Annales Baronii, fol. Genev. 1705. 4 vol. This Book, of Use to correct the Chrono Chronology of Baronius, is very exact: The first Vo-

Volume published at Paris is valued.

M. de Godeau, Histoire Ecclesiastique, fol. 3 Vol. Paris, or in 120. 6 Vol. Holland, & Lyons. This History reaches only to the tenth Century, and is esteemed very little, since Mr. Fleury published another on the same Subject.

Memoires pour servir a l'Histoire Ecclesissique par M. de Tillemont, 410. Paris 15 vol. Had the Author lived, we had Reason to hope for a Continuation of this Work, which, though a little tiresom, is full of prodigious Learning. After forty Years Study, we have only six Centuries compleat, and even for that two Volumes have been added. It was begun to be re-printed at Brussels, in six Tomes, or rather in eighteen small Pocket Volumes. Some Years since, Proposals were published for a Translation of this Work by the Reverend Mr. Deacon, which afterwards dwindled into one Part, the History of Arianism, as it is supposed the Translator met not with the desired Encouragement.

Histoire Ecclesiastique par M. l' Abbé Fleury, 4to. Paris 16 vol. This is a Composition of great Exactness, wrote in a most edifying and instructive Method. Part of it has been translated, and in March, 1727, published by the Reverend Mr. Herbert, who, it is to be hoped, will give the World a faithful and honest Translation of his Author, without Castrations of what is heterodox, but rather apply by his Notes an Antidote to the Poison. It is a very just, and I wish not unanswerable, Objection, made by our Enemies, that we give them Authors, not such as they really are, but modelled as we approve of them. Instances are invidious, I shall therefore omit them.

Histoire de l'Eglise par M. l'Abbé de Choisi, 4te. 6 vol. Paris. This is wrote in the Author's own Sryle, D 4 brisk brisk and polite. He acknowledges how much he is obliged to Tillemont, and F. Alexander.

Natalis Alexandri Dissertationes Historico-Chronologica, & Critica in Historiam Ecclesiasticam, fol. Paris 8 vol. or in 8 vol. 36 vol. This History is of a very great Use, being a Collection of all the Authorities of the Fathers on the controverted Points of Ecclesiastical History. Many of the Criticks differ from him in their Notions. The Edition in sol. is the best. That re-printed last at Paris is more correct than the former.

Antiquitas Ecclesia illustrata per Eman. Schelstraten, in 410. Antverp. or in fol. Romæ 1692. This Book is a Mixture of good and bad.

Traité Historique du Chef de S. Jean-Baptiste, 4to. Paris 1665. This is a curious Piece of du Cange, and in Esteem.

Eclaircissemens sur l'Histoire des deux premiers sucles de l'Eglise, par M. Faydit, 8vo. 1695. There is a good deal of Learning, and some Whims in this Book. The same Author had begun a Critick on Mr. Tillemont, under the Title of Memoires sur les Memoires de M. de Tillemont. The first Volume, which was more merry than wise, was suppressed, but soon after continued.

Vie de S. Jean Chrysostome de M. Hermant, 41e. or in 8vo. Paris, Savreux, and in 8vo. Lyon.

Vie de S. Athanase par M. Hermant. 410. or in 8ve. 2 vol. Paris.

Vie de S. Basile, & de S. Gregoire de Nazianze, par M. Hermant, 410. 2 vol. Paris 1674.

Vie de S. Ambroise, par M. Hermant, 410. Paris 1678. All these several Lives wrore by Hermant contain the Ecclesiastical History of the Times, they are wrote in too copious a Style, and Matters are not sufficiently clear'd up.

chief HISTORIANS.

Via S. Augustini a Monachis Benedictinis. In the last Volume of S. Augustin's Works of the last Edition.

Joannis Cabassutii Notitia Ecclesiastica, fol. Lugduni 1600. This, though not very exact, may be made use of as an Introduction to Church History.

La Rocque Memoires d l'Eglise, 4to. Paris 1690. A Book of small Consideration.

Auberti Miræi Chronicon Ecclesiasticum a Christo nato, 410. Antverp. 1608. In this Work are Fragments of the Chronicles of Ensebins, Sigebert, and Anselm of Gemblours. This Edition is esteemed.

CHAP. IX.

Ecclesiastical History wrote by Protestants, and therefore to be read with Caution.

ISTORIA Ecclefiafica congesta per Magdeburgenses, & alios, fol. Basil. 13 vol. 1562. Idem fol. Basil. 1626. 3 vol. These Centuriators, amongst many bad Things, have some good, but it is not a Work much enquired after. The best Edition is that of 1562, though that of 1624 is not bad.

Isaaci Casauboni Exercitationes in Baronium, fol. Londini 1614. Idem 410. Francos. 1615. This Piece has not hit much the Taste of the Learned, nor is it esteemed by Protestants themselves.

Idem, Vita Jesu Christi, seve Originum Eccles. Pars posterior, fol. Lond. 1640. These Works of Bishop Mountague are not very much valued; they are a Continuation of Casaubon.

Joan. Henrici Hottingeri Historia Ecclesiastica Novi

Testamenti, 8vo. Hanoviæ 1655, 8 Vol.

Le Sueur Histoire de l'Eglise, & de l'Empire, 410. Genev. 8 Vol. or in 810. 8 Vol. Some esteem this History at a high Rate.

Samuel Basnage de Rebus Ecclesiasticis contra Baronium, 410, Ultrajecti 1692. This is no more valued than *Casaubon. whom he continues.

This, which is neither better nor worse, than the former, comprizes only the five first Centuries of the Church.

François Bourgoin: Histoire Ecclesiastique, in fol. Genevæ 1653, & 1665, 2 Vol. This History is not much enquired after.

Jacques Basnage Histoire de l'Eglis, in fol. 2 Vol. Roterdam 1699. A Book very much cried up by Protestants, and as eagerly desired by many Catholicks, although dangerous to such who are not well confirmed in the Doctrines and Principles of their Communion. I cannot but here do Justice to this Author, who has in his Jewish Antiquities corrected some Passages of his Annals relating to the Chaldean and Syrian Kings, in which he found himself mistaken.

History of HERESIES.

Homas Ittigius de Haresiarchis primorum Saculorum, in 410, Lipsiæ 1690. An exact, judicious, but dangerous Author.

Alphonsus à Castro de Herasibus Liber. in fol. Paris 1560. Idem in fol. Paris 1578. This last Edition is the best.

1528.

Bernardi Lutzemburgi Catologus Hareticorum omnium, in 410. Paris 1524. These Works are not very exact, or esteemed.

Gabriel Prateolus Elenchus Hareticorum omnium, in fol. Coloniæ 1599. Idem in 410. Coloniæ 1605. A Book very rare, and much enquired after; the Reafon I cannot conceive, as the Author is not exact, and makes a mighty Merit to multiply Herefies.

Iconica & Historica Descriptio pracipuorum Heresiarcha-rum, in fol. Arnhæmii 1609.

Theodor. Petreii Catalogus Hereticorum, in 410. Coloniæ 1628. This Book is valued as little as it deferves. We impatiently expect the general History of Herefy, which Mr. James Basnage has had so long on the Anvil.

Conrad. Schlusselburgii Catalogus Hareticorum, in 8vo.

Francosurti 1597. 7 vol.

It is rather Controversal than Historical.

Histoire des Martyrs, in fol. Genevæ 1582, There are three Editions of this Book, where may be seen the Proceedings against the Lutherans, Calvinists, Followers of Wiclist, and other Hereticks.

John Fox Acts and Monuments of the Church, &c. 3 vol. in fol. —And reprinted in as many Volumes in A Work of great Pains, though the Puritanica! Turn the Author was byaffed by, which is very evident in his whole Work, has given good Reason to suspect his Honesty, as well as Capacity: In troublesome and noisy Times, when Smithfield Fires were scarce extinguished, this Author's Reputation began to rise so high, as to procure his Work a Post in the Parochial Churches, almost equal to that of the Holy Scriptures; but in after Days, when some of his Martyrs appear'd alive to confront their Register, the Book was suppressed, new modelled, and came out in a larger, though somewhat more modest, Dress; with a thinner red-lettered Calandar. Though I would not be thought here to defend many of the Absurdities, Fallehoods, &c. with which Father Parsons charges our Author, yet no Party-Zeal will justify what is not defensible: To do him all the Justice imaginable, it is no small Satisfaction to see so many original Papers, concerning our Reformation, preserved, which we owe to his Care.

CHAP. XL

EREMITICAL and MONASTI-CoAL History.

Eriberti Rosweidi Vita Patrum, seu bistoria Eremitica, in fol. Antverp. 1615, & 1628. These are the Lives of the antient Hermits, a curious, and now, rare Collection, the Fragments contained in it are excellent.

M. Arnaud. d'Andilli; Les Vies des SS. Peres des deserts, in 4to. Paris 1647. 2 vol. Idem in 8vo. Paris 1668. 3 vol. The Edition in 8vo is in the most Esteem, and is a Translation of Part of the Collection made by Rosweid. It is rather a Devotional, than Historical Treatise: The Translation is not always faithful, but sometimes deviates much from the Original.

Lovis Buiteau: Abregé de l'histoire Monastique d'Orient, in 8vo. Paris 1680. This is a most exact and valuable Book.

Benedictus Gononus Vice Patrum Occidentalium, in fol. Lugduni 1625. This is a Collection much of the same Nature with that made by Rosweid.

M. de Villefore: Abregé des Vies des peres des deferts d'Orient, in 120. Paris 1707. 2 vol.

Idem: Abregé des Vies des Peres des desertes d'Occident, in 120. Paris 1708. 2 vol. These two aforementioned Pieces are well wrote, though to be read rather as Works of Piery than History.

Jean Mabillon Traité des Etudes Monastiques, 8vo.

Paris 1691. A very curious Work.

Of the Order of St. BENEDICT.

Louis Bulteau: Abregé de l'Histoire de l'Ordre de Saint Benoist, in 410. Paris 1648. 2 vol. This Book, E 3 which which is in itself very good, had not the Run which might have been expected.

Jo. Mabillonii Annales Ordinis S. Benedicti, in fol. Paris 1700. 5 vol. Sufficient is the bare Name of Father Mabillon to induce us to believe the greatest Exactness. We are deprived of a Continuation of this Work by the Death of that learned and exemplary Religious, as well as of Theod. Ruinart.

De Lucas D'Acheri, & Jo. Mabillon Alta Santisrum Ordinis Sancti Benedicti, in fol. 1669, &c. 9 Vol. Father Ruinart published the two last Volumes. The Prefaces to this Work, are compleat Discourses on those Points of History and Discipline of which they treat. These two Works are sufficient to give an Insight into the antient History of the Order of St. Benedict.

printed at Antwerp in 1576; but Dorscheus in his Syll. Sem. Miscellan, pag. 100. and others, think that Truthemius was not the Author.

Danielis Papenbrochii Responsio ad Sebastianum à Sancto Paulo pro Historia Carmelitarum ab ipso in actis Sanctorum relata, in 4to. Antverp. 1697, &c. 2 Vol. Against this Father Papenbrock, who had spoke with much more Modesty and Judgement of the Antiquity of the Carmelites, these Fryars wrote with much Heat, and interested in the Affair the Spanish Inquifition, who obliged him to make an Apology, which is no way favourable to the Order.

FRANCISCANS.

Lucæ Wadingi Annales Ordinis Minorum, in fol. Lugduni 1635, &c. 8 Vol. quorum altimus Romæ 1650, prodiit. This diffusive Work is the best Extant for the History of the Order of St. Francis of Assis. The original Papers of Proofs are at the End of each Volume. The Author has not been able to forbear broaching some idle Stories, which run amongst his Order. The eighth Volume is an exact Catalogue of the Writers of the Order, and therefore to be met with separately. It was revised and augmented by the learned Francis Arold.

CHAP. XIII.

The History of the Society of JESUS.

HERE has been no Congregation of Priests subject to Rules, which has afforded so much Matter for History, as the Jesuis; but we shall take Notice here only of their principal Historians.

Nicol. Orlandini & Fr. Sacchini Historia Societatis

Jesu, in fol. Roma 1615.

This History is well wrote, and to it was added at Rome a Continuation.

' Historia Societatis Jesu Pars quinta, in fol. Romæ

fel: Romæ 1710. Pars sexta 1711.

Imago Primi Saculi Societais Jesu, in sol. Antverpize 1640. This is a Piece singular for the Style and peculiar Manner of its Writing, and is rare.

Eusebii

Eusebii de Nieremberg: Historia de los Varones Illustres de la Compania de Jesus, sol. Madrid 1645, 4 Vol.

Daniel Bartoli dell' Istoria della Compagnia di Gesa; L'Europa, in fol. Roma 1677, & 1673, 2 Vol.

— Dell' Istoria della Compagnia di Gesu; L'Asia, in fol. Roma 1663, & 1667, 2 Vol.

* — Dell' Istoria della Compagnia di Gesu d'Inghilterra, fol. Roma 1667.

Daniel. Bartoli Historia Societatis Fesu Europæa, Lug-

dun. 1666. Idem, In 410. Romæ 1667. This is translated from the Latin into Italian, and is valued much.

Petr. Ribadeneira: Vua S. Ignatii, in 8vo. Neapoli

Tita Ignatii Loyolæ cum Scholiis Chrifliani Simonis Lithi Miseni, in 8vo. 1598. The Notes on this Book are so many Satyrs on St. Ignatina Loyola, and the Pieces following wrote by Gretser, oppose this Heretical Commentator.

Jacobi Gretseri Soc. Jesu Apologia I. pro Vita S. Ig-natii, in 8vo. Ingolstad. 1599.

____ Apologia II. pro Vita S. Ignatii, in 8vo. Ingolstad. 1601.

____ Apologia III. pro Vita S. Ignatii, in 8vo. Ingolftad. 1604.

Historia Jesuitici Ordinis, in 410. Ingolstad. 1594. All Gretser has published, as well dogmatical as historical, is rare and esteemed.

Jo. Petri Maffei Historia Societatis Jesu in Indiis cum Vua S. Ignatii, in fol. Romæ 1588. Idem, In fol.

Coloniæ 1593.

Vita S. Ignatii, Separatim, in 8vo. Coloniæ 1585, & in 8vo. Paris 1641.

Jacob. Payva: Libellus de Origine Societatis Jesu, in 8vo. Lovanii 1566. This, with its Orthodox Exposition, is a curious and rare Piece.

Christoph. Gomez Elogia Soc. Jesu, in fol. Antv. 1681. This contains not only the Elogia, given to the Society by Popes and other Men of Figure, but even those of Angels and Devils.

Constant. Cajetani de Religiosa S. Ignatii Fundatoris S. J. per Patres Benedictinos Institutione, deque Libello Exercitiorum ejusdem, in 8vo. Venetiis 1641. In this Book is one Thing singular, that the Author pretends to prove that the Book of Exercises was not the Work of St. Ignatius, but of Cisneros, a Spanish Benedictine Monk; but so ill does he maintain his Argument, that it has not raised the least doubt against the general Opinion. Though the Book is scarce, it is neither well wrote, nor much esteemed.

Daniel Bartoli: Vita di S. Ignazio, in fol. Roma

1650. & 1659, fol.

Le P. Bouhours: Vie de S. Ignace, in 410. Paris 1679. Idem, In 120. Paris 1680. This Life, as well as that of St. Francis Xavier, wrote by the same Bouhours, is well wrote, and much esteemed.

Collegium Germanicum [Romæ] S. J. de Vita S. Ig-natii, in 410. Romæ 1609.

Jos. Juveneus Histor. Societat. Fesu, fol. Rom. 1710. Petr. Ribadeneiræ Viua Jacobi Laynis, secundi Societ. Fesu Generalis, in 8vo. Coloniæ 1604. This Jesuit was one of the ablest Governours this politick Society ever enjoyed.

- Vita Francisci Borgiæ, tertii Societat. Jesu

Generalis, in 8vo. Antverp. 1598.

Le P. Verius: Histoire de S. François de Borgia, in 420. Paris 1671. Idem, In 120. Paris 1672.

Francisc. Sacchinus de Vita, & rebus gestis Petri Ca-

De Vita, & Moribus Leonardi Lessii, in 120. Paris.

La Vie du P. Antoine Possevin, 120. Paris 1712. This Life is curious, for the Account of the Labours and Negotiations of this able Jesuit, for the Holy See of Rome in Muscovy, Poland, and other Northern Countries.

Jacq. Fuligati: Vie du Cardinal Bellarmin, Jesuite Traduite de l'Italien en François par Pierre Morin, in 820. Paris 1625.

In 410. In Latin Leodii 1626. These two Editions, with that in Italian, are more rare, and best wrote.

Le P. Frison: La Vie du Cardinal Bellarmin, in 410. Nancy 1709. This is a curious and well penned Life, but must not be read without consulting that by Fuliqui.

Petrus Roverius de Vita Petri Cotoni Societ. Jesu, in 8vo. Lugduni 1660.

Le P. Jos. d'Orleans Vie du P. Cotton, in 410. Paris 1688. This Author, though not bad, has omitted in this Life many important Facts, mentioned by Father Roviere.

Petri à Ribadeneira, & Philippi Alegambe Bibliotheca Scriptorum Societatis Jesu, in fol. Antverp. 1643. Idem, Aucta & recognita à Nathanaele Southwell, in fol. Roma 1676. This is one of the most ample Works on the Subject, and I have noticed the best Editions. That at Rome is the largest. Father Bananni, the well known modern Medalist, designed to write on this Head, but changed his Mind, but entring upon more entertaining Studies till his Death, lest this Province to others.

Recueil des Lettres Patentes Octroyées aux Jesuites pour leur Rétablissement, avec les Romontrances du Parlement, les Oppositions de la Faculté de Theologie, & dé l'Université, in 410. Paris 1612. There have been continual Jars between the Jesuites and the University of Paris, even from the Foundation of the Order, which probably will never be entirely qualified.

Elias Ashmole History of the Order of the Garter, fol. Lond. abridged in 8vo. in 1715, and used much by Mr. Salmon and Dr. Dawson in their Labours on the same Subject.

Of the other Orders, which are only Marks of Honour, I shall speak when I come to the Kingdoms where they are in Esteem, as of the Golden Fleece in the History of the Low Countries, the Holy Ghost in that of France, those of Alcantara and Calatrava in Spain, and so of the rest.

CHAP. XV.

Of the History of Æ G Y P T, Old G R E E C E, A S S Y R I A, and the first Monarchies.

Iov. Mich. Vanslebio: Relazione del presente Stato dell' Egitto, in 120. Fioren. 1670. Idem, Parig. 1671.

Jo. Mich. Vanslebio Nouvelle Relation d'un Voyage fait en Egypte en 1672, & 1673, in 120. Paris 1677. These are very curious and instructive Voyages, and have been translated into English. The same Author has wrote an excellent History of the Church of Alexandria.

Joan. Bapt. Casalius de Veterum Agyptiorum moribus, in 410. Romæ 1644. This Piece is tolerable, though somewhat shallow.

Phlegontis

Phlegontis Tralliani opuscula, cum notis Meursii. in Ato. Lugdun. Batav. 1620. In it is a Letter on the Customs of the Agyptians, printed before at Venice in 1 525.

Athanasii Kircheri Oedipus Ægyptiacus, in fol. Romæ 1652, 1653, & 1654, 4 Vol. In this Book is much useful and necessary, as well as mere Curiosity. It is very rare, not having been reprinted in Holland, as were the other Works of Father Kircher.

Ioann. Marshami Canon Chronicus Hebraicus, Ægyptiacus, Græcus, in fol. Londini 1672. This is a beautiful and scarce Edition, but those printed at Leichick and Francker are not so much esteemed.

Flavii Josephi Responsio ad Appionem Grammaticum. This may be met with amongst the Works of Fosephus, and in it are several Fragments very necessary for the antient History of Agypt, and the first Monarchies Hermanni Conringii Adversaria Chronologica de Asia & Ægypti Dynastiis, in 410. Helmestad. 1650. This Differentiation is curious and uncommon.

Conradus Samuel Schurtzsleiscius de genuina atate Affgriorum, & Regno Medorum. This Piece is to be found amongst the Author's Works, printed at Berlin in 410. in 1699.

Ulrici Huberi Dissertationes septem, in 8vo. Francker. This Author follows the Account of Ctelias. who allows fix hundred Years to the Duration of the Affirian Monarchy.

Jacobi Perizonii Origines Babylonicæ. Idem, Ori-gines Ægyptiacx, 8vo. Lugd. B. 1711.

Christophor. Cellarii Dissertatio de Principio Regnorum, & Rerumpublicarum, in 410. Halæ 1697. This Writer defends Herodotus against Huberus on the Continuance of the Assirian Monarchy, to which he allows no more than five hundred and twenty Years.

Paulaniæ Grecie Descriptio Græc. Latin, cum notis

Sylburgii, in fol. Hanov. 1613.

— Cum notis Kuhnii Grac. Latin, in fol. Lipsiæ 1696. This Edition is the best, and all know well the Use this Author is of for the History of all Greece. It was translated into Italian by Alphonsus Buonacciuoli, and printed at Mantova in 410. 1593.

Joan. Laurembergii Gracia Antiqua cum tabulis Geographicis ari incifis, edeme Samuele Puffendorf, in 410. Oblongo, Amst. dami 1666. An esteemed Book.

Jacob. Palmerii Grentmenillæi Descriptio Antique Gracie, in 42. Jugdun. Batav. 1678. A deep and exact Author.

Carolus Sigonius de Republica Atheniensium, in 8vo, Venetiis 1565. This is one of the most practifed Men in the old Greek and Roman History, and this Work was reprinted with the other Things wrote by Sigonius.

— De Republica Lacedemoniensium, in fol. To be found amongst his Works collected.

Thomas Cragius de Republica Lacedamoniorum, in 8vo. Lugdun. Batav. 1671. There are older Editions of this Book, which, though learned, is somewhat confused.

Calliet Albenes Ancienne, & Nouvelle, in 120. Paris 1676. This Author has succeeded very well, but the Book is little read, and its Author has been but ill rewarded for his Trouble.

Nicolaus Sienicius de Politia, seu Republica Spartana, in 110. Danfisci 1606.

Ubb) Himmins Vetus Gr. cia Illustrata, seu de Rebujgabl. Gracor. in Svo. tribus Tomis Lugdun. Batav. 1626. This is good for a beginning to the Study of the antient Gracian History.

Hifteine General de la Grecc, in 120. Paris 1669, 2 Vol. This is but little valued, and as little enquired after.

Dictys

Dictys Cretensis, & Dares Phrygius de Bello Trojano, cum Interpretatione Annæ Daceriæ, in 410. Paris 1680.

— Cum eadem Interpretatione, ac variorum notis, cur. Jac. Perizonii, in 8vo. and in 4to. Amstelodam. 1702. Although these are spurious Authors, yet in them are Matters of Use. The last Edition is the largest and best. There is an Italian Version of Thomas Porcacci, printed by Giolito, in 4to. 1570.

Herodoti Halicarnass. Historiarum Libri IX. cum Ctesic fragmentis, Grec. Lat. in fol. Francosurt. 1608.

— Greec. Lat. curâ Thomæ Gale, in fol. Londini 1679. This, though a beautiful and exact Edition, does not exceed that at Francfort. This Historian was translated into French by Mr. Ryer. It may be observed, that the former Part of Dr. Gale's Work is very laboured; but it is well known, that he himself acknowledged, that he could not carry on the Work according to his Design, because of the Troubles that broke out in the Nation. We have an Italian Translation by Count Matteo Maria Boiardo, in 8vo. Venez. 1533, 1539, and 1565. The last Edition is the best. Gronovius in 1715, published this Author in Greek and Latin in Holland.

Thucydides de Bello Peloponnesiaco, Grac. Lat. in fol. Henr. Stephan. 1588. Idem, In fol. Francof. 1594, and 1599. Idem, In fol. Oxonii 1696. Both these Editions are good; that of Oxford, though the most beautiful Letter, is not the best. This excellent Author was translated into French by Mr. Ablancourt, and by Mr. Claude de Sersell, 120. Paris 1545. faid, that the Emperour Charles the Fifth read it in French, recommended it to his Counsellours, and often enquired, if they had not found great Use in it. It was translated into Italian by Francis Strozzi, printed in 8vo. at Venice 1545, and in 4to. 1564. second Edition is the best. There is an English Version by Mr. Hobbes. fol. Reprinted in 2 Vol. in 8vo. G 4 at Lond. 1723.

Xenophontis Opera omnia Grac. Lat. in fol. Francos. 1596. Idem, In fol. Grac. Lat. Paris 1625. Idem, Ed. Ed. Wells, in 8vo. Oxonii 1691, 1693, 1696, 1700,1703. 5 Vol. The Gracian History, wrote by this Author, is translated into French by Mr. Ablancourt. These three Editions are the best, but that of Paris is to be preserved (according to Mr. Fresnoy) to the other at Oxford. It was translated into Italian by Francis Strozzi, by Louis Domenichi, and by Mark Anthony Gandini. The best and most beautiful Edition is by Dissincelli in 410. at Venice 1588. The History of the Affairs of Greece in seven Books is translated by Mr. John Newman into English, 8vo. Lond. 1665.

Diodori Siculi Bibliotheca Historica Libri V. Grac. Lat. per Laurentium Rhodomannum, in fol. Hanov. 1604. This Author is considerable for the History of the antient Monarchies. Mr. Amyor has translated him into French, a Work not so well esteemed as his Plutarch. The Greek and Latin Edition of 1604, the best and very scarce is reprinted in Holland, translated into Italian by Francis Baldelli and printed by Giolito in 2 Vol. 410. at Venice 1715, the best and most compleat Edition.

Arrianus de Expeditione Alexandri Magni à Jacob, Gronovio Grac. Lat. in fol. Lugd. Batav. 1704. Idem, In 8vo. Cum notis variorum, Amstel. 1668, Gronovius his Edition is very beautiful. Mr. Ablancourt has given him a French dress, and is esteemed one of his best Works. Peter Lauro of Modona translated it into Italian, which was printed in 8vo, at Ve-

—— Gric. Lai. Cur: Herman. Cruserii, & Guil. Xilandri, in fol. Francosurii 1599. Ibid. 1620. Grac. Lat. 2 Vol.

I have taken Notice of the best Editions. That of Paris Gr. Lat. of 1624, is the best, though in the Opinion of many of the Learned it is very incorrect. The French Translation by Mr. Amjor, 150 Years fince, has a certain beautiful Air, which time has no The two Editions by Vascosan are ways injured. good, but that in 8vo. in thirteen Volumes, is the most searched for, and is very dear as well as scarce. Several other Editions in different Sizes have been made of this Author in 8vo. and fol. The Abbée Tellement has attempted a new Translation, or rather a Paraphrase on the Lives of Plutarch, but he well defaves the Title given him of a stupid Mimick of Mr. Anyot. It is reported that Mr. Meziriac has made a new Translation not yet published: And Dacar has begun, and printed one Volume before 1716. which the World wishes to see finished. Works have had several Editions in the Italian Language. Louis Domenichi translated the Lives, whose beautiful Edition on a Royal Paper was printed by Cielto at Venice, in two Volumes, 4to. 1565, into Emplos. The Lives were first translated, and printed at Land. - fol. and since introduced, a Joint-labour of several, by Mr. Dryden into the World in the Year 1684, in 5 Volumes in 8vo. since reprinted in 120. Ind. The Morals are also published in English by several Hands, in five Volumes, Lond. 1684, 8vo.

Georgii Gemisti Plethonis Gracorum gesta post pugnam ad Mantineam, in sol. Bas. 1540. After Herodotus and Thucydides, his Translator Mr. Antonius Antimachus prefers him to the rest of the Gracian Historians.

Cornclius Nepos de Vitis Imperatorum Gracorum, & Latinor. in fol. Francosurt. 1608. Ibid. In fol. 1609. Idem In 8vo. cum notis Variorum, Amstelod. 1687. Idem, Ad Osum Delphiai cum Notis Nicolai Courtin, in 4to Paris 1675. Idem, In 120. Oxonii 1687. Idem, Cum Notis Essenii, in 120. Trajecti ad Rhenum 1691. All these Editions of this valuable Work are good; but those at Oxford and Francsort are the best, where two English Translations of it, the one introduced by the Honourable Princh, in 8vo. by different Hinds, the other printed in 120. Lond.

Quintus Curtius de Rebus gestis Alexandri Magni Commentarii, cum Matt. Radeii Commentariis, in fol. Francof. 1628. Idem, In 410. cum Notis Freinshemii, Argentorati 16-0. Idem, cum Notis Variorum cura Semuelis Pitifci, in 8vo, Ultrajecti 1685, & 1696. Idem, In 120. Lugd. Batavor. Elzevir 1633. Idem, Ad Vium Screniff. Delchini cum notis P. Le Tellier, 110. Paris 1680. This offcemed Author was translated by Tangelas into French in a most inimitable manner. The Edition at Strasbourg, that by Father Tellier, and those cum Notis Variorum of 1685 and 1696, are the best. That by Elzevir is valuable for nothing but the Beauty of the Types and its Portableness. In reading this Author it may be worth while to observe what Mr. Le Clerc has said in his Ars Critica, and what Terizonus has wrote against him, whowas one of the most learned and conversant Men in the antient Learning that Europe for some time has produced. It was translated into Italian by Thomas Poresecti, and printed in 4to. by Cicloto 1559, but before fore by Peter Candido, in 8vo, at Florence in 1570.

In English there are two or more Translations.

Justinus Historiarum Philippicarum, & totius mundi ex Trogo Pompejo Libri XLIV. cum notis Bongarsii, in 800. Paris 1581. Idem, ad Usum Pelphini a Joseph. Cantel. Soc. Fes. in 410. Paris 1677. Idem, cum notis Variorum a J. G. Grævio, in 800. Lugd. Batav. 1683. Idem, In 120. Lugd. Bat. Elzevir 1640. This Author is of Use for the antient History, although there are some Facts, which we must not entirely depend on upon his sole Authority. It is translated into Italian by Thomas Porcacci, and printed in 410, by Giolico at Venice in 1561. An English Version we have by Mr. Brown, Lond. , 120.

Excerpta ex Nicolao Damasceno, Polybio, &c. ab Henrico Valesso, Grac. Lat. in 4to. Paris 1634.

Legationes excerpta ex Polybio, Dionysio Halicarnass. Diodoro, &c. Grac. cum notis Fulvii Ursini, in 410.

Antverp. 1582.

Wolfgangi Lazii rerum Gracarum libri duo in fol. Hanov. 1605. Lazius was not a Man of much Judgement: He has given into many idle Stories, but his Works are searched after by the curious, and are uncommon.

Jacob. Gronovii Thesaurus Grscarum Antiquitatum, in fil. Lugd. Batav. 1697, 1698, &c. usque ad 1703. 13 Vol. This is one of the most compleat Collections of the Differtations and Treatises wrote by the Moderns on the History and Antiquities of Greece, but yet is not so much esteemed as that made by Gravius of the Roman Antiquities.

Joan. Vaillant Historia Ptolemaorum Agypti Regum, in fol. Ainstelod. 1701. This is a learned Performance, and founded upon Medals.

Joan. Vailiant Historia Seleucidarum, sive Regum Sy-

CHAP. XVI. ROMAN HISTORY.

DET. Joseph. Cantelii Respublica Romana, in 120. Ultraj. 1696. This is an excellent Compendium of the Roman Antiquities, and sufficient for one who would not dip deep. There are Editions printed at Paris in Latin and French, but that I have menaioned is the best.

Henr. Kippingii Antiquitatum Romanarum Libri IV. 8vo. Brem. 1664. Idem 8vo. Maj. Lugd. Bat. 1713. The last Edition is more valued than the others as adorned with Figures, and many Notes by a learned Man.

G. H. Nieupoort Rituum, qui olim apud Romanos obtinuerunt, succineta Explicatio, in 8vo. Ultraject. 1712. Idem 8vo. Budissa 1713. This Work was received with universal Applause.

Joan. Rosini Antiquitates Romana, cum Thomæ Dempsteri Paralipomenis, in 410. Lugd. Batav. 1663. There have been many Editions of this admirable Work, but a better there is not than that I have mentioned. This is a Treatise sufficient for the Knowledge of the Roman Antiquities.

Wolfgangi Lazii de Romana Republica Libri XII. in fol. Basilez 1551. Idem, In fol. Francosurt. 1598. This last is the fullest and best; the Author is learned and indefatigable, though not always accurate.

Notitia Imperii Romani cum Commentariis Guidonis Pancirolli, in fol. Venetiis 1593, and in fol. Lugduni 1608. This Piece is reprinted by Gravius in his Collection, and it is an uleful and learned Work.

Alexandri

Alexandri Donati S. J. Roma Vetus, ac Recens, in 410. Romæ 1639. Idem Romæ 1663, and Amflelod. 1694. Or in the Collection made by Gravius. This Description of Rome is learned and exact. For an English Reader, the Roman Antiquities collected and methodized by Basil Kenner, D. D. late President of Corpus-Christi College in Oxford, Lond. 1696. are deemed very exact, and the Author who travelled, and was conversant with the Antiquities themselves, which he carefully studied, and has happily given us his Thoughts of, with as sew Errours, and more Judgement than any before him, and the Success has been sufficiently proved by the several Editions it has bore.

Lud. de Montiosii Galius Romæ Hospes, ubi multa Antiquorum Monumenta Explicantur, in 4to. Romæ

Jacobi Lauri Romani, Antique urbis splendor, boc est, precipua Urbis Romæ Templa. Amphitheatra, Theatra, Circi, Arcus Triumphales, in 410. Romæ 1612.

Franc. Albertini Opuscula de Mirabilibus nova, &

Barth. Marliani Urbis Roma Topographia, in fol.

Bafil. 1550.

Justus Rycquius de Capitolio Romano, in 410. Gandavi 1617. This is a valuable Work, and there are several Editions of it.

Jani Jacobi Boissardi Urbis Romæ Topographia, ex-Antiquitates Romans, in fol. Francosurti ad Mænum 1597, 1598, 1600, 1602, 1627, and 1628, 6 Vol. The Topography is that of Marliani enlarged by him: His Antiquities are very curious and learned.

Flavii Blondi Rome Triumphantis Libri X. in fol. Basilew 1559. This is a learned Author, and what is wonderful, though he died about the Middle of the fifteenth Century, he has succeeded well.

Francisci Robortelli de Romanorum Provinciis, Magistratibus, &c. Disputationes XI. in fol. Bononiæ 1559. The Works of this Author are not always correct.

Sigonius has wrote against him.

Onuphrii Panvinii de Republica Romana Libri III. in 8vo. Venetiis 1558. Idem, In 8vo. Paris 1588. and in fol. Francof. 1597. We have not feen an Author better versed in the Roman Antiquities, and wonderful is the Knowledge and Judgement of one who died at thirty-nine Years of Age.

Carolus Sigonius de Antiquo Civium Romanorum jure, in 410. Venetiis 1560, in fol. Paris 1576, and in fol. Hanoviæ 1609. In the Collection of his Works made by Sigonius.

— De Antiquo Romanarum Provinciarum Jure, in 410. Venetiis 1567, in fol. Paris 1576, and in fol. Hanovix 1609. In his Works collected by Sigonius. This learned Man was not inferiour to Panvini in his Skill in the Roman Antiquities, and antient History of Italy.

Julius Casar Bulengerus de Romano Imperatore, in 410. Paris 1614, & Lugduni 1617.

— De Romano Imperio, Magistratibus, Officiis, &c. in fol. Lugduni 1618. This, though a learned, is not the most exact Author, but good Use may be made of his Works.

Paulus Manutius de Romano Senatu, in 4to. Venetiis 1581. Or at the End of the Roman Antiquities by Rosini, printed in 1663. This was a learned, judicious, and exact Author.

Andreas Schottus de Romanorum Tribubus. This Piece is added to the Edition of the Roman Antiquities by Rosini in 1663. This learned and studious Fesuit was a great Friend to the learned Men of his Time, to whom he was well known.

Antonius Augustinus de Romanis Familiis, in fol. Romæ 1577. Idem, In fol. Paris, cura Caroli Patia 1663. This last Edition is the largest and best, as Mr. Patin has given us therein a vast Quantity of Medals.

Jo. Vaillant Numismata Imperatorum Fristantiora à Julio Cæsare ad Posthumum, 410. Paris 1682, 410. 2 Vol. 1692. The Author has made some Alterations in this last Edition, of which take this remarkable Instance: In that printed in 1682, pag. 12, 13, 14. 16, are Medals of Germanicus, Nero Druss his Father, the Emperour Clandius, Julia Wise to Severus, and of Gordius Africanus the Son, which he mightily cries up; but in pag. 49, of the second Edition, he acknowledges the three first to be suspicious, and the last absolutely spurious. In the same Piece, pag. 71, he launches out into Commendation of a Medal of Trajan, with the Reverse of his Pillar, and an Owl on its top; but in his Remarks on the Selecta Numismata Seguini, he acknowledges that he was mistaken.

— Nummi Antiqui Familiarum Romanarum perpetuis Interpretationibus Illustrati, fol. Amst. 1703, 2 Vol. A most learned Piece.

Fulvius Ursinus de Romanis Familiis. This Piece of Orsini is always added to another wrote by his Friend Anthony Acostini.

Richardus Streinnius de Romanarum Gentium, Familiarumque Stemmat. in fol. Parif. 1659. This Piece, the Labour of the Author's Youth, is well esteemed.

Nicolaus Gruchius de Romanorum Comitiis, in fol. Parif. 1555, and in 8vo. Venet. 1559. This was a learned Man, and his Work is in great Reputation.

Carolus Sigonius de Romanorum Judiciis, in fol. Paris. 1576. Idem, In fol. Hanovia 1609.

Paulus Manutius de Romanis legibus, in 8vo. Venetiis 1569. Or at the End of Rosinus's Roman Antiquiries, printed in 1663.

Antonius Augustinus de Romanorum legibus, print-

- __ De Romanorum Senatusconsultis, in fol. Paris

1584, and in 410. Lugdun. 1592.

Everardi Ottonis de Adilibus Coloniarum, & Municipiorum Liber singularis, in 8vo. Franc. 1713. A Book exceeding uleful, for those who would enter deep into the antient Roman Laws.

Just. Lipsius de Militia Romana, in 410. Antverp. 1596, & 1602. This, as well as all the rest of the Works of Lipsius are learned, and exceeding curious.

* Henricus Savilius de Militia Romana, in 120. Am-Relod. 1649. The Name of that Ornament of England, the learned Sir Henry Savil is sufficiently known to recommend this Treatise, printed with his Notes on Tacing.

Claudius Salmasius de Romanorum Re Militari, in 410. Lugdun. Batav. 1657. This posthumous Piece is well esteemed.

Onuphrius Panvinius de Ludis Circensibus, in fol. Venetiis 1600. Idem, In fol. Patav. 1642. With a Treatise of the Roman Triumphs, by the same Author. This last Edition is best for the Notes of Argoli and Pinelli.

Joan. Meursii Roma Luxurians, seve de Romanorum Luxu, in 410. Hasniz 1631. This Edition at Copenhagen is larger than that at the Hague in 1605.

Jacobus Gutherius de Domus Augusta Officiis, in 450.

Paris 1627, and in 800. Lipsiz 1672.

De Veteris Rome Pontificio jure, in 4to. Paris 1612. This was a learned, judicious, exact Author, and a well esteemed Antiquary.

Vol. II. H Octavianus

Octavianus Ferrarius de Romanorum Origine, in 8voi: Mediolani 1607.

Justi Lipsii Opera omnia, in fol. Antverp. ex Officina Plantin. 1638, 4 Vol. The greatest Part of this excellent Author's Works relate to History, or the Roman Antiquities.

Corpus Antiquitatum Romanarum, edente Joanne Georgio Grævio, in fol. Lugd. Batav. 12 Vol. This Collection contains several of the Authors before-mentioned, with many others. It is more than sufficient to study to the Bottom the Roman Antiquities. But dreadful are the Preliminaries required for the Study of a particular History, to run through twelve bulky Volumes in Folio; and yet the Collection is good, much superiour to that of the Gracian Antiquities made by Gronovius, and for some time past it has raised its Price.

Nicolas Bergier: Histoire des Grands Chemins de l'Empire Romain, in 410. Paris 1622. This is a rare, curious, and useful Piece, ill translated into Latin, and inserted into the Collection of Roman Antiquities.

Carolus Sigonius in Fastos Capitolinos, in fol. Francofurt 1588. In Sylburgii, T. 1. Script. Hist. Roman. & Hannov. 1609.

Franc. Robortellus de convenientia supputationis Liviana cum Fastis Capitolinis, in fol. Pat. 1557. This is an Answer to the last Book.

Vinandi Pighii Annales Romanorum cura Andrez: Schotti, in fol. Antverp. 1615. 3 Vol. This is a 3 learned and curious Work, of which this is the best a Edition.

Oxon. 1708. 6 Vol. In this Edition is engraved a Roman Shield, which has much exercised the Pens of the Learned. Mr. Hearne thinks it genuine, which is fince confirmed by Mr. Dodwell, in a Work left imperfect, and fince published at Oxford, under the Title of Henrici Dodwelli de Parma equestri Woodwardiana Dissertario-Oxon 1713. Idem. Cum notis Joan. Clerici, in 8vo. Amstelodami Wetstein 1711, 10 Vol. These are the best Editions of Livy. In that of Doujat are the Supplements by Freinsbeim, but these are more entire and correct in the Edition of 1711, printed by Wetstein, one of the most learned Booksellers in Europe. The Variorum Edition of 1679, is one of the best; that printed by Elzevir in 1645, is neat, portable, and much preferable to another by Elzevir in 1634. The Edition of Domine was reprinted at Venice in 1714 and 1715, much more correct than that at Paris, with several Figures of the famous Men, the Notes and exact Index of Le Clerc: It was formerly translated into Italian, and printed at Venice 1547. fol.

Tue Live traduit en François par Blaise de Vigeneres, met des Commentaires, in sol. Paris 1606, 2 Vol.

Le même traduit en François par M. Du Ryer, in fol. Paris, 2 Vol. 1653. Idem in 120. Paris and Holland. The old Translation of Vigenere is the best. The Notes are very good. That of Ryer is valued as the most Modern, but this Author deferves a much better Translatour.

Dionysius Halicarnasseus de Antiquitatibus Romanis Gr.c. Lat. in fol. Francosurt. 1586, 2 Vol. Idem Lipsiæ 1691, 2 Vol. Idem Oxoniæ 1704, 2 Vol. per Joan. Hudson, S. T. P. These are the best Editions of an Author learned and useful, but tiresome. That printed in England, though the most beautiful, is not the best, but judged Inseriour to that at Francfort. It was translated into Italian by Francis Venturi, and printed at Venice, 410. 1545.

Polybii Historia ex Casauboni Recensione, in fol. Paris 1609. Idem, in 8vo. Amstelod. 1670, 3 Vol. This is a judicious and exact Author, and is often copied by Livy. It was translated into French by Mr. Ryer, and into Italian by Lovis Domenichi, in 8vo. Giolito 1546, and in 4to. 1564, which last Edition is the largest and best. It was translated into English by Ed. Grimston, fol. 1634, and since by Sir Hen. Sheeres, in recommended by Mr. Dryden, 2 Vol. 8vo. 1698.

Appiani Alexandrini Historia Romana Grac. Lat. in In fol. Henric. Stephan. 1592. Idem, Amstelodami 1670. It was a Vol. This Author is esteemed, though much misself taken in his Descriptions of Places, as he was a Foreigner of Egypt, and also in other Affairs of Rome. It was translated into Italian by Alexander Braccio, and oprinted in 120. by Giolico 1554, 3 Vol.

Caii Salustii Crispi Historia, in fol. Basil. 1564-il. Idem In 8vo. Antverp. Plantin. 1579. Idem Franciscof. 1607, in 8vo. Idem in 120. Lugdun. Batavia Elzevir. 1634. Ato. Londini 1710. This is one of the best Roman Historians, though we have him not entire, the Editions I have mentioned are the best. It was translated into Italian by Agostino Ortica, and printed several Times in Ato. and afterwards by John Bernard Bonifacio, Marquess of Oria, and printed at Florence in 1550, and last of all by Lelio Carani, and printed at Venice, 8vo. 1556. and into English by

P. cum Figuris.

Les Commentaires de Jules Cesar de la Version de Blaise de Vigenere, avec Annotations, in fol. Paris 1589, and in 410. Paris 1625. The same by M. d' Ablancourt, in 410. Paris 1650, and in 120. This Author is vahuzble for his Sincerity and the Purity of his Style. We have mentioned the best Editions, and leave the Reader to his Choice. Those at Francfort in 1605 and 1606 are the most esteemed. That at London is confiderable for its curious Plans, which lets us into the Manner of Encamping, the Sieges, and Military Art of the Romans. There is also an Italian Transbeion, with the Sculptures engraved by I alladio, and printed in 410. at Venice 1575, without the Name of the Translator: It was afterwards translated into Italiby Agostino Ortica and Francis Baldelli, which last Version was printed by Giolito, in 8vo. 1572. Lave two Translations of this Author, the first by H 3 Sir

Sir Clement Edmonds, in 1604, fol. the latter by Col. Bladen, in 8vo.

Traduction de Livre I. de Jules Cesar, par Lovis XIV. fol. Paris 1661, at the Lowere. But a few Copies, and very rare.

Antverp. 1582.

Excerpta ex Polybio, Nicolao Damasceno, &c. Grac. Lat. ex Versione, & cum notis Henrici Valessi, in 4to. Paris 1634. These Extracts contain several noted Parts of Roman History, to be placed to their several Times.

Lucii Annæi Flori Epitome Rerum Romanarum, in 410. Paris Vascosan. 1539. Idem in fol. Basil. 1557. Idem à Salmasio, Lugdun. Batav. Elzevir. 1638, Idem, ad Usum Delphini, in 4to. Paris 1674. Idem cum notis Variorum, in 8vo. Amstelodami 1692. This last Edition is the best, though the Author himself bears no great Reputation. It was translated into French by Coeffet and Philip of France Duke of Orleans. John Dominick Tarsia has translated it into Italian and it was printed in 8vo. at Venice in 1546, and again by Seignior Santi Conti, and printed at Rome in 120. 1672, and elsewhere. The Edition of Mad. Dacier for the Use of the Dauphin of France, reprinted at Venice in 1715, is very beautiful. Laurence Begerus published the first two Books in Folio, Col. March. 1704. and embellished them with Medals and other Monuments of Antiquity; but as the Author is dead, the Work remains imperfect.

Sexti Aurelii Victoris Historie Romana Breviarium ab urbe condita, cum notis Andreæ Schotti, in 8vo. Antverp. 1579. Idem, cum notis Variorum, in 8vo. Lugd. Batav. 1671. Idem, cum notis Sam. Pitisei, in 8vo. Ultraject. 1696. Idem ad Usum Delphini, in 410. Paris 1681. These are the best Editions of an Author not too highly esteemed.

Velleii

Velleii Paterculi Historia Romana cum notis Gerardi Vossii, in 120. Lugdun. Batav. Elzevir. 1539. Idem, cum Cornelio Tacito Justi Lipsii, in sol. Antverp. 1607, 1637, &c. Idem, cum notis Variorum, in 8vo. Lugd. Bat. 1663, & 1667. Idem, in V-sum Delphini, in 410. Paris 1675. This excellent Author was translated into French by Doujat, who has attempted to supply several Chasms therein. This Translation was uncommon till reprinted, and is even yet esteemed.

Berosus Sacerdos de Antiquitatibus Italia, cum Commentar. Annii Viterbiensis, in 8vo. Commelin. 1599. This is a statitious Author, as are the rest, viz. Fabius Pictor, Cato, Xenophon, &c. put together by Annius of Viterbo, who was famous for his Impositions on the World. It was translated into Italian by Peter Lauro of Modona, and printed at Venice in 8vo. There is also an Edition in 4to. translated by Francis Sansovino.

Curtii Inghiramii Antiquitatum Etruscarum Fragmenta, fol. Fran. 1637. These are only spurious Fragments, as is proved in the next Book.

Leon. Allatii Animadversiones in Antiquitatum Etruscarum Fragmenta ab Inghiramio edita, 410. Paris 1640.

Ciceronis Epistole Familiares, cum Gravii notis, in 8vo. Lugdun. Batav. 1676, 2 Vol.

Ciceronis Epistole ad Atticum cum Gravii notis, in 8vo. Amstelod. 1684, 2 Vol. The Letters of Cicero are necessary for the History of his Time, and this Edition is undoubtedly the best; but Manutius's Commentaries are of singular Use. The familiar Epistles are translated by Aldus Manutius the younger into Italian, with some short, learned, marginal Notes of the Translator; those wrote to Atticus are rendered into Italian by Matthew Senarega, and printed at Venice 1555, 8vo.

Historia Romana Scriptores Latini Minores, à Friderico Sylburgio, in fol. Francof. 1588, 2 Vol.

Hiltoria Romana Scriptores Graci Mineres, in fel. Francof. 1590. This Collection made by Sylburgius in three Volumes, contains the greatest Part of the before-mentioned Authors, and some others.

Corpus Listoria Romana Scriptorum Latinorum Veterum, in foi. Genev. 1609, 2 Vol. and 1652. This Collection also contains many of the foregoing Authors, and others.

CHAP. XVII.

The ROMAN History before, at the Time of, and after Augustus.

I ISTOIRE Romaine depuis Auguste par M. Co-effereau, in fol. and in 120. This History formerly esteemed, is not now nead.

Le Nain de Tillemont Histoire des Empereurs depuis Auguste jusqu' à l'Empereur Honorius, in 4to. Paris 1700, &c. 5 Vol. This is a very accurate Piece. and is sufficient to give us a persect Idea of the Emperours, without Recourse to the Original Languages, and is also an Introduction and Guide to those. who would Study the Originals.

Citri de la Guette Histoire des Triumvirats de Cesar. & d' Auguste, in 120. Paris 1686, 5 Vol. and in 120, Amsterdam 1694, 2 Vol. This History is wrote with great Exactness, and equal Politeness,

M. de Larrey Histoire d'Auguste, in 8vo. Rotterdam 1690. This is wrote with much Solidity and Force.

chief HISTORIANS.

Idem, cum notis Variorum, in 8vo. Ultrajecti 1690, 2 Vol. Idem, ad Ujum Delphini, in 4to. Paris 1684. This exact and fincere Author (of whom it has ben commonly faid, that he wrote the Cajars Lives with the tame Freedom that they led them) was translated into French: The best we have noted here; those of 1610, at Paris, and in 1691, by Gr. vius, are the most esteemed. It was translated into Italian by Mambrino Roseo. 8vo. Venez. 1544, and by Paolo del Rosso, 8vo. Venez. 1556, and Firenze 1611.

Cornelii Taciti opera ex recensione Justi Lipsii, in sol. Antverp. 1607, 1627, 1637, & 1648. Idem, cum diversorum Commineariis, in sol. Paris 1608. Idem, in 120. Lugdun. Batav. Elzevir. 1634. Idem, ex recensione Grotii, in 120. Lugdun. Batav: Elzevir. 1640. Idem, in 8vo. ex recensione Joan. Frider. Gronovii Amstelodami 1672. 2 Vol. Idem, ex recensione Theodori Ryckii, in 8vo. Lugduni Batav. 1687, 2 Vol. Idem, ad Usum Delphini, in 4to. Paris 1682. 1684, & 1687, 4 Vol. This Author was translated into French by Mr. Ablancourt, and Amelot de la Houssaye. The Translation of the first, rather a Paraphrate, is much esteemed: That by Amelot is entirely literal, and a little rough, and no ways valuable but for the political Notes: It was translated into English by all the Latin Editions we have taken Notice of are good, except that Ad Osum Delphini, which is neither valued nor deserves to be effected. The Text of the Edition by Ryckius is very exact, after that we have one by Gronovius, generally termed the Variorum. After this we may rank an Edition printed by Elzevir in 1640, though those who are fond of these Pocket Volumes without Reason, prefer that printed by the same Elzevir in 1634. This last was Revised by Grotius, and is better Presswork than that of 1634, committed to the Care of Justus Lipsius. There are an infinite Number of Commen-

Commentators on this Book, especially Political. The Germans are beyond measure bigotted to Politicks, which they apply themselves to, more than all the rest of the World. Houssaye has taken much Pains to gratify them in his political Discourse on Tiberius. I shall take no more Notice of them, as in these kind of Works there is much more Shew than real Use. Tacius has created more Dabblers in Politicks than real Politicians, who have attempted to equal him. In Italian are three Translations, one by George Dati in 410. Venez. 1582, another by Adrian Politi, illustrated with Aphorisms by Baldassar Alamo Varieuts, translated from the Castilian by Ferom Canini in 110, Tenez. 1618, and a third by Bernard Davanzati at Firenze 1637, fol. There is also a Translation much older without the Name of the Editor in 8va. Venez. 1544.

Las obras de Cornelio Tacito, traduzidas, con aforifmos, por Baltasar Alamos, fol. Madrid 1614. This Castilian Edition is esteemed for the political Apholigiorise Augusts Scriptores Latini minores. This is the second Volume of the Collection by Sylburgius, of which we have spoke before.

Historia Augusta Scriptores i Julio Castare ad Carolum Magnum. Opera Jan. Gruteri, in fol. Hanovia

Hylorie Auguste Scriptores sex: Ælius Spartianus; Volcatius Galicanus; Julius Capitolinus; Trebellius Pollio: Ælius Lampridius; Flavius Vopiscus; cum sanis Salmasii, & Calauboni, in sol. Paris 1620, and in Seo. Lugdun. Bat. 1671, 2 Vol. These Authors are exact, but come not up to the Beauty of the souncer Historians.

Dionis Callii Hylvria Romana, Grze. Lat. in fol. Hanovix 1606. A most exact and judicious Writer, whose Hallory is of great Use: We have given the best best Edition. He has observed many Things omitted by Tacitus and Suetonius, but is prejudiced against Cicero and Seneca, and many other great Romans, as he also treats very partially the primitive Christians. It was translated into Italian by Baldelli, and printed in 410. by Giolio 1565.

Joan. Xiphilini compendium Historia Dionis Grac. in Aro. Paris, Robert. Stephan. 1551. Or with Dion Cassius, or the Collection of Greek Historians by Sylburgius, of which I have spoke before. This Author was translated into French by the President Cousin, and into Italian by Baldelli.

Herodiani Historia, in 410. Grac. Lat. Paris 1581. Idem, in 8vo. Grac. Lat. à Bæclero, 8vo. Argentin. 1644, 1662. Idem, Grac. Lat. in 8vo. Oxon 1704. Or in Sylburgius's Collection. This is an useful, though partial Author. There is a very good French Translation printed at Paris in 1700. One in Italian without the Translator's Name, printed in 8vo. at Farenze 1522, and Venez. 1524, as another by Lelio Carani, printed by Giolito in 8vo. 1552. into English in 8vo. 1698.

Zozimi Comitis Historia nova, Grac. Lat. in 8vo. Cizæ 1679. Idem, in 8vo. Oxon. 1680. Or in the Collection by Frederick Sylburgius. This Author is prejudiced against Constantine the Great, who was a much better Prince than this Historian makes him.

Eutropii Historia Romana Breviarium, cum Panii Metaphrasi Graca, in 8vo. Cizæ 1678. Idem, Oxon. 1710. Idem, ad Usum Delphini, in 4to. Paris 1683. Or in the Collection by Sylburgius or Gruter in 1611. The Greek Version of Panius is little estecmed. Another Translation was printed in Italian without any Name of Translator in 8vo. at Venice 1544.

Theodori Metochita Historia Romana à Julio Cæsare ad Constantinum Magnum, Grac. Lat. à Joanne Meursio, in 410. Lugd. Bat. 1618.

Juliani

Juliani Imperatoris Opera à Dionysio Petavio, in 410. Paris 1630: Idem, cum Spanhemii aliorumque no-tis, in fol. Lipsiæ 1696.

Les Cesars de Julien l'Apostat avec des Remarques de M. De Spanheim, in 416. Paris 1683. In this Work are many Things of the History of the Emperours, which must be read with Caution, as it is rather a Piece of Saryr than Truth, and for this End very useful are the Observations of Spanheim.

Ammiani Marcellini Historia cum notis Valesti, in sol. Paris 1681. Idem, in sol. Lugdun. Bat. 1693. This is an Author much valued, the last Edition was Revised by Gronovius: The Italian Translation printed by Giolico in 8vo. 1550, was made by Remigius of Florence.

Pauli Diaconi Historia ex editione Pauli Merula, in 8vo. Lugdun. Bat. 1592. With Entropius: There are many Editions of this Historian, who is only effected for the Times of the Lower Empire. It was translated into Italian by Lodovicus Dominicus, and Antonius Rennullus: The first was printed by Giolito, 8vo. 1548. the second in 8vo. Ven. 1584.

Caroli Sigonii Historia de Occidentali Imperio ab An. 284. ad An. 565. in fol. Francosurti 1693, & Hanoviæ 1609. Amongst the Works of Sigonius.

dem Romæ visuntur, colletta, in fol. Romæ 1576, & 1616. This is a most curious and valuable Work: At the End of it is a Piece exceeding whimsical, in which Ciacconi attempts to prove that the Soul of the Emperour Trajan was delivered from Hell by the Intercession of St. Gregory the Great, the Fope.

Raphaelis Fabretti Syniagma de Columna Trajani, in fol. Romæ 1683. This is an Apology for Cuacconi.

Fasti Magistrainum, & Triumphorum Romanorum restituti ab Huberto Goltzio, in fol. Brugis 1566.

C. Julius Cæsar, sive Historia Imperatorum Romanorum ex antiquis Numismatibus, ab Huberto Goltzio, in fol. Brugis 1563.

Cæsar Augustus ab Huberto Goltzio, in fol. Brugis 1574. Though this Author is esteemed, yet is a good Judgement necessary to discover the spurious Medals here given for true.

Raphaelis Fabretti Inscriptiones antique, in fol. Romaz 1698. This is a curious Book, and well esteemed.

Flavii Blondi Historia ab Imperii Romani Inclinatione, in fol. Basileæ 1559. Though this Author shews more Good-will than Exactness, yet is he useful.

Joan. Bapt. Fontejus de Prisca Cassorum inter Romanos genie, in fol. Bononiæ 1581. This is a Work of Learning, in which the Author hands to us the History of the Family of Casi, so noted in old Rome, to the eighth Century of Christianity.

M. Flechier; Histoire de Theodose le Grand, in 410. Paris 1679. This History is wrote with great Accuracy and Politeness, and one of the most valuable Labours of the Age we live in.

Le P. Sainte Marthe Histoire de Cassiodore, in 120. Paris 1694. This Life is exactly and well penned,

CHAP. XIX.

The History of the Western, or GERMAN Empire, with its necessary Preliminary Treatises.

Joannes Georgii Kulpis Dissertatio de studio Juris publici rectè instituendo, & de scriptoribus eò pertinentibus, in 8vo. Argent. 1700. This Book is well wrote, and proper for the Study of the publick Law of the Empire, which is requisite to be conversant in, for the Understanding of the Affairs of Germany. The Author published this under the Name of J. G. Sulpicius, in the Year 1688.

Gabrielis Schwederi Introductio ad Jus Publicum, in 8vo. Tubingæ 1701. This is the best Piece for the publick Law of the Empire, and I have here cited the most valuable Edition.

Phil. Reinh. Vitriarii Institutiones Juris Publici, cum notis Joan. Frid. Pfeffinger, in 420. Gothæ 1698, 1699. An exact and well esteemed Book: There are other Editions, which are much inseriour to this.

Joan. Frid. Rhetii Jurisprudentia Romano-Germanica Libri IV. in 800. Francosurti 1683. This is much valued.

Samuelis Rachelii Otium Noviomagense, 120. Amst. 1685. This is nothing but an Introduction to the Jus Publicum, wrote by the Author at leisure Hours at Nimequen.

Frid. Boeckelmanni Synopsis Juris Publici Imp. Rom. Germ. 8vo. Gron. 1698. This is a very concise Abridgement: His Observations on the Capitulations of the Emperour Leopold, make up the Bulk of this Volume.

Henrici Cocceii Juris Publici prudentia, 8vo. Francad Viadr. 1700. This Book well deserves a Place amongst those which treat on the Jus Publicum of the Empire, and the rather, as the Author touches on a Method for the Study of German History. Cocceius is the first who has urged the Necessity of being acquainted with this History, and its Conveniency, in Order to make a Progress in the Study of the Jus Publicum.

Gottlieb Gerhardi Titii Specimen Juris Publici Rom. Germ. a consueta ordinis materiarumque consussione varisque Scriptorum prajudiciis restituti, 8vo. Lips. 1705. This Author admirably well consutes the Opinion of Puffendors, who affirms Germany to be a Composition of several Republicks. He had some Difference with Vitriarius about the Tribonian Method, which the last pursued; for which Reason he added to his Book the Annotationes ad Vindicias pro Vitriario.

Casp. Heinr. Hornii Juris Publici Rom. Germ. ejusque prudentia liber unus, 8vo. Berol. 1707. This Book Book gave so much Satisfaction, that Lectures have been read upon it, to the Youth in some Universities.

Burcardi Gotthelff Struvii Syntagma Juris Publici Imperii nostri Rom. Germ. ex fontibus Historiarum, Legibus Imperii fundamentalibus, Actis publicis, Diplomatibus, & observantia Imperii collectum atque ad prasenem statum accommodatum, 410. Jen. 1711. This Book answers sufficiently its Title; The Author makes a proper Use of History, but pursues a Road different from Cocceius.

Jacobi Brunnemanni Examen Juris publici Germanici novissimi, 8vo. Hal. 1710 *. This is a short Abridgement made by Way of Question and Answer.

Eitel. Fred. d'Herden Fundamenta Sacri Romani Imperii (in High-Dutch) Regensb. 1663. Idem, Francf. 1688. A Book well esteemed, though the Author is not certainly known, some attributing it to George Schwarzkopf, or Tobias Henry Heidenreich; but other on better Grounds to Rodulphus Heiden, 2 Counsellor of Sasse Weimar.

Ludov. Seckendorf Principum Germanorum Status, 8vo. Francf. 1670. (High-Lutch) This Book is well esteemed, as is the next by the same Author.

S. R. Imperit Germanici Descriptio, 8vo. 1687. (High-Dutch) This Compendium was made for the Ute of young Princes's Sons to Ernestus Fins Duke of Saxony.

Fred. Ludolph. de Franckenbergh Fecialis Europæus, 2 Vol. Lipf. 1705. fol. (High-Dutch) It would be superfluous to form an Elogium here of 2 Book so well known, and so justly applauded by all, who have heard of his Excellence Bernard Zich, Counfellour to the present King Angustus of , oland. The important Post he supplies is a full Proof of what I have said; although this Edition is much enlarged, in the former are several original Papers herein omitted.

As the Translators of this Book into French and Italian have published the Titles of these High-Datch Books in their own Languages, Latin is here made use of as more universal.

Christoph. Laurent. Bilderbeck Imperii Germanici Stains, 2 Vol. Lipi. 1709. 1710, 4to. (igh Luich) This Author, who gave great Content, is very useful for his fine Account of the Authors, who have wrote on this Subject.

Jacob. Lampadius de Republica Romano-Germanica, cum notis Hermanni Conringii, in 410. Helm ad. 1671. Idem, cum Supplem. Jo. G. Kulpis, in 810. Arg. 1686. Though this Author is old, he is very exact and esteemed; and the first Edition is the best.

Johan. Henr. Bœcleri Notitia Sacri Romani Imperii, in 8vo. Argentorati 1681. This is rather an Index of Authors and Subjects, than a just Piece on the Subject; but is a good Guide to one who would enter deep into the Affairs of the Impire.

Dominic. Arumæus de Jure Publico Imperii, in 410. Jenæ 1620, 5 Vol. This was the first Author who gave methodical Treatises on the Jus Publicum of the Empire: He is esteemed, though not blindly followed.

Joannes Limnæus de Jure Imperii Romano-Germanici, in 410. Argentorati 1629, &c. 5 Vol. In this are comprized the Additions made by the Author: the Edition published at Strasbourgh by Schilter is the best. Though a good Scholar and Philosopher, he has not always observed true methodical Rules, as in his treating on the Jus Civile, he intermixes Things foreign to his Subject, which he had observed in his Travels.

Ahasueri Fritschii additiones ad Limnaum, in 4to. Noribergx 1680.

Philip. And. Oldenburgeri Limnaus Fnucleatus, in fol. Genevæ 1670. This Work is valuable, and very necessary for the understanding of the Imperial Laws. Mr. Mencken fays, that it is the Opinion of many, that he has not succeeded well in his Abridgement of Limnaus, who affirm, that he has omitted very many useful and even necessary Things, and has inserted Trifles, or what's to be found better in other Pieces on this Subject.

Hermanni Hermes Fasciculus Juris Imperii R. in 410. Salisburgi 1663. Idem, 1674. Mr. Mencken obferves, that as this Author was a Roman Catholick, he had no other view, than to hinder the learned Men of his own Religion from the Study of Frotestant Authors, who have appeared on this Head, although himself has made no small Use of many of them, and in particular of Limnaus.

Basil. Joan. Heroldus Opus Legum Antiquarum Germaniæ, in fol. Basileæ 1557. This Collection is to be found in the next mentioned Book.

Friderici Lindenbrogii Codex Legum Antiquarum, in fol. Francosurti 1613, 2 Vol. This is the Work of Herold, reprinted with confiderable Additions.

Jo. Christiani Muldeneri Capitulatio Harmonica, Ato. Hal. 1697. In this Piece the Author compares the Capitulation of the Emperour Joseph, with all the rest fince Charles the Fifth. He has also added some Original Instruments from the Elector's Archives. Book of great Use.

Meditationes ad Capitulationem Josephi, ato. Hal. 1711. Some make Henniges the Author of this Work, of whom we shall speak more hereafter: On this Capitulation we also have the Notes of Abasarras Fritich.

Capitulatio Electionis Caroli VI. Lipf. 1712, 1713, fol. (High-Duich.) Of these two Editions, to which are added very useful Notes, the last is most esteemed: As besides a Comparison of the Capitulatio Perpetua with that of Charles VI, there are a great Number of Original Papers, which were presented to the Diet of the Electors: The Author Bernard Zech the younger, Counsellor of his Polish Majesty, was there prefent in the Quality of one of the Secretaries, and thus was let into every Thing that passed there.

This Book is uncommon, of it are three Editions of the same Date, one in 410, and two in 120. The third Edition, which is in a larger Letter, contains 583 Pages. I have spoke of this Work formerly in the sufficiency. As to the true Name of the Author, there are secret Memoirs, which affirm him to be James de Steinburgh, a Noblemen of Luneburgh, Counsellor of His Majesty King Charles XII. of Sweden (1716,) and Father of the Count of the same Name: A Fact which seems confirmed from a MSS.

MSS. in the Archives of Sweden, by which it is found he owed much of his Success to the Affistance of John Dominick Liliestrholm, President of the Royal Regency in Fomerania. He was answered by Sluter in 1653, 120. and by Boecler in 410. 1674, by Bruggeman in 410. 1697. All of them Authors of more Sincerity and less Artifice, than Hippolyeus.

Gio. Joach. Mullerus Negotia Stat. Germanic, 4to. Jen. 1709. This is only a Draught of a larger Work, which he began afterwards: It contains what passed in the Diet from 1501, to 1508.

— Stat. General. Theatrum, fol. Jen. 1713. This is the first Volume of the History of the Diet: The Author begins with the Reign of Frederick III, or V. and finishes with Rodulphus II. In this large Volume is only what passed under Frederick from 1440 to 1493. as the Author was Keeper of the Archives of the Duke of Saxeveiman, from thence he has drawn a good Part of the Original Papers he has inferted. It is wrote in High-Duich.

Jac. Wenckeri Apparatus, & Instructus Archivorum, ex usu nostri temporis, 410. Arg. 1713. It contains Ge. — Manussa Codicus Juris Gentium Diplomatici, in fol. Ib. 1700. This is an excellent Collection of Treatises of Alliance, Instruments of Investitures, and Original Papers, which not only relate to Germany, but other Countries, and particularly to France: They are mostly taken from the fine Library of Wolfenbattel.

Casp. Londorpii Acta Iublica, in fol. Franc. 1668. 14 Vol. Comprizing one, which is a Table of Matters added to the other thirteen in 1702. The Author published but four Volumes in 1627, which contain many good Papers, most of which are in High Dutch, and relate to the thirty Years Wars in Germany. The first Edition of the four first Volumes is preserable to the second, in which are omitted some Passages, Passages, which bore hard upon some particular Princes: After the Death of the Author were added many other Volumes, not equal to the former, notwith standing which the whole Work is at present much looked after. This Book was in some measure continued by the Author of the Diarium Europeum, whom we have mentioned formerly.

(High-Dutch) 8vo. 1097, 1704, 22 Vol.

Statuum Speculum (High-Dutch) 8vo. August; 1699, 1709, 2 Vol. The first of these contains the Business of the Diet from 1691 to 1716; the second from from 1698 to 1709, not to mention several Memoirs inferred in both Volumes, in the fecond are many curious Original Papers which have been received favourably by the Publick. In 1708, an Attempt was made to suppress it, for which Reason we have but eight Months Proceedings of that Year, afterwards the Y at 1709 was added, in which the Book ends.

Speculum Novum Sacult & Germania (High-Dutch) Hag. 1710, 1714, 6 Vol. Soon after the last Book was discontinued, another Continuation was begun at Leipsick in 1710, and there pursued. The Book is esteemed good.

Electa Furis : ublici Curiofa, 410. Col. 1696, 1697, 2 Vol. High-Dutch. Here are collected together all the Differences between the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holstein, as also concerning the Succession of Saxe Lawenburgh, and some others.

Electa Juris Inblici, 8vo. 1709, 1714, 5 Vol. (High-Lutch.) This Work is printed at Jens, and continued down to 1714, it contains some remarkable Papers presented to the Diet. Here may be added the Fama Europea, in 8vo. that so much applauded the Undertaking, which began in the Year 1691, and has been continued fince. Herein are many authentick Papers, but as the Author launches out into the Affairs of all Europe, in the same Manner as the Historical Mercury, the Key to the Cabinets of Princes, and other Works of the same Nature, I have thought proper only to speak of it en passant.

in fol. Francof. 1677.

Susti Reuberi Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum, in fol. Francof. 1584. Idem in fol. Hanoviæ 1619. This contains several Pieces on the Reigns of Charles the Great, Otho the First and Second, Henry IV. Frederick the First, and Henry the Seventh.

Christiani Urstisii Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum, in fol. Francosurti 1585. Idem in fol. Francos. 1670. 2 Vol. This Collection comprizes several Writers on the Reign of Henry the Fourth, to the Year 1400, and the Authors themselves are valuable.

Marquardi Freheri Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum, in fol. Francosurti 1600, & 1602, & Hanoviæ 1611, 3 Vol. This Collection made by a good Hand, and grown rare, contains the best Historians from Charle magne to Charles the Fifth; a new Edition, according to Mr. Mencken, was preparing with Additions at Strasbourgh by Struvius.

Melchioris Goldasti Scriptores Rerum Alemannicarum, in fol. Francosurt. 1606. Idem, Francosurt. 1661. This Collection is chiefly of Ecclesiastical History.

Erpoldi Lindenbrogii Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum Septemrionalium, in fol. Francosurti 1629. Idem, curante Joan. Alberto Fabricio, in fol. Hamburgi 1706. con Figure. This Collection, as well as that made by Goldast, concerns the German Ecclesiastical History, and to this last Edition are added the Origines Hamburgice by Lambecius, and the Inscriptiones Hamburgica by Ankelman. Henrici Henrici Meibomii Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum, in fol. Helmstad. 1688.3 Vol. This is a most curious Collection, and besides the Authors published by Meibomius the Father, comprizes many considerable Writers on the general and particular History of Germany, with some Differtations by the Son. There are many Pieces and Authors on the Histories of Prussia, Saxon, and Brunswick, and it is not very rare.

Joannis Schilteri Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum à Carolo Magno ad Fridericum III. in fol. Argentofati 1702. This is a valuable Collection, and comprizes many excellent Papers, most of which were not printed before, and those reprinted, are more correct. We may observe, that this is the same Book which the Author mentions hereaster under the Title of Enea Sylvii vita Friderici III. As the Undertaker who printed this Collection under this Title in the Year 1685, found his Expectations baulked, he changed it in 1702, therefore in many Libraries they have Duplicates under different Title Pages.

Scriptores Rerum Germanicarum collecti à Joh. Michaele Heineccio, & Joh. Georg. Leuckfeldo, in folio, Francofurti 1702, 2 Vol.

The Books wrote by Heineck, intituled, Antiquitates Goslarienses, & Nummi Goslariensium Antiqui, make up the best Part of this Collection.

Christ. Franc. Paullini Rerum, & Antiquitatum Germanicarum Syntagma, complettens variorum scriptorum Annales, Chronica, & Dissertationes, ab eodem Paullino e tenebris eruta, in 410. Francosurti 1698.

Godofredi Guillielmi Leibnitii Accessiones Historica, in 410. Hanovera 1700, 2 Vol. This Collection is curious, and amongst other Things has the Chronicle of Albericus, which was a Manuscript very common in the Libraries, though not before printed, and is valuable. We shall treat elsewhere of other Pieces of this Author, as of his Coden Juris Gentium iplomaticus.

maticus, and Scriptores Rerum Brunsvicensium, which deserve a Place here.

Henrici Canissi Lectiones Antique, in 410. Ingolstadii 1601, in 6 Vol. This Collection, besides many Pieces of Ecckfiastical History, contains many material Memoirs of German Civil History. Being become very scarce for fifty Years palt, Mr. Fames Basnage, Pastor of a Congregation at the Haque, reprinted it with very useful Notes. He divides the whole into an easy and natural Method, and has compared many of the Papers with the Original Manuscripts in several places, which Canifius had not an Opportunity to confult. A great Progress was actually made in the Press in 1716. Though the History of Germany has more Writers in its Collection than any other Part of Europe, and it is to be withed we had more, particularly those promised by Lambecius, Nessel, Yenzel, and Weber. I am surprized that the Booksellers of Francfort, or Holland, who have printed the Antiquities of several particular Parts of Italy, have had no Inclination to make a Collection of what relates to Germany, which though it filled thirty Volumes in Folio, would be a more vendible Commodity than the Grecian and Roman Antiquities. Mr. Mencken applauds Fresnoy's Scheme on this Head, and affures us, that there were Booksellers at Leipsick, who only waited an Opportuty savourable to them to put this Project in Execution.

Joan. Cuspiniani Vita Imperatorum a Julio Cæsare and Maximilianum I. in fol. Francos. 1601. This is a curious Book, contains many Particularities of Moment, little known.

Carolus Sigonius de Regno Italia, in fol. Hanov. 1609. This Historian well versed in what he sets about, united to his History of Italy much relating to the Empare.

YOL. II.

Le Sr. Heiss Histoire de l'Empire d'Allemagne, in 410. Paris 1684, 2 Vol. Idem in 120. Paris 1711, 5 Vol. This, though Concise, is good, the first Part contains the History of the Empire, the second the exact State of Germany, and the third the Proofs and Original Papers, the last Edition is the best, and was much augmented by Mr. Abbée Vertot. By Mr. Mencken it is remarked, that this Book is not valued by the Cermans, who with great Reason complain much of the Partiality of the last Edition.

Le S. de Prade Histoire d'Allemagne, in 4to. Paris 1677. This Book was printed in two Volumes in 120. and excepting some sew Errours, contains a good Account of the State of the Empire. There is also an Abridgement of the Lives of the Emperours.

Joan. Philippi Vorburgi Historia Romano Germanica, in fol. Francosurti 1645, &c. 12 Vol. A most wretched and contemptible Work.

Octavius Strada de Vuis Cæsarum à Julio Cæsare ad Imperatorem Matthiam, in sol. Francoi. 1615. Id. ad Ferdinandum II. in sol. 1629.

John Savage Compleat History of Cermany, comprehending the Lives and Reigns of all the Emperours from its Original to this Time, Lond. 1702, 8vo.

— The antient and present State of Germany, Lond. 1702, 8vo.

Jo. Palatii Aquila inter Lilia, in fol. Ven. 1671.

—— Aquila Saxonica, fol. Ven. 1673. —— Aquila Suevica, fol. Ven. 1679.

- Aquila Bavarica, fol. Ven. 1679.

Aquila Austriaca, fol. Ven. 1679. These Volumes contain the German History from Charles the Great to the Emperour Leopold. This Author rather studied to embellish his Work with Figures and Medals, and those of his own Invention, than to dive deep into History, upon which Account it deserves not the Price it bears; he has also published an Abridgement.

bridgement full of Figures, under the following Title.

Speculum Prerogativarum Imperii Germanici (High-Dutch) Berl. 1703. Although the Title promises much, the Author is not so very large on the German History, (of whose Particulars he only treats to the Year 1689.) as on the Affairs relating to the Family of the Counts of Hohenzollern. The Empire of Germany abounding in Collections of Historians, has not one good general History, as none of those I have mentioned are fatisfactory, and the Germans seem unequal to undertake any exact History of their own Nation: As they are fonder of Abridgements, Differtations, and Fragments, Matters very opposite to an exact and regular History. There are also many Difficulties in an Attempt of this Nature on Account of the Revolutions happened in a Body, composed of so many different States. Though we have the Nucleus Historia Germanica by Sagittari, and a Piece of another able Pen under the Title of, Introductio ad Historiam Ramano-Germanicam, we cannot be said to have a compleat System of German History. Ludovici and Gandling, both well versed in the History of this Country, have given us Hopes of something of this Nature, which is impatiently expected. Besides, the learned Charles James Spener, a Professor in the University of Hall, attempts a Work of this kind in four Volumes, of which the first is now [1716] in the Press, and bears the following Title, Historia Germaniz Veteris, Media, Recentiores, & Hodierna.

CHAP. XXII.

Particular Histories of the Emperours.

Hristophori Ott: Laurus Carolina de gestis Carol.

M. & sequentium Cæsarum, in 410. Ingolstad.

1655.

Johan. Joach. Frantzii Historia Caroli Magni, in 410. Argentorati 1644.

Eginhartus de Carolo Magno, ab Joh. Henrico Boeclero, in 410. Argentorati 1644. Idem in 410. Ultrajecti 1711. Gr. Lat. cum comm. This and the former are printed together at Strasbourgh, but not in so beautiful or ample a manner as the Edition at Utreche in 1711, which is explained by the Notes of several learned Men. For the Reign of Charles the Great, and some of the Emperours his Successors also Kings of France, may be consulted the Collections before-mentioned, as well as several of the Historians mentioned under the Article of France.

Anctoris incerti Annalium de gestis Caroli Magni Imperat. Libri V. edente Reinero Reineccio, in 820. Helmstad. 1594. Mark Wagner, John Letzner, and Erpold Lindenbruch have wrote the Lives of Charles the Great in High-Dutch; but the last has succeeded ill in pursuing the Steps of Pseudo Turpinus.

Reinerus Reineccius de Witichmdo Magno, in fol. Helmstad. 1583. For the History of Lewis the Pious, and his Sons, there are no better Historians either nearer or farther from their Times than Teganus and Nuardus, which are in the Collection made by Fitheus in 8vo. We have also a History of this Emperour in High-Duich, wrote by Letzner.

Joan-

Joan. Henr. Bœcler. Commentarius de rebus Saculi IX. & X. per seriem Germanico: um Cæsarum, a Carolo M. ad Ottonem III. in 410. Argentinæ 1656.

Luitprandi Subdiaconi opera, in fol. Antverpiæ 1640, In this Work are several Pieces of History concerning the middle Age of the Empire.

Nic. Hier. Gundling de Statu Reipubl. Germ. sub

Conrado I. 4to. Hal. 1706.

Jo. Petri Ludewig Germania Frinceps sub Conrado I. 420. Hal. 1710.

N. H. Gundling de Henrico Aucupe Liber singu-laris, 4to. Hal. 1711.

J. P. Ludewig Henricus Auceps Historia Anceps, 410 Hal. 1713. These are valuable Pieces, and relate to the middle Age of the Empire, though they sometimes disagree.

Felicis Cantelorii Concordia inter Alexandrum III. & Fridericum 1. Venetiis confirmata narratio, in fol.

Paris 1632.

This Affair has given Birth to many Volumes: The Affairmative, the servile Submission of the Emperour Frederick is much insisted on by the Venetians and People of Rome, who have loaded their Walls and Canvass, as well as nauscated the World with Representations and Descriptions of a Fact, which the Germans as loudly deny to have had any Existence; I shall not here examine this Controversy, which has employed so many abler Pens, and which has, is, and will be a bone of Contention to all Ages: How far Interest may have given Birth, or propagated the spreading of this Fact, I pretend not to determine, the claim of Dominion in the Adviance Seas and Privileges granted to the Roman See by Pope

Pope Alexander III. have given a Foundation to Sufpicions not fo fully dispersed, as could be wished.

Henr. Meibomii Apologia pro Ottone IV. 410. Helmst. 1624. and in his Script. Rer. Germ. T. III.

Petri de Vineis Epistole, in 8vo. Basileæ 1566. Idem in 8vo. Ambergæ 1609. Peter de Vineis was Chancellour to the Emperour Frederick II. the last Edition in 1609 is the best, and it is also to be met with in Collections of the German Historians.

Joannes Joach. Zentgrafius de Inter regno Imperii Germanici ab Excessiu Conradi IV. usque ad Rudolphum Habsburgicum, in 410. Vittebergæ 1668.

Joan. Henr. Bœcleri Dissertatio de Rudolpho Imperatore, in 410. Argentorati 1672, and in Tom. II. of his Dissert. Acad.

Albertini Mussati Historia Augusta Henrici VII. in fol. Venetiis 1636. This Book is valuable and scarce; in the same Volume are many other Writers, most of which relate more particularly to the History of Italy. Most of the Copies of this Book being castrated by the Italians, who have taken out whole Pages, the Purchaser must be careful in procuring one entire, which is very difficult.

Mart. Difenbach de vero mortis genere, quo Henricus VII. obiit, 4to. Franc. 1685.

Nicolai Burgundi Historia Bavarica, seu Ludovicus IV. Imperator, ac ejus vita, & res gesta, ab Anno 1313, ad Ann. 1347, in 410. Ingolstadii 1636, and in 410. Amstelodami 1645. The History of Lovis of Bavaria is one of the most considerable for its great Events, and this is good; another was promised, not yet published.

Joann. Georgii Herwarti Ludovicus IV. defensus contra Bzovium, in 4to. Monachii. 1618. 2 Vol. This Work of the Chancellour of Bavaria, is a learned, but tiresome Piece.

Joan. Francisci Buddæi Lissertatio de Ludovico IV. Imperatore, in 410. Jenæ 1689. This is a curious Differtation, and one of the best wrote by this learned Man.

Ahasueri Fritschii Guntherus Schwarzburgicus Imperator Romanus (Post Ludovicum IV. An. 1349. El Elus) Discursu Historico exhibuus, in 410. Lipsiæ, & Jenæ 1877.

Bæcleri, & cum Diplomatum Documentorumque rebus ejustem Imperat. illustrandis appendice, &c. edente Joan. Georg. Kulpis, in fol. Asgentorati 1685. This is a curious and valuable Collection, and is the same with the Schilteri Rerum Germanicarum Scriptores.

Friderici III. Diarium Vita. This Lambecius has inserted in his Diarium Sacrum Itineris Cellensis, 410.

Venet. 1666.

Jo. Ant. Campani Epistola una cum Poematibus, & vita auctoris, ed a Jo. Burchardo Menckenio, 8vo. Lips. 1707. In these Letters is much Life: He was of the Nuntio's Train, who was sent by the Pope to the Emperour Frederick III. an Occasion that gave him Opportunity of knowing sully what passed at that Time in Germany under this Prince, and to observe that prodigious Slowness he acted by.

Piece, entituled, Thurdanck, which poetically describes the Dangers undergone by Maximilian.

Jo. Sleidanus de Statu Religionis, & Reipublice, in fol. Aigentorati 1555. This History has always been, and even still is esteemed; though Charles the Fifth in speaking of Sleidan, always termed him a Iyar. It is translated into High-Dutch, fol. Francs. 1618, with a Continuation by Gothard Arthuys to 1618, and again to 1620 we have another Continuation by Oseas Schade, who denies Arthuys to be the true Author of what is given to him.

Hieronymi Gebvilleri Ortus Caroli V. in 8vq. Lo-vanii 1650.

Christiani Eberhardi Collectio Scriptorum de Electione, & Coronatione Caroli V. in 410. Helmstadii 1660.

Selectum Historicum, hoc est Hartmanni Mauri, & Georgii Sabini Descriptio Coronationis Caroli V. accessit Descriptio Coronationis ejuschem Imperat. Bononie, a Clemente VII. An. 1530, in 410. Francosurti 1612.

Wilhelmus Zenocarus (vulgo Snouckart) a Shauenburgo, de Vita, Republica, & Moribus Caroli V. in fol. Gandavi 1560. Idem in fol. Antverpiæ 1594. A Book full of strange Stories and ridiculous Miracles.

Jo. Vorthusii Phænix; sen Apotheosis Consecrationis, Augusta, qua Caroli M. & Caroli V. res gest describuntur, 410. Antverp. 1562. This is of the same Temper with the former, who frequently quotes him.

Lod. Dolce Vita di Carolo V. Imperadore, in 410. in Venetia 1561. This is wrote by one of the best Italian Historians, is much valued, and rare.

Alphonso Ulloa vita del Imperator Carlo V. in 410. in Venezia 1566. Charles the Fifth, that great Emperour, has not had an Historian worthy of him, as I cannot think, that Leti, who has wrote his Life, me-sits this Character, or has done Justice to so great a Captain, and so consummate a Politician.

Prudencio de Sandoval Historia de la Vida y hechos del Emperador Carlos V. fol. en Pamplona 1614. This is translated into English by Captain Stevens, in 8vo. Lond. 1703, and has several Particulars, which we must not always Credit. I refer the Reader to a Discourse printed amongst the Works of Mr. Mothe le Vayer, in fol. Vol. 1. pag. 213. It was translated into Latin by Mr. Erbert, but never printed.

Pedro Salazar Cronica del Emperador Carlos V. fol. Hispali 1552. Here is nothing described but the War of Smalcalde, and that with much Partiality.

Ludovici ab Avila & Zunniga Commentarii de bello Germanico à Carolo V. gesto, in 8vo. Antv. 1550. Though this is a Book but of small Importance, yet Charles the Fish thought himself as happy as Alexander, in having found an Historian equal to him, (who wrote the Wars of the Macedonian,) to hand down his Feats against the Protestants: He was of the Privy-Council, and Captain of the Guards to that Prince.

Gregorio Leti Vita di Carlo V. 8vo. Amst. 1700. 4 Vol. It has been translated into High-Dutch, with good Notes, by Mr. Rabener at Leipsick, 8vo. 3 Vols.

Fpistola due, altera Clementis VII. Papa ad Carolum V. altera Caroli V. Responsoria An. 1527, & pro Carolo V. ad Epistolam Francisci I. Galliarum Fegis ad Imperii I rincipes transmissam, nec non ad Apologiam Madricia Conventionis dissuasoriam Fesponso, in 800. Antverp. 1527.

Rerum à Carolo V. in Africano Bello gestarum An. 1535, & segg. Commentarii, ex variis Scriptoribus in unum congesti, edente Cornelio Sceppero, in 410. Antiverpiæ 1554.

Lamberti Hortensii de Bello Germanico Caroli V.

Libri VII. in 410. Basileæ 1560.

Fridericus Hortlederus Acta Fublica Germanica de causis, justicia, inicio, progressa, & exicu belli Germanici sub Carolo V. Imperat. ab Ann. 1546, ad Ann. 1558. cum siguris Aneis, fol. Gothæ Typis Endteri 1645. This is a most curious and scarce Book, and to be only sound in the best Libraries. It is to be observed, that the Edition at Francfort of 1617 and 1618, without the Figures, is much superiour to that at Gothes. It is thought that the Author in collecting these Acts, had in view the Injustice done in the Deprivation of John Frederick, Elector of Saxony: We have at present but six Books, a seventh being seized in the Press, and stifled: To this Work the Archives of Weimar were of great Use.

Laurentius Surius de rebus in orbe gestis, in 8vo. Coloniæ 1575. This Author, who was a Carthusian Monk, is sometimes very credulous.

Jacobi Masenii Anima Historia hujus Temporis, h. e. Historia Caroli V. & Ferdinandi 1. in 410. Colonia: 1672. Ib. 1709. It will not be foreign to our purpose here to add the Opinion of the Journalists of Faris, which runs thus in the Journal of October 1709. Father Massen, who was fixty-five Years of Age, when he finished his Work, seems to have applied to it with great Care: His Thoughts are strong, and his Style equal to his Notions of Things. He writes like a true Historian, and Masser of the Latin Diction.

1619, Idem Francos. in 8vo. 1619, 3 Vol.

Matthiam, & Ferdinandum II. Imp. & alios Principes ab Ann. 1617, ad An. 1623, in 410: Francofurti 1623. This is one of the best and ablest German Writers: Mr. Mencken had before treated on the Acta I ublica by Londorp, and has therefore omitted it here, and the rather, as he says, he observed Mr. Fresnoy was not sufficiently acquainted with them.

Franz. Christoph. Khevenhuller Annales Ferdinandei, in fol. T. I. -VIII. Ratish, 1640-1644. T. IX. Vien. 1646, 9 Vol. In High Duich. This is the rarest Work we have in Relation to the History of Germany, as no more than forty Copies were ever printed, and those presented to Princes and Great In 1716, a temb Volume was in the Press. The Count Revenbuller, a Privy-Counsellour to the Emperour Ferdinand II. was the Author. As he was employed in State-Affairs, his Design was to give in twelve Volumes an Account of what had passed from the Year 1598 to 1639, from the Birth of Ferdinand to his Death: His Family still preserve the remaining Part of this History in MSS, and designed to reprint the Work entire; but as they have not been able to obtain a Permission, it must still continue scarce.

Ambassade de Messieurs le Duc d'Angouleme, & de Chateuneuf, avec des Observations Politiques de Mr. De Bethune, in fol. Par. 1667. This Piece is very useful to let us into the Knowledge of the Means made Use of by Lovis XIII, of France, on the Side of the Emperour Ferdinand II. to hinder the Irotestants of Germany from espousing the Cause of the Electour Palatine Frederick V. and to confirm the Treaty of Ulm, of so fatal consequence to the Bohemians.

Everardi Wassenbergii Florus Germanicus, de Bello inter Imperatores Ferdinandos II. & III. & eorum bosses gesto ab Anno 1617, ad Annum 1640, in 160. Francosurti 1640. He has succeeded very ill in his Attempt to imitate Florus. When he mentions the Protestants, he does it in a most bitter and severe manner, and gives us nothing uncommon; but there is a Translation in High-Dutch at Amsterdam, with large Notes, which are very remarkable, and are deservedly preserable to the Original. The Author of these Notes is the Count Furstembergh.

Petrus Baptista Burgus de Bello Suecico, ab Anno 1618, in 410. Leod. 1633, in 120. Coloniæ 1644. It was translated into French by Maucroy, in 8vo. at Paris 1653. The first Edition is the best. The Author, who treats only of what passed from the breaking out of this War to the Year 1623, speaks as an Eye-witness. As he relates Matters very faithfully, he deserves Credit; and although he was a Partizan of Ferdinand II. he allows Gustavus Adolphus King of Sweden his Share of Glory.

P. Lanf-

P. Lansbergius de Bello Germanico Gustavi Magni, in 120. Roterodam. 1652. He deserves to be read with Attention.

Joseph. Riccius de Bellis Germanicis, ab Anno 1618, ad Annum 1648, in 410. Venetiis 1648. An excellent Oratour this, who undertook the History of his Time; but in treating of foreign Affairs, he discourses not so exactly, as that there are not very discernible a want of Judgement, and sometimes honesty. Ingredients essentially necessary to make a good Historian.

Nicolai Vernulæi Causa Belli Sueco-Germanici, in 410. Amstelod. 1646.

Justi Asterii Examen Comitiorum Ratisbonensium, sive disquisitio politica de nupera Electione Ferdinandi III. in Regem Romanorum An. 1636. in qua ostenditur neque conventum Electoralem Ratisbonæ rite institutum, neque designationem Regis Romanorum leguimam, in 410. Hanoviæ 1637. A curious and scarce Book. John Stella, Resident of the King of France at Strasburgh, published this Piece in Favour of the Electour of Treves, who was excluded from Voting in the Election. He is also thought to have been the Author of the Deploratio Pacis Germanicæ sive Dissertatio de Pace Pragensi Anni 1635, in 410. Lutet. 1636, which was Midwised into the World under the sictitious Name of Girst Aster.

Galeazzo Gualdo: Istoria delle Guerre di Ferdinando III. & Ferdinando III. dall' Anno 1630, sino all' Anno 1636, in 410. Ven. 1646.

Pietro

Pietro Pomo: Saggi d'Istoria, ovvero Guerre di Germania dall'Invasione del Re di Svezia sino alla morte di Wolestano, in 410. Ven. 1640.

Phil. Chemnitius Bellum Suecicum in Germania, in fol. Tom. I. Stetin. 1648. Tom. II. 1653, (High-Dutch.) The second Volume is more esteemed than the first, as while the Author was compiling that, the Count Oscaphern affished him largely with Memoirs. He is as much admired for his Style as Politicks.

Joannis Gilenii Germania reformata, deformata, re-

Raurata, in 8vo. Vesaliis 1659.

Caroli Caraffæ Germania Sacra restaurata atque ad Annum 1641, continuata, in 4to. Francosurti 1641. Idem in 8vo. Coloniæ 1639. This Author was sent Nuntio by the Pope to the Emperour Ferdinand the Second: The pretended Edition of Cologn, in 8vo. though really printed in Holland, is the best.

Epitome rerum Germanicarum ab A. 1617, ad 1643. gestarum. Editio emendata. 120. 1669. This small Piece contains many remarkable Things, useful to one who is a little versed in this History: All agree, that Pappias Dean of the Cathedral of Constance, a learned Man, and very moderate in regard to the Frotestants, is the true Author.

Jean le Laboureur Histoire du Marechal de Guebriant, contenant le recit de ce qui s'est passé en Allemagne dans la Guerre de France, & de Suede, & des Estats Alliez contre la Maison d'Autriche, in sol. Paris 1684. This Marshal of France, after having signalized himself in this War, died at the Siege of Rothville in 1643. This Book composed from his Memoirs is esteemed, and to it may be added, Les Memoires de Mr. De Sirot; e l'Histoire du Marechal de Gassion. Of which we shall treat elsewhere.

Galeazzo Gualdo: Istoria della Vita d'Alberto Vallestein Data di Fritland, in 410. A Lion 1643. This Book was translated by Arnde into Laim, who published it with the Trutina Statutum Europæ, wrote by the Duke of Roban Rostoch 1668. To this may be also joined, the Conspiration de Walstein, amongst the Works of Sarrasin, which is translated into English in 8vo. at Lond.

Adolphus Brachelius de Historia nostri Temporis, ab Anno 1618, usque ad Annum 1651, in 8vo. Coloniæ 1651. A Book well esteemed.

Gio. Battista Comazzi: Istoria di Leopoldo Prinio Imperatore, 8vo. Vien. 1689. Id. 1697. Translated into High-Dutch, at Augsburgh 1690. It is little more than than an Abridgement of Gualdo, who reaches thus

D. M. G. P. Vida di Leopoldo, in fol. Milan.

1696, 3 Vol. A Spanish Book little known.

Life of the Emperour Leopold, 8vo. Lond. 1706. Finding this Piece well methodized, I have thought fit to tread in the Paths of this Author, and to add to him, what, as an Englishman, he could not come to the Knowledge of, and then published my Abridgement under the following Title.

Gio. Burcardo Menkenio Vita, e Fatti di Leopoldo

Imp. 8vo. Lipfia. 1707.

Carl. Giul. M. Reina Vita, e Imperio di Leopoldo I. 8vo. Milano 1710. This Compendium is excellent.

Vita, e Fatti di Leopoldo il Grande, 8vo. Lipsia. 1708. Id. Colon. 1713. The last Edition is much enlarged: The Anonymous Author shews he was well acquainted with the Court of Vienna, of which he gives a fine Sketch: This Book contains several very curious Particularities, as do the following.

Vita, e Fatti di Giuseppe, 8vo. Colon. 1712.

Vita, e Fatti di Giuseppe I. 8vo. Lips. 1712. This is rather a Collection of Authentick Instruments, than a methodical History.

G. B. Comazzi Coronazione del Ré dell' Ungaria

Giuseppe, 8vo. Vienna 1697.

Memoire del General Principe di Montecuccoli, 8vo. Col. 1704. This Book was lately translated into French.

Memoires du Comte de Vordag, General des Arméés de l'Empereur, 8vo. Paris 1703. Mr. Cavard is the true Author of these Memoirs from 1680 to 2693; some say, that Mr. Vauban, one of the Emperour's Generals, who died at Gaieta in the Year 1707, had some Hand in it.

Guillelmi Kyriandi Annales Augusta Trevirorum, in fol. Biponti 1619. This Author is not much esteemed. He is well versed in the Antiquities of the antient Kingdom of Austrasia; but in some Places is very much mistaken, and allows too ample Privileges to the City of Treves, for which his Book was suppressed by the Elector.

Christoph. Broweri & Jacobi Masenii Antiquitates, & Annales Trevirenses, in fol. Leodii 1671, 2 Vol. This is one of the best Pieces of particular History re-Christophori Lehmanni Chronicon Spirense, in fol. Francosurti 1612, in High-Dutch. Idem in fol. Francofurti 1698. Idem in 410. Francofurti 1662. The first of these three Editions in 1612, is the most beautiful and correct; that of 1698, is the largest; and the most faulty that of 1662. I have before touched on this Book, which gives great Light into the History of Germany.

These two Editions are the best: Besides, their Correctness and Exactness, they contain several Treatises, and some particular Authors on the History of Hungary. Corvinus King of Hungary, that Favourer of learned Men, brought the Author into that Country on purpose to draw up its Annals, and it is the best History we have of it; but then he is something too affected in his Style, and spares none of his Heroes, not even Corvinus himself, whose smallest Desects he touches upon.

A Reader will find what is worth his Notice in the last Book mentioned of the Troubles of Hungary. Mr. Mencken observes, that the Life of Teckeli, printed at Cologn in Twelves, reaches to 1691, whereas the Troubles of Hungary ceased in 1683. It should not be forgot, that this Life of Ragotzi is very injurious to the House of Austria.

Jac. Schickfusii Continuatio Annalium gentis Silesia, in fol. Jenæ 1625. This Work is not always exact, and has been frequently criticised on. Mr. Mencken takes Notice, that from the Title one would naturally think this Piece wrote in Latin, as if only a Continuation of Curaus, whereas it is wrote in High-Dutch, under the Title of Chronica Silesia, and the Author in it makes good Use of Curaus.

This Work reaches not the Middle of the sixteenth Century, and as Mr. Hanckt is admirably skilled in the Antiquities of his Country, so we have Reason to expect the History of Silesia he has promised. We have at present a Continuation of this Work under the following Title.

— Basil 1615. — Basileæ 1627. This History is much esteemed, and these three Editions are the best; those published before were all castrated. It is observable, that this Author is more exact in his Accounts of the Middle, than of his own Times, and so, that he has committed some Errors in Points of Chronology. He is also accused of having robbed the Archives, where he was trusted, of many valuable original Papers of the greatest Impor-

Jo. Addzreiteri Cancellarii Bavarici Annales Boicæ gentis, usque ad annum 1652, in sol. Monachii 1662. 3 Vol. Idem. fol. Francs. 1710. This is a most scarce and exact Piece. It is collected from the Archives of Bavaria. But all here is not of equal Authority, as the Author did not do all himself, but committed it to the Care of Persons unequal to the Work. It was reprinted in Holland. A sew Years since, Leibnuz has reprinted it at Francsort, or rather Leipsick, with the Annals of Bruner. He says in the Presace, that Warsusans, and John Ferveaux of Lorain, have been thought the Authors, while others give the Honour of it, to Father Forquevanlx, a Jesuit.

Marquardi Freheri Origines Palatinæ, in fol. Heidelb. 1613. Ibid. in 410. 1686. This is a very curious and accurate Piece, and the two Editions I have mentioned are the largest. In it are the Antiquities of the Palatinate, by Obert Thomas, of Liege, and the Origin of the Counts Palatine by Peter Pithaus.

Marquardi Freheri de Lupoduno antiquissimo Alemanniæ Oppido Commentariolus. in fol. Heidelb. 1618. This is a valuable Collection of Diplomas, and publick Acts.

Georg. Helvichii Antiquitates Monasterii Laurisha-

These are the Memoirs of Lovisa Julienne Electress Palatine, publish'd at Leyden; in 1645. in 410. as Griffius asserts in his Apparatus ad Script. Sac. XVII. pag. 76. This Book is a M 2' Proof.

Proof, that this Princes, Mother of Frederick V. Elector Palatine, used her utmost Endeavours, to disswade her Son from accepting the Crown of Bohemia. We are obliged for this Book to the learned Spanheim, the Elder.

Lib. VI. A well wrote Piece, which deserves to be published, as Rabener has promised. I must not forget to advertise the Publick, that Mr. Samuel Grosser, was, in 1716, actually printing a compleat History of Lusaia, in fol. in High-Dutch.

CHAP. XXIX.

Histories of the House of BRUNS-WICK-LUNENBURGH.

ARTINI Zeilleri Topographia Brunsvicenfis & Luneburgensis, in fol. Francos. 1653.
In High-Dutch. This is one of the most valuable Pieces of Topography wrote by this Author, and the more esteemed, as it met with the Encouragement of Augustus Duke of Brunswick, who bore all the necessary Expences to render it a compleat Work.

Joan. Bapt. Pignæ de Principibus Atestinis Lib. VIII. in 410. Ferrariæ 1585. & in fol. Ibid. 1596. This Author is not always exact. I have taken further Notice of him, in speaking of the Writers of Modona.

Gasp. Sagittarii Origines Ducum Brunsvicensium, in 410. Jen. 1684. This, as well as all the other Works of this Author, is accurate, but he comes not lower than 1235.

- Memorabilis Historia Luneburgicz, 410. Jen-1688. The Continuation of this History to 1598, is not yet printed.

HISTORIANS of FRANCE.

Authors who have treated of the old GAULS, before the Settlement of the FRENCH.

ANDRE du Chesne Bibliotheque des Autheurs qui ont ecrit l'Histoire, & Topographie de la France, 820. Paris 1637. A rare Book.

Itinerarium Antonini, & Burdigalense cum Hieronymi Suritæ Commentario, in 8vo. Coloniæ 1600.

Libellus Provinciarum Galliæ, atque Civitatum Metropolitanarum. Printed with the Itinerary of Antoninus.

Jo. Isacii Itinerarium Galliæ Narbonensis, 120. Lugd. 1606.

Fragmenta Tabule antique, in quibus aliquot per Romanas Provincias Itinera, ex Putingerorum Bibliotheca; Marco Velsero, in 4to. Ven. 1591. Or in the Collection of Works by Velserus, in fol. To these Authors may be added, Bergier's History of the great Roads through the Roman Empire, with the Geographical Observations of Sanson on the Commentaries of Casar, as also the Notes of Mr. Biase di Viginere, upon Casar.

Nic.

Nic. Sanson Remarques sur le Carte de l'Antienne Gaule tireé des Commentaires de Cæsar, in 410. Paris 1652.

Gaudentii Merulæ Antiquitates Galliæ Cisalpinæ, in fol. Francos. 1600. Idem. in 8vo. Lugd. 1638.

Bonav. Castillioneus de Gallorum Insubrum antiquis Sedibus, in fol. With the foregoing Book. The same at Bergomo in 1594. Again at Milan in 410. 1641. Works but little read, though justly to be valued.

Petri Rami Liber de Moribus Veterum Gallorum, in 8vo. Paris 1559. The same Book was at this Time translated into French.

La Religion les Antiens Gaulois tircé des pluspures Sources de l'Antiquite, 2 Vol. 410. Paris 1727.

Steph. Forcatulus de Imperio, & Philosophia Veteruno

Gallorum, in 410. Paris 1579.

Jo. Goropii Becani Francica, & Gallica, in fol. Antverp. 1580. This was a learned Man; his Works are fought after, though by some despited.

Jo. Picarti de Prisca Celtopædia, Lib. V. in 410.

Ant. Schonhovii Commentatio Epistolica de Origine, & Sedibus Francorum, in 8vo. Apud Ant. Matthæum in Analectis Vet. Ævi.

Claude Fauchet Antiquitez Gauloises, contenant les Choses Advenues en Gaule, jusques à la Venue des François, in 410. Paris 1610. This is a learned, though not exact Author, and often too credulous. He wrote his History in a Style so tiresome, that Louis XIII. began to peruse it, but was so nauseated, that he could never be perswaded to pursue his sirst. Design.

Antoine de l'Estanc Histoire des Gaules, & Conquêtes des Gaulois en Italie, Grece, & Asie, in 450. Bour-विकास १६१८.

Scipion Dupliex Memoires des Gaules depuis le Deluge jusques à Etablissement de la Monarchie Françoise, in 410. Paris 1619. Or in the Beginning of the first Volume of his History of Irance. This is the best Piece this injudicious and unaccurate Author ever wrote.

Marci Zuerii Boxhornii Origines Gallicæ, in 410. Amst. 1654. This is a valutale Piece.

Ant. Gosselini Historia veterum Gallorum, in 8vo. Cadomi 1636. This was an Author so celebrated, that Mr. Samuel Bochart never dared to publish a Piece he had wrote against him; tho? after his Death it was inserted amongst his Works.

Jo. Isaaci Pontani Origines Francicæ, in 410. Harderwic. 1616. A curious and valuable Work of Tontanus, who has made himself known by other Historical Pieces.

Fr. Eudes de Mezerai Histoire de France avant Clovis. It is in the Beginning of his first Volume of his large History of France, printed in 1685, or printed separately in Holland, in one Volume in Twelves. This Piece is exact, and preserable to all who have wrote on this Subject.

Addigier Origine des François, in 120. Paris 1676. 2 Vol.

Guill. Marcel Histoire des Gaules. In the first Volume of the History of France, of which I shall treat more hereaster. There are some sew good Things in this Volume.

Adrian Schrieckii Origines Celticæ, & Belgicæ, in fol. Ipris Flandr. 1615. This is a learned, curious, and scarce Piece.

Elias Schedius de l'iis Germanorum, in 820. Amstelod. 1648. In this learned Treatise we have much of the History of the Religion of the antient Gauls.

• Le P. Pezron Antiquité de la Nation, & de la Langue des Celtes, 120. Paris 1703.

Ægidii

chief HISTORIANS. 197

Ægidii Lachari Historia Galliarum sub Trasectis Galliarum, a Constantino M. usque ad Justinianum Imperatorem, in 410. Claram. 1675. This small Piece is very much esteemed, but little known or read, except by the Learned.

—— Historia Coloniarum a Gallis in exteras Nationes missarum, tum exterarum Nationum in Galliam deductarum, in 410. Clarom. 1677. A valuable, though little studied Piece.

P. Daniel. Histoire 'de la Milice François jusques a la sin de Lovis de Grand, in 410. Tom. II. 1724.

C H A P. XXXIV.

Authors, who have wrote the Topography, and State of FRANCE.

History of FRANCE after the Settlement of the present FRENCH-NA-

ADRIANI Valessi Notitia Galliarum, in fol. Paris 1675. This is a Work necessary for the Knowledge of France, under the two suffer Families of their Kings. Mr. Valois, who knew to the Bottom the antient History of his own Country, has shewed as great an Exactness, as he has Learning. To this should be added, the fourth Book De Re Diplomatica, by Father Mabillon, where there is also a Discourse of the Palaces of the first Kings of France, wrote by the Reverend Father Mich. Germain, a Benedictine Monk, of the Reform of St.

Maur. This Piece was so valued, that Mr. Valois pretended, that this learned Father had extracted it from his Notitia Galliarum.

Martini Zeilleri Topographia Galliæ, in fol. Francof. 1655, 4 Vol. In High-Dutch. This Work is considerable for the Number of the Plans of the Cities of France in it, though the Alterations they have undergone, under them less useful at present.

Topographia Gallia, 120. Amít. 1662, 5 Vol. In High-Duich.

Papirii Massoni Descriptio Fluminum Gallix, qua Francia est, in 8vo. Paris 1618. Idem in 120. Paris 1685. This Piece, which was translated into French, is much esteemed, though Mr. Valois condemns it as confused, and no Ways exact.

André du Chesne les Antiquitez, & Recherches des Villes, & Châteaux de France, in 8vo. Paris 1624. Id. in 120. Paris 1668, 2 Vol. This ill wrote Piece has some Things curious in it. The Edition in Twelves is the best.

Les Delices de la France, ou Description de ses Provinces, Villes, &c. depuis la paix de Ryswick, in 120. Amsterd. 1669, 2 Vol. This Work, whose Scheme is excellent, is ill executed, wrote in a languid and inaccurate Method.

Papirii Massoni Notitia Episcopatuum Gallia, que

Francia est, in 8vo. Paris 1610.

J. Grangierii Dissertatio de loco ubi victus Attila olim fuit in Galliis, 8vo. Paris 1641.

Descripcion de la France, in fol. Amsterd. 1700, 2 Vol. These are two Volumes full of Figures, as large as the Atlasses.

Jo. Limnæi Notitia & Regimen Regni Galliæ, in 410. Argent. 1655, 2 Vol. This is an exact Author, and udicious Collector.

Bernard Girard du Haillan de l'Etat, et: Succez. des Affaires de France, in 800. Paris 1594. Idem in 800. Paris Paris 1609. Idem in 8vo. Paris 1613. This is a very curious Piece, and contains a particular Account of what relates to the State of France. He gives us very fingular and bold Strokes, and is useful to begin a Study of the History of France. There are many Editions before that here mentioned, but that of 1613 is the fullest.

L'Etat de la France, in 120. Paris, 3 Vol. This Book, which is reprinted every two Years, should be run over to acquaint the Student with the present State of the Posts and Offices in the Kingdom.

Nicolas Vignier Traité de l'Etat, & Origine de aucients François, in 410. Troyes 1582. This curious Piece was translated into Latin, and printed in the first Volume of the French Historians.

Franc. Hotomanni Franco-Gallia, in 8vo. Paris 1576. Id. Francof. 1665. In this Book are many diligent Enquiries into the Original and Government of the Kingdom of France. This Piece, which is valued, is translated into Laim, and printed by Sleidan in Germany. It is translated into English, in 8vo. 17

Ad Franc. Hotomanni Franco-Galliam Responsio, in 8vo. Paris 1576.

In 1576. Two Learned Men of Paris undertook to confute Hottoman, viz. Anthony Maturel, whole Answer is printed with all the German Editions of Hottoman's Book, and Peter Turrel. The same Year was published a bantering Answer to Maturel, under the following Title.

Charles du Moulin, Traité de l'Origine Progés, & Excellence du Royaume de France, in 8vo. Paris 1651. This valuable Piece is also translated into Latin.

Claude

Claude de Seyssel. La Crande Monarchie de France, avec un Traité de la Loi Salique, in 8vo. Paris 1540. & 1558. Sleidan has translated and printed this Book in Germany.

Jerome Bignon de l' Fxeellence des Rois, & du Royaume de France, in 8vo. Paris 1610.

CHAP. XXXV.

COLLECTIONS of Historians, or General Histories of FRANCE.

Arquardi Freheri Corpus Francicæ Historia Veteris, in fol. Hanov. 1613. This Collection comprizes the first Historians of France, from the Beginning of their Monarchy, to Charles the Great, and his Sons.

in 800. Francof. 1594.

Historia Francorum ab Ann. 900, ad Ann. 1285. Scriptores Francorum Veteres IX. in fol. Francos. 1596. These Works were inserted in the Collection made by Andrew du Chesne, which sollows.

Andr. du Chesne Historie Francorum Scriptores Coextanei ab ipsius Centis Origine ad Phillippum Pulchrum, in fol. Paris 1636, 1641, & 1649, 5 Vol. This is an excellent and scarce Collection. It is a Missortune that Mr. Du Chisne did not pursue his Design, which would have made at least twenty-four Volumes of original Authors of the History of France.

Įţ

It should not be forgot, that the fifth Volume was not published by du Chesne, but by his Son. Mr. Mencken says, that he has a Copy of this Work. compared with several M. S. S. by the famous Blondel, which might be of good Use in the publishing of a new Edition.

Aimonii Monachi de Gestis Francorum Libri quinque a Jacobo Dubreul, in fol. Paris 1603. In this Book are many Authors on the History of France. To which may be added, Canisii Var. Lettiones, and Tom. I. Monachi Langellentis de Cestis Caroli M. & Alcuinæ Epist. ad Carolum M. in Tom. XI. Annales Francorum ab A. 741, ad 793, and in Tom. V. Desiderii Ep. Cadurceni Epistola.

Robertus Gaguinus Annales Rerum Gallicarum, in fol. Franc. 1577, & 1580. A superficial and very credulous Author. He is the first Author who has mentioned the Reign of Iverot.

Paulus Æmilius de Rebus Gallicis cum Arnoldi Ferroni Cominuatione, in fol. Paris Valcolan. 1566. This Author, though superficial, writes a pure Style.

Les Chroniques de France Vulgairement de S. Denis finissan Kegne de Charles VI. in fol. Paris 1493. Leure Gothique, 3 Vol. Though here is much fabulous History, it is considerable for the later Times: The Book is rare and much enquired after, and the M.S.S. Copies are as common as the printed.

Nicole Gilles Annales, & Chroniques de France dequis la Destruction de Troyes jusqu' à François I. in fol. Paris 1520. Idem in fol. Paris 1544, & 1547. Idem in 8vo. Paris 1552, 2 Vol. Idem in fol. Paris 1560. Idem in fol. Paris 1569. This Author is credulous. what is good in him is the Account of the later Ages.

Jean le Maire de Belges: Les Illustrations des Gaules, of singularitez de Troyes, in fol. Lyon 1549. A very fabulous and partial Writer,

Jo. Tilii de Rebus Francorum Chronicon à Pharamundo ad Henricum II. in fol. Paris 1555. This is a learned and exact Author.

Jean du Tillet; Recueil des Rois de France, leur Couronne, & Maison, &c. in fol. Paris 1586. Idem in 416. Paris 1618. This Author, Brother to the last, was well versed in the French History. It is a Work full of Trearies of Peace, Publick Acts, and Negotiations of great Use. The Edition in 410. in 1618, is the fullest, and better than that of 1586.

Roberti Cenalis Episcopi Abrincensis Gallica Historia, in fol. Paris 1557. This is little known, and equally regarded.

Joan. Papir. Massoni Annales, quibus res gesta Francorum explicantur, in 410. Paris 1577. This Author is very exact, but shallow, and little read.

Nicolas Vignier. Sommaire de l'Histoire de France avec un Traité de l'Origine des François in fol. Paris 1579.

Bernard Girard du Haillan; Histoire generale des Rois de France, in fol. Paris 1615, 2 Vol. Idem in fol. Paris 1627. This is a valuable and accurate Author, and is one of our best Historians: There are other Editions, but those here mentioned are the best.

Franc. Belleforest; les Grandes Annales, & Histoire generale de France, in fol. Paris 1579, 2 Vol.

—L'Histoire des Neuf Rois Charles, in fol, Paris 1568. This Author is much less esteemed than Haillan, as he was too credulous.

Jean de Serre; Inventaire general de l'Histoire generale de France, in 8vo. Paris 1608, 4 Vol. Idem in fol. Paris 1648, 2 Vol. Idem in fol. Rouen. 1660, 2 Vol. The same translated into Lasin by Marcus Cassindarus Reinius, fol. Franc. 1627. This Author, who is otherwise esteemed, is too partial to the Hugumoss, whose Religion he professed. I have remarked here the best Editions of his History, but the two last are most valuable, as revised by able Men. But as some free and bold Passages were struck out, the first Editions are still sought for.

Scipion Dupleix; Histoire generale de France, jusque à la mort de Louis XIII. in fol. Paris 1634, & 1648, 5 Vol. This History, as it is wrote in a languid and careless manner, is but little read: The Observations of Mr. Bassompiere on the Lives of Heinry IV. and Lavis XIII. should be added. This Author wrote against Mr. Du Serres, the Invontaire des Errems & Deguisement de Pluventaire de Jean de Serres, before he published his own History: But to be well acquainted with him, we need no more than what Mr. Bassompiere has said in Page 735, of his Memoirs.

Franc. Eudes de Mezerai; Histoire de France depais Pharamend jusqu' à la Paix de Vervins, in fol. Paris 1643, 1646, & 1651, 3 Vol. Idem in fol. Paris 1685, 3 Vol.

- Franc. Eudes de Mezerai ; Abregé Chronologique de l'Histoire de France, in 410. Paris 1668, 3 Vol. Idem in 12c. Paris 1668. 8 Vol. Idem in 12c. Amili 1672, 6 Vol. Idem in 120. Amst. 1682, 7 Vol. Id. in 120. Amst. 1688, 7 Vol. Id. in 120. Amst. 1606. 7 Vol. This is the best Modern Writer of the History of France. He was learned, well versed, and impartial. His Body of History, though very good. is not so much valued as his Abridgement. The first-Edition, published in 1643, is more valuable than that of 1685. In this last, he was obliged to omit fome bold Passages, which savoured too much of Republicanism. The last Edition is fuller in his History of France before Clodovens; and in other Pieces inserted in the Body of the Work. The Abridgemene of Mezeray is much prized, and its Chronology is famed for its Exactness. The Editions here mentioned are the best. That of 1668 is very rare, and bears a great Price. Next to this is the Edition printed in Holland in 1673. The others bear an equal Reputation. The Sincerity, or to speak more properly, the Boldness of this Author, made him lose his Pension of Historiographer of France. He is deficient only in a Want of Style, in which he is very stiff. Of the Abridgement there are several Editions printed at Paris in Quarto and Tivelves. But here many Passages are lest out, and others added. At the beginning of the Dutch Edition is reprinted his History before Clovis, which is at the beginning of his Body of History, printed in the Year 1685.

M. de Cordemoy, Histoire de France, in fol. Paris 1685, & 1686, 2 Vol. This History, though well wrote, has not hit the Taste of the Age, and comes down only to the End of the second Race of Kings.

Guillaume Marcel; Histoire de l'Origine, & des Progrés de la Monarchie Françoise, in 8vo. Paris 1686, 4 Vol. This is not, properly speaking, a History, but rather Chronological Tables of the Kings, of their great Actions, first Ministers, proved by Historical Extracts, and Original Papers, and has its Use.

Histoire de France depuis l'Exibissement de la Monarchie Françoise dans les Gaules, par le P. G. Daniel de la Compagnie de Jesus, in fol. Paris 1713, 3 Vol. He begins with Clovis, and ends at the Death of Henry IV. This Author has well observed the Rules he lays down in his excellent Presace concerning a Method of writing History. He does not affect, like Varillas, to enter deep into the surprizing Parts, but relates all in so fine an Order, and so judicious a Style, as never to be tedious to his Reader. His greatest Fault is, that we do not observe that Impartiality remarkable in Thuanus, when he speaks of the Protestants. I do not here take any Notice of several compendious Histories of France, as they are very unexact, and but of little Use; such are those by Father Bussieres in Latin, by Mr. Frade, and some others; a Detail of which would be too tiresome, I shall therefore only take Notice of those who bear any credit.

C H A P. XXXVI.

Particula: Histories of FRANCE relating to the Two First Races of KINGS.

Gregorii Turonensis Opera omnia ex Recensione D.

Theodorici Ruinart Benedictini, in fol. Paris
1699. This is the best and most correct Edition, and indeed, only to be trusted. Besides Fredegarius, and the Continuators added, there are several Authentick Papers and Memoirs relating to the History of France.

Andreæ Dadini Alteferræ Nota, & Observationes in X. Libros Historia Francorum Gregorii Turonensis, & Supplementum Fredegarii, in 410. Tolosæ 1679.

Andr. Sylvii Marcianentis, Historia Merovingica Synopsis ante Annos 433, conscripta cum variorum Continuatione, edita ab Raph. de Beauchamps cum Notis in 410. Duaci 1633, 2 Vol. This Work is as little enquired after, as it is known.

Hadriani Valesii gesta Veterum Francorum usque ad Chlotarii Senioris mortem Libri VIII. in sol. Paris 1646.

3 Vol. This is an exact and well wrote History, a Continuation to this Day would be very acceptable.

Joan. Joc. Chiffletii Anastasis Childerici I. Francorum Regis, sive Thesaurus Sepulcralis Tornaci effossis, & Commentario Illustratus cum Figuris Eress, Antverp. 1655.

Jean. Savaron de la Sainteté du Roi Louis dit Clovis, in 410. Lyon 1622. This is a learned and judicious Author.

Le Fevre Chantereau. Discours Historique concernant le Mariage d'Ansbert, & de Blitilde prétendue sille du Roi Clotaire, in 410. Paris 1647. I have mentioned this Dissertation before.

Marc. Ant. Dominici Ansberti Familia rediviva, in 410. Paris 1648. This Piece is wrote against Chanterean; and the Author pretends to support the Marriage of Ansbert and Blitilde.

Gothofredus Henschenius de Tribus Dagobertis, in 410. Antverp. 1655.

. Jodocus Coccius de Dagoberto Rege, Argentoratensis

Ecclesia Fundatore, in 4to. Molsheimi 1623.

Alcimi Aviti Vienn. Archiepisc. Epistola à Jacob. Sirmondo, in 800. Paris 1643. Or in the Collection of the Works of Father Sirmond, in five Volumes in Folio.

Epistole Francicæ Remigii Remensis ad Clodoveum, &c. Amongst the Historians of France published by Freher and Mr. Du Chesne.

Desiderii Episcopi Cadurceni ad Sigibertum & Dagoborum Reges Episcole, &c. Amongst the Historians of Du Chesne.

Venantii Fortunati Episcop. Pictaviens. Epistole à Christophoro Brouvero, in 410. Moguntiæ 1603, & 1616.

Marculfi Monachi Formula, in 410. Par. 1666. Or in the second Volume of the Capitulars published by Mr. Baluze, and is very useful for the History of the first Race.

Claude Fauchet, les Antiquitez Gauloises, & Françoi-fes, in 410. Paris 1610.

Adrien Jourdan; Histoire de France, & l'Origine de la Maison Royale jusque à Charles Martel, in 410. Paris 1679, 3 Vol. This Book, though most pompously printed, printed, is not esteemed: In it we have revived the old Fable of the Descent of the Kings of France, from some of the Princes concerned in the Siege of Troy.

M. Le Gendre Chanoine de Paris Histoire de France, in 120. Paris, 3 Vol. This is a short Account of the History of our Kings of the two first Races, and the Author seems to have no Design of making a Continuation.

Le P. Daniel Histoire de France, in 410. Paris 1696. In the Year 1716, Father Daniel began a new History of France, since published with Observations and Dissertations to clear up the most remarkable Difficulties. The first Volume comes no lower than Clovis, and some sew of his Successors: He at once takes off from the French Monarchy Pharamond, and three of his Successors. As to the Second Race of Kings, besides the general Histories of France, it would be proper to consult the Historians printed by Du Chesse, or in some of the Collections of German Historians; and I shall here mention some of the principal.

Fragmentum Annalium ab Anno 741, ad Annum 798. In the third Volume of the old Readings of Caminus.

Lupi Ferrariens Epistola, à Baluzio, in 8vo. Paris 1664. This Mr. Fresnoy judges the best Edition, as he knew not of the other, published at Antverp, or rather Leipsick, in 1710, which, having been carefully Revised, and containing all in the former, with Additions, ought to be preserved; though after all, this Book contributes very little to the History.

Claude de Rubis; Histoire de l'Ancienne Extraction, Source, & Origine de la Maison Royale de France, in 8vo. Lyon. 1613. About the End of the sixteenth Century, there was a great Controversy concerning the Third Race of the French Kings; as the Partizans of the League, Enemies to this Race endeavoured all they could, to prove, that Hugh Capet, and all his Successors, were Usurpers to the Crown of France. They made loud Exclamations, that this Kingdom was wrested from the House of Lorain by Hugh Capet. But the Battle of Ivry, in which Henry the Fourth was Conqueror, was a stronger Argument than all their Paper War, that this Prince was the true and lawful Descendant from the antient Kings of France.

M. le Duc d'Espernon; De la veritable Origine de la Troisieme Race des Rois de France, in 120. Paris 1680. This is a well penned and curious Piece: The Authorities seem to be just, as taken from Authentick Writings, or good Historians: He brings down the Descent of the third Race of the Kings of France from St. Amand Bishop of Menix, who was a Prince of the Blood Royal of France. It is a great Rarity to see a Piece of so much Learning published by a Duke and Peer.

Le P. Adrien Jourdan; La Critique de l'Origine de l'Auguste Maison de France, in 120. Paris 1684. This Piece has not much pleased. The Author has attempted a Rout different from that taken by Mr. Fspernon. The Collections made by Fithaus and Du Chesne should be consulted on this Head.

The Edition of 1559, is thought the best by some, though others preser the old black-lettered Editions, and assert Mr. Sauvage has rather spoilt, than mended this Author.

Jean. Juvenal des Ursins; Histoire de Charles VI. avec des Notes, & des Preuves par Theodore, & Denys Godefroy, in fol. At Faris in the Royal Printing-House 1653. Alain Chartier: Ses Oeuvres qui contiennent l'Histoire de Charles VI. & Charles VII. Corrigées par Andre du Chesne, in 410. Paris 1617. This History of Charles VI. and VII. was thought by Du Chesne to have been the Work of Chartier, till from Original and Authentick Manuscripts, it was sound to be the Labour of Mr. Berry, chief Herald to those Kings. It was reprinted by Gothestroy in his History of Charles VII. in 1661. Mr. Mencken observes, that Du Chesne is twice mistaken as to the true Name of this Author, as he has been lately discovered to be Mr. Giles de Bouvier, as Mr. Thaumassiere has fully proved in his History of Berry, lib. 1. cap. 97. pag. 79.

There are some of the present Age, who begin to doubt of her Execution; and Mr. Naude has infinuated something like it in his Piece, entituled, Coups d'Etat, as well as several Differtations in the Mercures Galantes of 1682. This is the most judicious and able Historian France can boast. He has been compared to Thucrdides, and the greatest Historians of all Antiquity: and with Reason is he courted by the best Politicians. We have here taken Notice of the best Editions; that by Elzevir is neat and portable; but none of them are comparable for Corredness, Exactness, select Notes, and Authorities to that published by Mr. Godefroy. That printed at the Louvre is very pompous and scarce; and that in 800. at Brussels, is without Comparison the most correct, and full. It was published there, by Mr. Godefroy, Director of the Chamber of Accounts at Life, who added several Corrections, Notes, and Authorities from the Papers of Mr. Denis Codefroy, his Father.

Philippi Cominzi Opus de Febus gestis Ludovici XI. á Sleidano Latinum factum, in 8vo. Paris 1545. Idem in 120. Lugdun. Batavor. 1640. This is a Translation of the Works of Philip de Comines. The Latin is pure, but the Version is not faithful. He is accufed by Possevin of having suppressed the Passages of Comines in Favour of the Catholicks. But let that be as it will, it must be confessed that Sleidan was as bad a Writer as Translator, wherefore Barthius has given us a new Translation, at Francfort, more exact in 1629, though he is something obscure. This Work was translated into English in 1674, 8vo. and afterwards by Mr. Uvedale in two Volumes in 8vo. 1712.

Gabriel Naude; Addition à l'Histoire de Lovis XI. in 8vo. Paris 1630. Idem avec les Notes, & des Prenves par M. Godefroy, in 8vo. Bruxelles 1712. This is a very curious Treatife, and being become rare, Mr. Gothefroy reprinted it, with several Original Papers and valuable Fragments, and prefixed a very learned Presace, in which he has undertaken to examine the History of Lovis XI. by Varillas, and to correct some of the innumerable Errours he has fallen into.

La Chronique du Très Chretien, & Victorieux Roy Lovis XI. depuis PAn. 1461, jusqu' en 1483, in fol. Paris, Black Letter. Idem in 8vo. Paris 1558. The same under the Title of the Chronique Scandaleuse écrite par un Greffier de l'Hotel de Ville de Paris imprimée sur le vray Original, in 4ta. Paris 1620. This Chronicle, which is very good, went generally along with the Additions to the Chronicle of Monstrelet, and the History of Haillan. Mr. Gothefroy caused it to be reprinted in his Edition of I hilip de Comines at Brussels in 1706. Mr. Croix at Maine says in his Bibliotheque, that John de Troyes writ the Chronicle of Lovis X. commonly called the Scandalous Chronicle, as he mentions all the Actions of that Prince, and discovers several Things not too savourable to his Character.

Francisci Belcarii Metensis Episcopi Rerum Gallicarum Commentarii ab Ann. 1461, ad An 1580, in fol. Lugdun. 1625. Though this History is neither much enquired after or read, yet it contains some Marters of great Curiosity. To judge by the Title, one would imagine, this History came down to 1580, and we know the Author designed it so low, but his Death prevented him, so that it reaches only to 1567.

Histoire du Roi Charles VIII. par Guillaume de Jaligni, Andre de la Vigne, & aures Historiens avec des Observations, & des Preuves par M. Denis Godefroi. in fol. Paris de l'Imprimerie Royale 1684. Theodore Gothefroy, Father of Mr. Denis, printed some of these Historians at Paris in 1617, but this Edition is much the most beautiful and full; and we must confess, that the Death of Mr. Denis obstructed the finishing of this Work; and indeed, in it are too evident Signs of this sudden and unexpected Misfortune.

Steph. Doleti Francisci Valesii Gallorum Regis sata, ab Anno 1513, usque ad Annum 1539, in 4to. Lugdun. 1539. This is the same Stephen Dolet, the famous Bookseller, who was burnt at Paris in 1543, upon Account of his Religion. He was accused of Atheism. I have somewhere read, that he was a Natural Son of Francis the First, but not owned by him; but I fear there is no Proof of this Assertion.

François Guicciardin Histoire des Guerres d'Italie advenue sous les Regnes de Charles VIII. Lovis XII. & François I. traduite de l'Italien en François par Jerome Chomedei, in fol. Paris 1612. This History, originally wrote in the Italian Language, is much esteemed, and is one of the best we have of that Age. It was published in Italian in 1561, one Year after the Death of the Author; but the most valuable Edition is that printed by Thomas Porcacci in 4to. at Venice, in 1640. Tohn Baptist Leoni published some Observations on this Book, under the Title of, Considerazioni sopra la Storia di Francesco Guicciardini, Ven. 1600; and John Bapzist Adriani continued this History in his Storia de' fisoi Tempi, Flor. 1583. A Book, though little known, was much esteemed by Thuanus. Guicciardini was translated Thuanus Restitutus, sive Sylloge locorum variorum in Historia Thuani desideratorum, in 120. Amstelodam. 1663. The Collection of the castrated Passages in Thuanus's History is not compleat. I have ranged these Pieces in Order, as absolutely necessary to be added to the History of Thumus. This is the most exact and faithful Historian we have of the Sixteenth Century: In the present Age we have none that can come in Competition with him. He is univerfally effected by Irench and Foreigners, by Carbolicks, and i rotestants, excepting some sew, such as Justus Lipsius, who centure this History as too bold and honest, and indeed he wrote as much to Mr. Those himself. Some Errours cannot be denied. Of all the Editions, that printed at Geneva in 1620, is the best. The others are not so perfect. But to have a compleat Edition, it will be necessary to have the first Volume printed at I aris in 1604, by Mamert I aussin, Son-in-Law to the famous Robert Stephens. This Edition by Patisson is the first, and in those that followed miny excellent Paffages were omitted; then should we have the two Volumes printed at Dronart, and the Fourth and Fifth of the Edition at Geneva. Here should be added the little Piece, entituled, THUANUS RESTITUTUS, which is a Collection of the castrated and altered Passages in Thuanus's History. There are allo tome Manuscripts of these Alterations much more full, and those who have an Opportunity of a Transcript, should not flip it. John Baptist Machant is faid to be the Author of a Book published at Ingolstad, under the ficticious Name of 7. B. Gallus, which was wrote against Thuanus, soon after its Publication: and, according to the Opinion of Mr. Casteler at Paris, deferves a Reading. Again, as Thuanus has strangely changed the French Names into Latin, a Dictionary was necessary to explain them, and this is the Index published at Ceneva in 1634, and Reprinted in Germany under the Title of, Clavis Historia THUANA. It is wonderful that so many thousand worthless Books meet with such a Variety of Editions, and that none have arrempted a good Edition of this fo useful and va'usi le Hill ry, which, in my Opinion, would be much better than that vast Corpus of Roman Antiquiries. which Gr wins has printed in Holland. Many Translation of this Hifterin have been defigned, but none have purfied to far as Mr. Fyer, who has translated above half, though his Verlien is not much fought for, becaul, as is objected, an unfinithed Piece.

Michel de Castelnau Memoires des choses les plus Remuquables, qu' il v v.es, & negociées sons les Foys François II. Charles IX. avec des Commentaires par M. Le Laboureur, in sol. Mr. Mencken fays, that he has in his Possession a valuable Manuscript-Description of the Massacre on St. Bartholomew's Day, wrote in Latin by a German Nobleman, Joh. Williams of Bonheim, who was an Eve-wirness of what was done at Orleans. I know no Fact in History that so much discovers a base, inhumane Bigotry, as this barbarous Massacre, which indeed, good and impartial Men of the Ramillo Communion are very much ashamed of, though how far it was countenanced, if not commanded by Charles 1X. and Applauded afterwards at Rome by Pope Gregory XIII. let the famed Medal of HUGONOTORUM STRAGES, (which they do not yet blush to own) and others struck by the French King in I rance, declare, while we are filent.

Recucil concernant les Troubles qui Commencerent en 1588, in 410. Paris 1652.

Journal de Henri III. avec plusieurs autres pieces curieuses, in 120. Cologne 1699, 2 Vol. This curious History contains several valuable Papers relating to King Lienry III. and IV. This Edition is the best for the Learned Observations made by Mr. Duchat from the Conscissions of Sanci, though the whole should be read with some Caution. Mr. L'Etoile, 2 Notary of the Chincery of Paris, was thought to have been the Author of this Journal. The Consession of Sanci was published by Mr. Aubigne.

1709, 3 Vol. This is a curious and useful Piece, the the best we have to discover to us the true Spirit of the League, which was not so much a Religious Controverly, as an Interest formed by the House of Loranz against the Royal Family of France; this was not the Work of one Man, but the Joint-Labours of some of the greatest and brightest Genius's of the Age: Neither is the Criticism so clean and judicious as the Sarcaim. It is enriched with excellent Notes, and curious Fragments, necessary to be acquainted with this It was published by one, who had no Inclination to be known, and the Proofs are not inferiour to those annexed to the Edition of Philip de Comines in 1706. And I believe both were the Work of the sime Piels, that I mean of Mr. Foppens of Brusfels. Mr. Duchat, a French Refugee at Berlin, took tome Care of the Edition of 1696, as did Mr. Dumais of that of 1664.

Nicholas de Neuville Seigneur de Villeroy: Memoires fervans : l'Histoire de Nitre temps; avec la Continuation sous le titre de Memoires d'Etat à la suite de ceux de M. de Villeroy, in 8vo. Sedan 1622, & 1624, 4 Vol. — In 120. Paris 1665, 4 Vol. These Memoirs are very curious, and contain a great Number of Papers very uncommon to be met with.

Remarques d'Etat, & d'Histoire sur la vie, & les Serwices de M. de Villeroy, in 120. Paris 1618. This little Picce is curious.

Les Lettres de Paul de Foix Archeveque de Thoulouie, Limbesseur du Roy pres le Pape Gregoire XIII. in 40. Paris 1628. These are good Letters, but yet not to be esteemed as a great Master-Piece of Politicks.

Philippe Huraut de Chiverni Chancelier de France:

Memires d'I tat de son temps sous Henri III. & Henri IV. in 410. Paris 1636. — In 410. Paris 1641.

1669, 2 Vol. These are good Memoirs, though not the best we have.

Du Plessis Mornay: Memoires depuis l'An. 1572, 31/94 en l'An. 1623, in 410. Amst. Eizevir. 1624, 1651, & 1652, 4 Vol. The Memoirs of Du Plessis Miornay, are the more curious and uteful, if we take Notice of the great Share he had in the Assairs. He was a learned Man, and one of our best Writers, and a Fivourite of King Henry IV. but yet so firm a Protestant, that he was frequently termed the Pope of the I usuenoss. Though this Book was printed in four Volumes, the two sirst were not printed at Amssierdum, but at La Forest in 1624 and 1625, and the two last are a Continuation to the sirst.

Atemoires du seu Messire Gaspar de Saulx, Sieur de Tavannes, in Svo. Paris 1574. And in sol. The Author was one of his Nephews by Name, Mr. Charles are Neuf Charles, who commits several Errours in treating of Foreign Affairs.

Aubery Histoire du Cardinal Duc de Joveuse, avec pluseurs Asemoires, Lettres, Depeches, Instructions, &c. 111 410. Paris 1654. This History is more considerable for the Additional Papers, than the Story it self.

I). Buchæri de just. Henrici III. Abdicatione, è Francorum Regno, in Evo. Paris 1589. This is a most wicked Difcourfe, but yet ulciul to shew us the Bent of the League against the Authority of their lawful Prince. It was wrote by Mr. John Bucher, Curate Curate of the Parish of St. Beneditt in Paris, who rather chose a voluntary Exile from his own Country, than to acknowledge Henry the Fourth for King of France.

Difcours Merveilleux de la Vie, & Actions de la Reine Catherine de Medicis, in 8vo. Paris 1649. This curious Piece is reprinted with the Journal of Henry the Third, and Mr. Brantome has fully proved, that the Author of it was a Villain.

Memoires de M. Le Duc d'Angoulesme pour servir à l'Histoire de Henri III. & de Henri IV. in 120. Paris 1667. These Memoirs are inconsiderable.

Matthias Zampini De la Succession du droit du premier Frince du Sang de France, deferée par la Loy du Royaume à Charles Cardinal de Bourbon, in 8vo. Paris 1588.

M. de Perefixe Histoire de Henri IV. in 410. Paris 1661. There are many Editions of this most Rhetorical and Instructive History. But Mr. Perefixe, who bears the Honour of this Work, had not the Labour of it. There are some yet alive, to whom Mr. Mezersy has declared, that himself was the Author.

Discours de la Negociation de Messieurs de Bovillon, & de Sancy en Angleterre, pour le fait de la lique Offenfrue, & Desensive contre le Roy d'Espagne en 1596. This Work may be sound with those of Mr. Vair, Keeper of the Seals, printed at Paris, in fol. 1625.

Arnauld Cardinal d'Ossat Lettres au Roy Henri le Grand & à M. de Villeroy depuis 1594, jusqu' en 1604, in fol. Paris 1627. — In 410. Avec les Remarques de M. Amelot de la Houssaye, Paris 1697, 2 Vol. — Again printed with Additions, in 120. Amst. 1708, 5 Vol. These Letters of this great Cardinal contain all the Negotiations relating to the Affair of the Absolution of King Henry the Fourth; and, according to the Politicians, may be a Model Vol. 11 to those who treat with the Court of Rome. The two Editions of 1697, and 1708, here mentioned, are the best. The Number of the Letters is augmented, and the Notes are curious; but that of 1708 is more full in the Notes. The Character of Secretary under Mr. Paul Foix, gave him an Opportunity to finish himself: Mention has been made before of these Letters, to which may here be added the Opinion of Mr. Perrault concerning them. "These Letters are so beautiful, strong, and fraught with excellent Maxims, that an Idea too losty cannot be formed of them. They have been the principal Study of the Politicians since his time.

Le Cardinal Du Perron, ses Ambassades, & Negociations, in sol. Paris 1623. These Negotiations of Cardinal Perron are not esteemed any Credit to their Author. They shew us, that this Cardinal, as great a Genius as he was, had not a Capacity necessary to fathom, or enter into Negotiations.

Memoires

Memoires de M. le Duc de Nevers, pour les Regnes de Henri III. & Henri IV. enrichis de plusieurs Pieces du Temps; par M. de Gomberville, in fol. Paris 1665. 2 Vol. Though very rarely read, these Memoirs are curious and useful.

De la Popeliniere Histoire de la Conquête de Pays de Bresse, & de Savoye par Henri IV. in 800, Paris 1601.

Proces Criminel fait au Marechal de Biron par M. de la Guelle. And is printed in the Third Volume of the Memoires of Mr. Canage.

Phil. de Canave Sr. du Fresne son Ambassade de Venise depuis 1601, jusques en 1607, in fol. Paris 1625. Vol. These Memoirs are good and valuable, but of Use to very few, as they contain only the Negotiations on the Differences between Pope Paul V. and the Republick of Venice, with some very curious Particularities in the Third Volume.

Bar. Paschalii Legatio Rhetica, in 8vo. Paris 1620.

Memoires des Sages, & Royales Oeconomies d'Estas Domestianes, Politianes, & Militaires de Henry le Grand. & des Serviendes Loyales de Maximilien de Bethune Duc de Sully, Marquis de Rosny, in fol. Amst. 2 Vol. - In fol. Paris 1664, 2 Vol. These Memoirs are very curious, and in them are several Pieces of secret History relating to the Reign of King Henry the Fourth; but we must be careful in the Choice of Editions, which are not equally valuable. It is necessary then with that of 1664, to have the two first Parts said to be printed at Amsterdam, as that of 1664. and the two following are castrated. Mr.: Patin, in his Letters, takes frequent Notice of these Castrations, though indeed they are of no great Consequence to the History, but yet Men care not for castrated Books. Mr. Mencken observes, that Mr. Fresnoy was not well informed of the different Editions of this Book; as he ought to have known, that the first Edition of Amfterdam, Amsterdam, which comes down to the Year 1605, being well approved of, Mr. Laboureur, who had discovered the Supplements, published them at Paris in two Volumes in 1662, which comes down to 1626; and as the Dutch Edition began to grow rare, the Booksellers of Paris reprinted them there in 1664, in four Volumes in Folio. About the same time this Book received another Edition at Rouen in 120. in 1663, in Eight Volumes, which is as perfect as that of Paris.

Recueil tire des Registres du Parlement, concernant les Troubles commencez en 1588, jusqu'en 1594, in 410. Paris 1652.

Recueil des Pieces Historiques de l'Aunée 1589, in 410. Tours 1689.

Memoires de Messieurs de Bellievre, & de Sillery sur la paix de Vervins en 1598, in 120. Paris 1677, 2 Vol.

Les Negociations de M. le President Jeannin sur la Treve des Pays-bas, in sol. Paris 1656. — In 120. Hollande 1659, 2 Vol. These Negotiations almost entirely relate to the Truce of Spain with Holland. They are in so great Esteem, as to be thought one of the best Models of Negotiations for a Politician.

Miemoires de M. de Beauvais Nangis on l'Histoire des Favoris Francois depuis Henri II. jusqu' à Louis XIII. avec des Remarques sur les Histoires de Davila, & Bentivoglio, in 120. Paris 1665. These Memoirs are so very inconsiderable, and worthless, that they have nothing remarkable, except some particulai Observations of small Errours in Davila, Bentivoglio, or rather Enlargements on their History.

Jean Boucher Sermons de la simulée Conversion de Henri de Bourbon, in 8vo. 1594. Of this John Boucher, a most inveterate Leaguer, Curate of St. Bem:dist in Paris, Canon and Arch-Deacon of Tournay, Bourdeille Sr. de Brantome Memoires des Grands Capitaines François, in 120. Leyde 1666, 4 Vol.

- Memoires des Grands Capitaines Etrangers, in 120. Leyde 1665, 2 Vol.

- Memoires des Dames Illustres, in 120. Leyde 1665, 2 Vol. These Memoirs were most unfaithfully printed. They are castrated in very many places. and it is to be wished, that they were reprinted from better Manuscripts. Many there are who have the castrated Passages wanting in the printed. They are curious Memoirs of the fecret History of Charles the Ninth, Henry the Third and Fourth. Mr. Mencken takes Notice they were reprinted at Leyden in 1699, in four Volumes, comprising those two of the Memoirs des Dames Galantes; but yet this Edition is, like the first, castrated.

Jerome de la Garde, detenu Prisonnier en la Conciergerie: Memoire sur la mort d'Henri IV. 1610. This Piece supplies us with the Intrigue of the Death of King Henry the Fourth, and gives us the Original R 3 Springs Springs of an Action, which our Historians, not even Le Vassor himself in his History of Lovis the Thirteenth, have taken no Notice of. This Piece is exceeding rare, and I never saw but two Copies of it, the one printed, and the other written.

Pyramides due, Una nova, de perpetrato: Altera Vetus de attentato Patricidio in Henrico IV. in 410. 1610.

This is a curious and scarce Piece.

L'Assessinat du Roy, ou Maximes du Viel de la Montagne pratiquées en la personne de Henri le Grand, in 8vo. Par. 1614. — Augmented in 8vo. Par. 1617. The Uncertainty there was, who were the Authors of the Murder of King Henry IV. made People attribute it to several, to Queen Mary of Medici, and even to the Pope himself. But all these Varieties are a Proof of the Uncertainty in this Affair.

Remarques sur le Gouvernement du Royaume durant les Regnes de Henri IV. de Lovis XIII. & de Lovis XIV.

Victor Cayet Chronologie Novennaire, on Histoire d' Henri IV. depuis 1589, jusqu' en 1598, in 8vo. Par.

1608, 3 Vol.

Chronologie Septennaire, on l'Histoire depuis la Paix de 1598, jusqu' en 1604, in 8vo. Paris 1605. These two Works of Mr. Victor Capet are very curious, and as such valued by our Authors and Writers of Historical Differtations. This Author was once a Frotestant, but becoming Roman Catholick, was very much hated and despised by that Party in France he had deserted. This Book was wrote before the Chronologia Novenaria.

Le Mercure Francois, on la Suite de l'Histoire de la Paix depuis 1605, jusqu' en 1628, in 8vo. Paris Richier, 24 Vol. This Collection is one of the most curious we have: Although the Work it self often flags, there are preferved excellent Papers and Memoirs. at that time published. It is of good Use to any who would enter deep into the History of this time. There are in it some bold Passages. The Collector was Mr. Peter Richier, a Bookseller, and afterwards put together by Mr. Malingre, and others. designed as a Continuation to the Chronologie Septemaire of Mr. Caper. The latter Volumes are very scarce, the first very common. Tohn Richier published the first Volume, and Stephen Richier the Eighteen following, and Claude Malingre continued it, though not with an equal Success.

Memoires de la Regence de la Reine Marie de Medicis, in 120. Paris 1666. These Memoirs are very curious, and highly instructive. They are said to have been wrote by Cardinal Richelien, whose high Post and Character seemed to shine throughout, but it was afterwards discovered to be Mr. Francis d'Estrée. The Letter at the beginning is by Father Le Moyne.

Baptiste le Grain Decade commencant l'Histoire de Lovis XIII. in fol. Paris 1619. This Piece was much sought after, as it was filled with Invectives against the Ministers of State of those Times; but as he comes no lower than the Year 1617, he is at present but little esteemed.

Gabr. Barthol. Gramondi Historiarum ab excessis Henri IV. Libri XVIII. in fol. Tolosæ 1643. — In 8vo. Amst. 1658, and in 8vo. Lipsiæ 1674. The President Gramont wrote this History as a Continuation to Thuanus, but the Success it met with, soon shewed the difference of Pens. That of Gramont is a strong Incense of Flattery offered to Cardinal Richelien, who died before the Work was published: It is very inaccurate and injudicious, but is of some use. as he has some bold Passages, which put a stop to the designed Continuation. He comes no farther than

Charles Pernard Histoire du Roy Louis XIII. in fol, Paris 1646. Before this Book the Author had published another, entituled, Histoire des Guerres du Roy Lovis XIII. contre les Religionaires Rebelles, of which were printed only two Copies, which were prefented to the King. This obtained him the Post of Historiographer-Royal. As his History was sent into the World after his Death, a learned Man wrote a Preface to it, in which he treats of the Difference between the Historiographers of the Crown, and those of the Kingdom of France.

Scipion Dupleix Histoire de Louis le Juste XIII. Roy de France, in fol. Par. 1635. This is the last Volume of the History of France.

in fol. Par. 1649.

Michel le Vassor Histoire de Louis XIII. in 120. Amst. 10 Vol. This History answers not the great Noise it made. It is wrote in a languid Style, bitter, and partial. It is a large, though not always just Collection of printed Memoirs relating to Lovis XIII. The Author has wrote an excellent Preface, but has not pursued the Rules he has laid down in it.

Vittorio Siri Memorie Recondite dall' Anno 1601, sino all Anno 1640, in 410. in Ronciglione 1677, 8 Vol. The four last Volumes are printed at Lyons. Memoirs are curious and well esteemed. Though in the perusal it is very plain, that Mr. L'Abbe Siri was pensioned Historiographer to Gasten of France, Duke of Orleans. This is much more scarce than the Mercuria Histoire du Cardinal de Richelieu, in 120. Cologne 1696, 2 Vol. — In 800. Amst. 1714. This History is too general, and in it are wanting many Facts; it is very superficial, and is the hasty Off-spring of Mr. Le Clerc, an Arminian Teacher at Amsterdam, who has put his Name to the third Edition, Revised and Augmented.

Lovis Aubery Histoire du Cardinal de Richelieu, in fol. Par. 1660. — In 120. Cologne 1665, a Vol. This Book, though founded on good Authorities, is very little valued. The Author has drawn his Cardinal too much a Man of Honour, and too little a Politician.

tician. Mr. Le Clerc charges him with abominable

Flattery.

Memoires pour l'Histoire du Cardinal de Richelieu, in fol. Paris 1660, 2 Vol. — In 120. Cologne 1667, 5 Vol. These Memoirs are curious, and contain several Letters, Negotiations, and secret Instructions. The World is obliged for these Memoirs, masqued under the Name of Mr. Aubery, to Mr. Authory Bertier, who collected them, and obtained Leave from the Queen-Mother to print them.

Le Ministere du Cardinal de Richelieu aves des Reflexions Politiques, in fol. Paris 1650. — In 120. Peris 1670, 3 Vol. — In 120. Amsterd. 1671, 3 Vol. In this Work are several Letters, publick Acts, and other curious Pieces.

Journal du Cardinal de Richelieu fair en 1630, & 1631, & autres pieces sur les Affaires de son Temps. in 120. Troye 1657. — Amsterd. 1664, 2 Vol. This is the most beautiful Edition, others there are, but none to compare quith it; it is curious, and gives us some View of the Cardinal's Politicks.

Testament Politique du Cardinal de Richelieu, in 120. Amst. 1688. — In 120. Amst. 1708. This is a well-wrote Piece, and enters deep into State-Assairs, if not the Labour of Cardinal Richelieu, as some think, it is not unworthy of him, or at least some as great Politician.

Recneil de diverses Pieces pour servir a l'Histoire, depaie 1620, jusqu' en 1634, in sol. Paris 1635. — 1643. This Collection, though made in Favour of Cardinal Richelien, is very curious. The Preface wrote by Mr. Chasteles is excellent. This Collection was Reprinted in 1643, in 410. to which was added whatever had been published in Favour of the Cardinal fince 1634. But soon after appeared the sollowing Collection of thirty-Recueil de diverses Pieces pour servir a l'Histoire de France sous le Regne de Louis XIII. in fol. 1644.

Recueil de pluseurs Pieces servant a l'Histoire moderne, in 120. Col. 1663. Here some scarce Pieces may be found from 1604 to 1660, which treat of the Death of Thuanus, the Actions of the Prince of Conde, Dukes of Soissons, Bovillan, and Guise. There is also a curious Piece relating to the War of Sweden, under the Title of, Motifs de la France pour la Guerre d'Allemagne, & quelle y a etè sa conduite, e una Reponse aux Manueires de Mr. de la Chastre.

Ambassades du Marechal de Bassompiere en Espagne 1621, en Suisse 1625, & en Angleterre 1626, in 126. Cologne 1668, 4 Vol. This Book is not faithfully printed: An Instance we have in the Journal of the Learned of the Month of February 1665, where he says this Marshal attempted to prove one Day, that the Protection afforded to the Dutch by King Henry IV. would be hereaster highly prejudicial to him, and that this Discourse so much pleased the King, that he ordered him to commit it to Writing, which he did, though now not to be found in his Memoirs. Colomesius also points out several Passages, which clearly shew, that they are not faithfully published.

Divers Memoires concernants les dernieres Guerres d' Italie, in 120, Paris 1669, 2 Vol. This Collection is curious. It begins with the War of 1629, which was finished by Mazarin, afterwards a Cardinal.

Matthieu de Mourgues Sieur de S. Germain: Recneil de Pieces pour la Defense de la Reine Mere Marie de Medicis, in fol. Anvers 1637. — In 8vo. 1637, 5 Vol.— In fol. Paris 1643. This Author deserves our Commendation for having so constantly followed, and so nobly desended this unfortunate Queen. His Apologies are very curious, and esteemed necessary almost to let us into the History of that Age. Mr. Pain observes, that Mr. de Mourgues had wrote a History of his own Time, in which were many curious Things: But the Book is not yet printed, and this might have been done safely since his Death, though some think it would make Discoveries not proper to be published.

Histoire des deux derniers Sieges de la Rochelle l'am en 1573, & l'autre en 1627, & 1628, in 8vo. Par. 1630. The Journal of this remarkable Siege may be seen in the 13th and 14th Volume of the French Mercury.

Abelis Sammarthani Expeditio in Vallem Tellinam,

in 410. Paris 1630.

Ambassade de Messeurs le Duc d'Angouleme, & de Chateauneus, avec des Observations Politiques de M. De Bethune, in fol. Paris 1667. This Affair which principally relates to the Insurrections in Germany in 1619, and 1620, is curious and instructive. To it are added several excellent Papers relating to the Subject.

Les veritez Francoises opposes aux Calomnies Espagnoles, in 800. Beauvais 1639, 3 Vol. - In 410. Paris 1643. The Author of this curious Piece was Mr. Benville, a Gentleman of Beauvais, a Zealor in his Country's Cause.

Le Proces du Marechal de Marillac; et son Execution in Ato. This Gentleman was accused for imbezzling the publick Money, and condemned for it; and at the same time it was affirmed, that in his whole Process there was not the least Cause shewn of Offence. but he fell a Sacrifice to the Spleen of Cardinal Richelien, after whose Death justice was done to his Memory, of no Use indeed to his Person.

Observations sur la Vie, & la Condamnation du Mare-chal de Marillac, in 8vo. Paris 1642.

Nicolai Rigaltii Apologeticus pro Ludovico XIII. in A10. Paris 1626.

Gregorio Leti Teatro-Gallico, in 416. Amsterd. 1691, 7 Vol. This contains the History and State of France under the Reigns of King Henry IV. Louis XIII. and I ovis XIV.

Memoires de Claude de Levous, Baron de Sirot, depnis 1605, jusqu' en 1650, in 120. Paris 1682, 2 Vol. These Memoirs are inconsiderable, unregarded, and little read.

Le P. du Londel les fastes des Maisons d'Orleans. & de Bourbon, in 8vo. Par. 1698. This is an excellently methodized Chronicle of Affairs since Lovis XII. King of France.

- Les fastes de Louis le Grand, in 800. Par. 1697. This is a Chronological Piece of Affairs in the Reign of Levis XIV. and is comprized in the Book last mentioned.

Il Conte Galeazzo Gualdo Istoria di Luigi XIV. dall' Anno 1648, fine al 1655, in fel. 1655.

Le P. Menetrier Hoffoire du Roy Louis le Grand par les Medailles, in fol. Par. 1691, & Amsterd. 1691. — In fol. Par. 1693. That printed at Amsterdam in 1691, is the best; tho' it contains Medals, but little valued, and its Credit was destroyed by the following.

Histoire du Roy par les Medailles, par l'Academie Royale des Inscripcions, in fol. Par. de l'Imprimerie du Louvre 1702.

— In 450. Paris 1702. Vast was the Expence of this Book, in which the Medals and Ornaments round are Engraven by the best Hands, and the Press-Work is most pompous. In it are all the Medals relating to the Reign of Lovis XIV. with short and plain Explanations of the Occasion of each. The Edition in Folio was not printed for Sale, and the King keeps them for Presents, so that two hundred French Crowns have been given for some Copies sold by those to whom they were given by the King. The Edition in Quarto was printed at a Bookseller's Expence, and sold publickly. There is one Particularity in this Book, that it is printed but on one Side the Paper.

L'Histoire du Roy Recueillie par M. de Vise, in sel. Paris, in 20 Volumes. Of this Collection made by the Author of the Mercure Gallane, were printed very sew, and those not to be sold. It has been given to great Men, and some few others.

L'Histoire de Louis le Grand par M. l'Abbe le Gendre Chanoine de Paris, in 420. and in 120. Paris 1699. Of this wretched Book have been printed several Editions in France and Holland, and a plain Proof is this Book, that Variety of Editions are no Certainty of a good Work.

Roger de Rabutin Course de Bussy Histoire Abregée du Roy, in 120. Paris 1700. This is a miserable History, dry and useless, and scarce giving us the great Actions of the King. There is little more in it than Catalogues of the Marshals of France, of the Knights of the Holy Ghoss, and some other Trisles. One who has Patience sufficient to enter upon it, will not find two Hours Entertainment. And yet Bussy for this mighty Affair had leave from the King himtels. And this verifies what a great Man used to say, that to write, something more than Inclination was necessary.

M. de Reincourt La Monarchie Francoise on Histoire de Lovis XIV. in 120. Paris 1697, 3 Vol. Facts are sufficiently noted in this Book, which however is little more than Extracts from Gazettes, stuffed with Flattery, and very little Spirit.

Henri Besse Sieur de la Chapelle, Relation des Gampagnes de Rocroy, & de Fribourg en 1643, & 1644, in 120. Paris 1673. We have not a Relation wrote better than this for its Plainness and graceful Historical Style. It is an excellent Work. He who wrote the Life of the Prince of Conde, has almost given us it Verbation in his History.

La Mesnardiere Relation de la Guerre contenant le Siege d'Arras de 1654, de Valence 1656, & de Dunc-kerque 1658, in 8vo. Paris 1662.

M. Sarasin Felation du Siege du Dunckerque. This is printed amongst the Works of Mr. Sarasin in 4to. or in 120. at Paris, is a fine Piece, well wrote, and worthy its Author.

Edme de la Chastre Memoires de la Minorité de Louis XIV. in 120. Ville-Franche 1688. These Memoirs are penned with great Judgment and a comprehensive Knowledge. In this Volume, some of the Materials are attributed to Mr. Rochesoucaule, which are as valuable as the curious Fragments. Added are several little Pieces, viz. the Retraite de Mr. le Duc de Longueville, a Piece wrote by St. Evremont, and the Apologie du Duc de Beausort, wrote by Mr. Girard, the Author of the Vita del Duca d'Espernon. Take here the Opinion of Mr. Marville concerning these Memoirs.

Memoirs. The Brevity and Elegancy of the Style, the Brightness of the Thoughts, and the Method of relating are admirably adapted.

Memorres de M. D. L. R. in 120. Cologne 1662. This is the first Edition of the Memoirs before mentioned, in a different Method, but the Edition of 1688, is far the best: These four Letters of the Title signify the Memoirs of Mr. de la Rochesonault, but the Heirs of this Gentleman have disavowed these Memoirs: I must not forget here what the Journalists of Paris in Jame 1707, have noticed, that it has been frequently thought that Mr. Rochesonault was a secret Interpreter of Tacitus, and that his Memoirs were only the sine Passages of that Author well tacked together.

Memoirs du Sieur de Pontis sur plusieurs choses arrivées sons Henri IV: Lovis XIII. & Louis XIV. in 120. Paris 1676, 2 Vol. — Amst. 1694, 2 Vol. They, who where acquainted with Mr. de Pomis, say, that his Memoirs are partial, and Affairs magnified. They were wrote by Mr. Thomas de Fosse, who continued Saci's Labours on the Bible, and as these Memoirs were wrote by a godly Man, so has the Author taken a very pious Freedom in speaking ill of many People. The Author of the Key to the Cabinets of Princes in his Month of March of 1708, affirms, that Mr. Castelmore is the Author of these Memoirs. Many have sound fault with the Chronology, and other Improbabilities in this Author.

Memoires de M. L. C. D. contenant ce qui s'est passé de plus particulier sons les Ministeres des Cardinaux de Richelieu, & Mazarin, in 120. Cologne 1687. These Papers commonly called Rochesort's Memoirs, are well and agreeably wrote, though there is much Romance and Falshood in it. Notwithstanding this, they are read, and please all those who have no Regard to the Truth, but only to gratify their Taste.

Memoires de M. de Chastenet Sr. de Puyssegur, fous les Rois Louis XIII. & XIV. in 120. Paris 1690, 2 Vol. These Memoirs are but little read, and as little valued.

M. de Silhon Eclaircissemens sur quelques difficultez. touchant l'Administration du Cardinal Mazarin, in fol. Paris 1650.

Journal de ce qui s'est passé en la Cour de Parlement de Paris depuis le mois de May 1648, in 400. Paris 1640. This is a well wrose and curious Work.

Proces Verbaux des deux Conferences tennes à Ruel, & à S. Germain en Laye en Fevrier, & Mars entre les Deputez du Roy, & du Parlement, in 410. Paris 1649.

Recueil des Arrests, Remontrances, & Lettres du Parlement de Paris, & de Roven pendant les monvemens de 1640, in 4to. Paris 1649.

Histoire du Temps, ou recit de ce qui s'est passé en

1647, 1648, & 1649, in 4to.

Journal du Parlement depuis 1649, jusq'en 1651, in 410. Paris 1651.

Apologie pour Messieurs les Princes envoyée par Madame de Longueville à Mess. du Parlement de Paris, in 450. 1650.

Factum pour Messieurs les Princes, in 410.

Histoire de la Prison, & de la Liberté de M. le Prince,

in 4to. 1651.

Gab. Naude' Le Mascurat, on Jugement de tout ce qui à été imprimé contre le Cardinal Mazarin, depuis le 6 Janvier jusqu' au 1 Avril 1649, on Dialogue de S. Ange, & de Mascurat, in 410. Paris 1650. This is a learned and amusing Piece with good Judgment, and very rare. Of it are two Editions, which are so like, as hardly to be distinguished, but by the Number of Pages, which in the last and largest amount to 717.

Fonteneil; Histoire des mouvemens de Bourdeaux en 1649, 1650, & 1651, in 410. Bourdeaux 1651.

Memoires

Memoires de M. d'Avaux touchent la Paix de Munster, in 120. Cologne 1674.

Lettres de M. d'Avaux, et de M. de Servien', in 800.

Benjamini Prioli de Rebus Gallicis ab Excessa Ludovici XIII. Libri XII. in 420. Caropoli 1665. — In 120. Ultraject. 1669. This History is well wrote in a free and satyrical Stile. Mr. Prioli was in publick Employs, and this History was talked on long before its Publication. The first Edition, which was only a rough Draught, appeared at Paris in 1662, and amongst the latter, that of Lipsick in 1686, is the most esteemed, as the learned Franckenskin has added a Table of proper Names, which is as useful as any Comment. He had better wrote in Franck, as affecting to imitate Lipsius; but has the Missortune to displease all that admire a fine Latin Diction.

Joan. Labardzi Historia Rerum Gallicarum ab Anno 1643, ad annum 1652, in 4to. Paris 1671. The Author was in publick Posts, and has wrote with good Judgment.

Memoires de M. le Marechal du Plessis, in 410. Paris

Memoires de Messire de Jaques de Saulx Comes de Tavannes depuis l'An 1649, jusqu'en 1653, in 120. Pare & Col. 1691.

Victorio Siri: Il Marcario, ovvero Historia de' corrente tempi, in 410. Casale 1648, & Parigi 1674, in 13 Vol. Often bound in sisteen or more Volumes. This Work is very curious for its original Papers, and very difficult to be found compleat. They are excellent Memoirs for History, but in all Works of this Nature, a Man must use his Judgment as well as Eyes. That he was paid for writing is visible, from more than one Passage. We have mentioned before another Work, wrote by this Author, of which, this is a Continuation, altho' first published.

Memoires de M. de Marolles, in fol. Paris 1656, 2 Vol. These Memoirs are curious, but rather of Use for the Study of Polite Learning, than Civil History.

Histoire de la Paix conclue entre la France, & l'Espagne en 1659, avec un Recueil de Pieces concernant le Duc de Lorraine, in 120. Cologne 1667.

Lettres du Cardinal Mazarin, ou l'on voit le Secret de la Negociation de la Paix des Pyrenées, in 120. Amft. 1690, & 1693, 2 Vol. Thefe Letters are wrote with good Judgment, and an extensive Knowledge of Affairs, and are an Evidence of the Cardinal's great Zeal for the King his Master's Honour.

Le Comte Galcazzo Gualdo: Histoire du Ministere du Cardinal Mazarin, in 120. Par. 1668, 2 Vol. — In 120. Amsterd. & Cologne 1671, 3 Vol. — In 120. Haye 1681, 2 Vol. This is a Translation from the Italian, and much Superiour to that wrote by Mr.

Aubery.

Louis Auberi: Histoire du Cardinal Mazarin, in 120. Paris, & Rotterd. 1695, 2 Vol. — In 120. Amsterd. 1695, 2 Vol. This is a most inaccurate ill-wrote Life of this great Minister, little esteemed, and not read.

Lettres du Cardinal Mazarin, in 120. Amst. 1690.

— 1693, 2 Vol. The Edition of 1693, is the hest.

Le Testament du Cardinal Jule Mazarin du 7. Mars 1661, in 120. Col. 1663. Translated into English in 1663, 240.

Memoires de Frederie Maurice Due de Bovillon, in 320. Paris 1692.

Memoires de M. le Duc de Guise, in 410. Paris 1668. — In 120. 1681. These Memoirs are wrote with Judgment, and contain a large Account of the Revolution of the Kingdom of Naples under Massariello.

Roger de Rabutin Comte de Bussy; Ses Memoires, in 410. Paris 1696, 2 Vol. — In 120. Paris 1697, 3 Vol. 3 Vol. These Memoirs, though tolerably penned, do not strike the Reader, or Interest him in the Cause, and indeed in some Parts a diligent and careful Reader may frequently tire himself. They are not truly State-Memoirs, but rather of a private Man, who amidst some Intrigues and Amours, stuffs in the Affairs of a Campaign. They begin with 1634, and end in 1666.

es 1683, in 120. Amst. 1701.

Memoires de Gaspar Comte de Chavagnac, in 120. Amst. 1701. This contains Affairs from 1670, to the Peace of Nimequen.

Memoires de Messire Jean Baptiste de la Fontaine, in 820. Col. 1699. This is a jumble of true and salse.

Memoires de Mr. d'Artagnan, in 8vo. Col. 1701. — 1712, 3 Vol. These Memoirs are so partial, that they are not valued.

Memoires de Mr. le Marquis de Montbrun, in 120.

Amst. 1701.

M. Le Comte d'Estrades Memoires, & Negociations, in 120. la Haye 1709, 5 Vol. These Memoirs, if more persect, would be valuable: Half of them only is printed, and what remains in MS. in Relation to the secret Negotiations in Holland is the most curious. The ignorant Wretch, who printed it, has committed an infinite Number of very enormous Errours.

Regnier Desmarais: Histoire des Demelez de la Cour de France avec la Cour de Rome au sujet de l'Affaire des Corses, in 410. Par. 1707. This is a curious and well wrote Piece.

Legatio Marchionis Lavardini Romam ejnsque came Pont. R. Innocentio XI. luigium, in 120. 1688. An excellent Book, of which it is now well known, that the Marquis Celestin Stondrati is the Author.

Joann. Moreleti Bellum Sequenisum Secundum, in 800. Divione 1668.

Memoires de M. de Lyonne au Roy, interceptez par ceux de la Garnison de Lille en 1667, avec quelques autres Pieces, in 120. 1688. This is a very small Piece.

Memoires pour servir a l'Histoire de Louis de Bourbon, Prince de Conde, in 120. Col. 1691, 2 Vol.

Le Testament Politique de M. de Colbert, in 120. la Haye 1693. This Testament is an History of some part of the Reign of Lovis XIV, but is not the Work of Colbert, or worthy the Name of that great Man. In English 1694, 8vo.

Le Testament Poluique de M. de Louvois, in 120.

Cologne 1695.

Histoire de la Guerre d'Hollande depuis 1672, jusque

La Campagne de Lovis XIV. avec les Particularitez des Sieges de Valenciennes, Cambrai, S. Omer, & la Bataille du Mont Cassel, in 120. Paris 1677.

Proces Verbal entre les Procureurs des deux Rois, devant les Commissaires de leurs Majestez, deputez a la Conference de Courtrai, in 120. 1681.

Memoires des Contraventions faites par la France au

Traite de Nimegue, in 120. 1682.

Relation veritable de ce qui s'est passé a Constantinople, avec M. de Guilleragues Ambassadeur de France, in 120. Chio 1682.

Lettre d'un Officier du Grand Visir sur l'Expedition de M. du Quesne à Chio, & la Negociation de M. de Guilleragues, in 120. Ville-franche 1683.

L'Espion du Grand Seigneur, ou ses Relations secrettes Envoyées au Divan, sur ce qui s'est passé en France depuis 1637, par Jean Paul Matana, in 120. Amsterdam 1684, &c. 6 Vol. In these Letters are several very curious Points of History, but not to be entirely depended upon. England boasts the Author, and the Undertaker received very great Benefit from the most savourable Reception the World gave it.

Remarques

Remarques sur le Gouvernement du Royaume durant le Regnes de Henri IV. Louis XIII. & Louis XIV. in 120. Col. 1688.

Linage de Vauciennes Memoires sur l'Origine des Guerres qui travaillent l'Europe, depuis cinquante ans, in 120. Paris 1677. — In 120. Cologne 1678, 2 Vol.

Relation de ce qui s'est passé au Siege de Namur avec le Plans, in fol. Paris 1692. The Account of this Siege is fine. The Prince of Orange took this City three Years afterwards, of which there is another Relation printed.

M. de S. Disdier Histoire de Negociations de Nime-

Actes, & Memoires de la Paix de Nimegue, in 120.

Amst. 1680, 4 Vol.

Actes, & Memoires des Negociations de la Paix de Ryswick, 120. Haye 1699, 4 Vol. — 1707, 5 Vol. The last Edition of this is much larger than the first, and to it was added a Piece, entituled, The Proces d'Arbitrage entre son Altesse Elect. Palatine, & son Alt. Royale Madame la Dutchesse d'Orleans.

Actes, & Memoires des Negociations de la Paix de Ryswick, in 120. Haye 1699, 4 Vol. This Book is different from what follows.

Du Mont: Memoires southant la Paix de Ryswick, in 120. la Haye 1699, 4 Vol. These Memoirs are instructive and curious, but imperfect, the Author having promised a Continuation.

Memoires touchant la Guerre presente de 1700, in 120. Haye 1703. These Memoire are not favourable to France, but amongst them are some valuable Papers.

Actes, & Memoires de la Paix d'Utrecht, in 120. Utrecht 1713, 4 Vol. These publick Acts are not well methodized.

Lettres d'un Suisse a un Francois sur les Interess des Princes de l'Europe dans la Guerre presente de 1709, in 120. Basse 1703, 8 Vol. These Letters are printed at Paris, the Author was Mr. La Chapelle, a Member of the French Academy, well known for his other Works. They are well and judiciously wrote, and want not excellent Proofs. But to conclude a War, there must be something else besides the best Writings.

De Vise' Histoire de Siege de Toulon, in 410. Paris 1707. This was wrote by the Author of the Mer-cure Galante.

la Have 1707. A fabulous Author.

Memoires de la Guerre d'Espagne, & de Flandres, in 120. Haye 1708, 2 Vol. Third Edition. These Works, which are exceeding partial, are also stuffed with Variety of the most stupid amorous Intrigues and Falsehoods.

Histoire Secrete des Intrigues de la France en diverses cours de l'Europe, 8vo. Lond. 1713, 2 Vol. A curious Piece, though not very favourable to France. Although Mr. Fresney, at the End of the next Chapter, gives a Reason for not inserting in his Catalogue the Works of Varillas relating to the History of France; it may be of Use to a Reader to be informed, that he has published apart, as follows: 'La Minorite de S. Louis: Histoire de Louis XI. Histoire de Charles VIII. Histoire de Louis XII. Histoire de François I. Histoire de Henri II. & de Francois II. Histoire de Charles IX. & l'Histoire de Henry III. The Edition of which is printed in Quarto at Paris, and in Twelves in Holland. Besides what is mentioned in this Chapter of the Lives of great Men, I shall be more particular in the following.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

Histories of Illustrious Men, which relate to the Hiftory of FRANCE.

E Laboureur: Tombeau des Personnes Illustres, in fol. Paris 1642.

Dupuy Histoire des Favoris, in 4to. Levde 1659. Afterwards Reprinted in three Volumes in Twelves.

Mauroi

Mauroi Discours de la Vie. et Faits Heroiques de M. de la Valette Admiral de France, in 410. Metz 1624.

Le P. Hilarion de Coste: Histoire Catholique, on sont decrites les Vies, Faits & Altions Heroiques des Hommes. & Dames Illustres par leur Piete, in fol. Paris 1625.

Malingre Histoire Chronologique de plusieurs grands Capitaines, Princes, Seigneurs, &c. depnis Louis XI. insques a Louis XIII. in 8vo. Paris 1617.

Le P. du Breuil: La Vie du Cardinal Charles de Bourbon Oncle de Henri IV. in 410. Paris 1612.

Legende de Charles Cardinal de Lorraine, & de ses freres, in 8vo. Reims 1579. In English 1580.

Legende de Dom Claude de Guise Abbé de Cluni, in 8vo. 1581. These two Pieces are very little Credit to the Princes of the House of Lorain; and this last is a Satyr on their Conduct as to the Affairs of France. though not so good as the former.

Moyse Amiraut : La Vie de François de la Noue, die

Bras de Fer, in 4to. Leyde 1661.

La Vie de Gaspar de Coligni Admiral de France, in 410. Amst. 1642.

Vie de Gaspar de Coligni Admiral de France, in 8vo. Col. 1686. This Life is valued.

Vita Casparis Castilionzi Franciz Admiralii, in 120. Ultraj. 1644. The Life of the Admiral Castillon ought to be well confidered, as he was one of the greatest Men of his Age, and was deeply concerned in all the Affairs of the Times.

Le Prince de Conde, in 120. Paris 1675. This is rather a Romance than a History.

L'Histoire de Filippe Emanuel de Lorraine, Dac de Mercour, in 120. Col. 1689. — 1697. This Histo-

Nerveze Histoire de la Vie de Charles de Lorraine Duc de Mayenne, in 8vo. Paris 1613. A Work of little Value.

Histoire de la Vie de M. du Plessis Mornay, in 410. Leyde 1647. Neither the famous John Daille, nor Mr. De Ligues wrote, as the Publick thought, half this Work. David Lisse began, and the two Secretaries of Mornay finished it.

La Vie, & Innocence des Duc, & Cardinal de Guise,

Louis Videl Histoire du Connetable de Lesdiguieres. in 8vo. Grenoble 1649. — In sol. Par. 1638. — In 120. Par. 1666, 2 Vol.

Callieres: Histoire du Marechal de Matignon, in fol-

Paris 1661.

Chorier: Vie de Charles Duc de Grecqui, in 12a. Grenoble 1695, 2 Vol.

Michel Baudier : Histoire du Marechal de Toiras, in fol. Paris 1644, and in 120. Paris 1666.

Le Laboureur : Histoire du Marechal de Guebriant, in fol. Paris 1657.

Histoire de Henri II. Dernier Duc de Montmorenci,

in 410. Paris 1643.

Histoire de Henri II. Dernier Due de Montmorenci, in 120. Paris 1699. This History is different from the former, is not ill wrote, but has some gross Mistakes.

Girard: Vie de Duc d'Espernon, in fol. Paris 1655, and in 120. Paris 1663, & 1673, 3 Vol. This is a curious and well penned History.

Vie du Marechal de Gassion, in 120. Par. 1675, 4 Vol. — In 120. Amsterd. 1696, 2 Vol. This History is well wrote.

Du Buisson: La Vie du Vicome de Turenne, in 120. Haye 1688. This History is neither exact nor judicious, and in it are many Falshoods and Romances. Buisson, who has bore the Reproach, never had any Hand in it; and the curious value but little this Work.

• Histoire de Louis 'de Bourbon Prince de Conde, 2d Edie. in 120. Col. 1695. The second Edition of this History is best, the Author has wrote with Judgment, and made very proper Use of the printed Relations of Assairs.

Richard: Histoire de la Vie du P. Joseph le Clerc du Tremblai Capucin, in 120. Paris 1702, 2 Vol. A second Edition, with the Addition of an Answer to a Piece, intituled, The Veritable Joseph, was printed at Paris in 1704, 2 Vol. in 120.

Le Veritable Pere Joseph Capucin, contenant l'Histoire Anecdote du Cardinal de Richelieu, in 120. à S. Jean de Maurienne, viz. in Rouen 1704. These two Works, said to be of the same Author, give a very different Character of their Subject. The first represents Father Joseph as a good Man, who was always at his Devotions, and did nothing but with a good view. On the other Hand, the second paints him as a Politician and Courtier.

Histoire des Diables de Loudun, in 120. Amsterdam 1693. This is a curious and very singular Piece of History, which made much Noise in Erance, and if truly represented, seems calculated for the Ruin of a few People, who honestly opposed so base an Imposture; it is translated into English at Lond. 1694, 8vo.

Vie du Marechal Fabert, in 120. Amsterdam 1697, Vie de M. de Colbert, in 120. Cologne 1695. This Author is not always exact. I will not here amongst the Historians mention Varillas his Works, as I should be obliged to speak of him as he deserves, or deceive my Reader; and enough has been said before.

Though this Book bears the Name of Mr. Dupar, it is not all his, but partly wrote by Mr. Theodore Go-This is now confirmed from the Original defroz. Manuscript in the King's Library at Paris. Here are preserved several Pieces wrote by an Amanuentis of Mr. Godefrey, where we find his Name in the Middle of the first blank Leaf before each Book, which has been very carefully attempted to be erafed with a Penknife; but on the out-fide of the Book, under the Title, are the two Letters T. G. wrote by Theodorn Godefroy, the same Mark which he pue to all the Manuferipts of his own Composition. Notwithstanding all this, Mr. Dupny reaped much Monour for the most extensive Knowledge conspicuous in it of the Askirs of France.

CHAP. XL.

General Histories of the Church of FRANCE.

Aroli le Cointe Annales Ecclesissici Francorum, in fol. Paris è Typographia Regia, Ann. 1665, 1666. 1668. 1670. 1673. 1676. 1678, & 1683. 8 Vol. This History contains the Affairs from the Year of Christ 235, to 845. These Annals are exact, though somewhat too disfusive; and for this Father Simon gives a Reason, that Father Le Cointe spun out his History, to protract the Time of the Temporary Pension settled on him by the Clergy of France.

Scævolæ, & Ludovici Sammarthanorum Gallia Chrifliana, five Series Archiepiscoperum, Episcoperum, & Abbatum Franciæ, in fol. Paris 1656, 4 Vol. This is a most useful and scarce Work, and might be Reprinted with several Emendations, as the St. Marthes too easily credited some spurious Memoirs communi-

Historians of SPAIN and PORTUGAL.

I Icolai Antonii Bibliotheca Hispana Amiqua, in fol. Rom. 1696, 2 Vol.

- Bibliotheca Hispana Nova, in fol. Rom. 1672, 2 Vol. This Book is not only useful for the Historians, but for the other Writers of Spain. The Bibliotheca of Desselin and Secretar may be also of much Service.

Ambr. de Salazar Almoneda general de las mas Curissas Recopilaciones de los Reinos de Espanna, in 840, Paris

Ambr. de Morales: Las Antiquedades de las Civitades de Espanna. A valuable Book, to be found in the second Volume of Spanish Chronicles by the same Author, of whom I shall speak more horeaster. We have also the Antiquities of Madrid by Quintan, those of Sevilla by Caro, of Salamanca by Gonsalvo d'Avile, and of Granala by Pedraza.

Gabr. de Henso Averignaciones de las Anriguedades de Cantabria, in fol. Salam. 1689.

Bern. Aldrede del Origan y Principio de la Langua Castellana. 1606.

Delices d'Espagne, & de Portugal, evec Figures, in 120. Leyde 1707, 6 Vol. This Book, which is well wrote, gives an exact Description of these Kingdoms.

Ludovici Nonii Hispania, scilicet Populorum, Urbium, Insularum ac Fluminum Descriptio, Antverpiæ, in 8vo. 1607. This most valuable Piece may be met with in the Collection of Spanish Writers made by Scotus.

Pojage

chief HISTORIANS. 307

Voyage d'Espagne fais en 1655, in 410. Paris 1665. This Voyage contains several very excellent Remarks on the State of the Kingdom of Spain. Translated into English in 1670, in 840. and since with the Additions of a View of the Spanish Monarchy in 1700, printed in 840. in 1708.

Mad. la Contasse Daunoy: Relation d'un Voyage d' Espagne, in 120. Paris 1691, 3 Vol. There is much Romance, as well as curious in this Work, which has also been translated into English in 8vo. Lond.—

Andreas Schottus S. J. Hispania Illustrata, in fol. 4 Vol. The two first Volumes were printed in 1605, the two latter in 1606. This most curious Collection contains almost all the Historians necessary for a general History of Spain, and is much preferable to that published in 1579, by the Care of Rabert Belli.

Ioannes Mariana: De Rebus Hispanicis, in fal. Toleti 1592. - In 410. Moguntie 1605. These are the two best Editions of this Work. The first printed at Toledo, contains but Twenty Books Mariens wrote the Ten following, after these were published. and the Edition at Mema contains the whole Work divided into Thirty Books. As Mariana in this Work gods not beyond Ferdinand the Carbolick, it will be necessary to have a small Piece wrote by Mariana himself, entituled. Summarium de Rebus Hasavia, in which his parries on his History from the Year 1513, to 1614 . This Piece was printed at Menes in 1619, and is so, he met with at the End of feneral of the Copies of the History of the Mema Edition. This Writer, who spares not Kings themselves, when they were bad, has translated his History into Speciffs, and the Version is as much esteemed as the Original Luis. He has been charged with too much Moderation thewar to the French, and to Protestantism, and accused in feveral Mislakes in Geography.

Historia general de Espanna en XXX, Libros compuesta primero en Latin, despues buelta en Castellano por Juan de Mariana, in fol. Madrid 1608, 2 Vol. — In fol. Madrid 1668, 2 Vol. — This is the Author's own Version, and he added several Passages not in the Latin. It was published also at Toledo, in fol. 1601, and has had several Continuators, the last was Basil Soins, who carried it down to the Year 1670, Madrid, fol.

Pedro Mantuano: Advertencias à la Historia de

Juan de Mariana, en Madrid, in 410. 1613.

Thomas Tomajo de Vargas: La Historia general d' Espanna del D. Juan de Mariana desendida en Toledo, in 110. 1616.

Mayerne Turquet: Histoire generale d'Espagne, in fol. 2 Vol. Paris 1635. This History, wrote on the Plan of Mariana, though larger, is not so judicious.

Inventaire general de l'Histoire d'Espagne, in 410. Paris 1628. This is a mean Performance, and little enquired after. Verdier and Vanell have wrote Abridgements of the History of Spain, which are but little valued, and a Chronological Abridgement of Mariana's History, was printed in three Volumes, a Work attributed to the Countes Dannois; which, tho' no despicable Performance, is not much sought after.

Ambrosto Morales: Cronica general de Espanna, in fol. en Alcala 1577, 4 Vol. This Person was Cotemporary with Mariana, to whom he communicated part of his Memoirs. Finding the Manuscript of Florianus Decampus, he made use of it in this Chronicle, but it comes no lower than Veremundus III. and is esteemed one of the most valuable Histories of Spain; by the particular Command of King Philip III. Mr. Sandoval continued it down to Alphonso VII.

Martin Carillo: Annales y Memorias Chronologicas, contienen las Cossas mas Notables Succedidas en Espanna, in fol. en Huesca 1622.

Estevan de Garibays: Compendio Historial de Lux Cronicas y Universal Historia de todos los Reynos de Espanna, en Amberes 1571, 4 Vol. in fol. and in Barcelona 1628, in fol. 4 Vol. As this Author has been frequently Reprinted, it is probable, that he is esteemed.

Illustrationes Genealogicas de los Reyes de las Espannas, por Estevan de Garybay, en Madrid 1596.

Florian de Campo: Los cinco Libros primeros de la Cronica general de Espanna, in fol. Medina del Campo 1553, & Alcala 1578.

Cronica de Espanna del Don Alonso el Sabio, Vista y Emenda, per Florian de Campo, in fol. en Valladolid.

Bernardo Giustiniani : Storia Generale della Spagna, in 410. Venezia 1674.

Franc. Tarrafa de Origine, & Rebus Gestis Regum Hispaniæ usque ad Caroli Cæsaris Inaugurationem, una cum brevi Rerum a Philippo II. gestarum Descriptione, 8vo. Antverp. 1553. It is in the first Volume of the Collection by Scotus, and in the second by Belli: The Author gives in too much to the Fables of Berosus.

Alphonfi Sanchez : Anacephalaosis de Rebus Hispania, in 410. Compluti 1634. This is an Abridgement of Mariana.

Michaelis Riccii de Regibus Hispania, Hierusalemi, mtriusque Sicilia, &c. Historia, in 410. Neap. 1645. It is in the first Volume of the Collection by Scorus, and the second by Belli.

Pauli Bombini Breviarii Rerum Hispanicarum ab Hispania Reviviscente Enneas prima, in 410. Venet.

120. Paris 1688, 3 Vol.

Histoire d'Espagne depuis le Commencement de la Monarchie jusqu' a Philippe V. in 12a. Bruxell. 1704, 3 Vol. The Author has followed good Guides, but in his Language has too much of the Flemish brogue.

Laurentii Vallensis: Historia Ferdinandi Regis Ar-ragoniæ, in 410. Paris 1521.

Ælii Antonii Nebrissensis: Rerum a Ferdinandos. & Isabella Hispaniarum Regibus Gestarum Decades due: Nec non Belli Navarensis Libri due, in fol. Granata. 1545. It is in the first Volume of the Collections of Belli and Scotus.

Hernando de Pulgar: Cronica de los Reyes Don Fernando, y Donna Isabel, in fol. en Zaragoca 1567. This is the same Book with the last, and Nebrissens only translated this Chronicle into good Lasin, though he was so impudent as to publish it under his own Name.

Ant. Varillas: La Politique de Ferdinand le Catholique, in 120. Amst. 1688.

Lucii Marinzi: Siculi Epistola Familiares, in fol. Pinciæ 1514. A curious and rare Book, it was printed with the Orations and Poems of the same Author.

Petri Martyris Epistole, in fol. Amstelod. 1670. I know no Book, where may be found so many Particulars of the Reign of Ferdinand and Isabella. as in these Letters. The old Editions are very rare, and extravagantly dear, till the President of Lameiguen generously sacrificed his own Copy to reprint it in Holland.

Prudencio de Sandoval: Historia de la Vida y heches del Emperador Carlos V. in fol. en Pincia P. I. 1604. P. H. 1606, en Pamplona, in fol. 1614, 2 Vol. This This Historian is accused of Impertinence and Partiality, otherwise he is confessedly a great Chronologer, and one of the most polite Spanish Historians. I have treated in Chap. 2.2, of those who have wrote the Life of the Emperour Charles the Fisih, to which I refer my Reader.

Hieronym. Blancas: Aragonensium Rerum Commemarii, ab An. 714, ad An. 1588, in fol. Cæsar Augustæ 1588. A Book much valued as a Spanish History.

Cronica Antiqua d'Aragon, in fol. en Valencia 1524. Geronim. Surita: Anales de la Corona de Aragon, in fol. en Zaragoça 1610, 7 Vol. This valuable Author contains the History of the Kingdom of Arra-gon, from 710, to the Year 1616.

Here Mr. Mencken observes two Errours of the Press, as the Work is only in Six Volumes, and reaches but to the Year 1516, to the Death of Ferdinand the Catholick. To the last Volume of this Edition was added, the Censure of Mr. St. Croix, and the Apologies of Ambrose Morales, and John Perez de Castro. He is accused of reckoning too many Persons present in the Battles he relates, and this only to do Honour to some particular Families.

This curious Book is in Italian and Latin. The Italians who published this Book first at Genona in 1585, 4to. had no Reason to give the Honour of it to Conestaggio; as it is well known, that John de Sylva, who was Embassadour from the King of Spain to Emanuel King of Portugal in Africa, was the real Author. It was translated into Latin at Francsort in 1602, and is to be found in the second Volume of the Hispania Illustrata.

Annotationibus, in fol. Madrid 1593.

Joan. Tamayo de Salazar: Marsyrologium Hispanicum, in fol. Lugduni 1651, &c. 4 Vol. This Book is stuffed with almost numberless Fables and Falsehoods, which the Author thought proper to gratify the irregularly fervent Devotion of the Spaniards.

Francisco de Padilla: Historia Ecclesiastica de Espanna, in fol. Malaga 1605, 2 Vol.

Mauro Castella, & Antonio Calderon: Historia del San-Iago Zebedeo Patron de las Espannas, in sol. Madrid 1658, 2 Vol. The Spaniards are bigotted to two particular Species of Devotion, which they never give up; their first darling Notion is the Arrival and Preaching of St. James in Spain, and the second is their prodigious Regard to a particular Blessed Virgin [Nuestra Senora del Pilar] in Saragossa. These are Articles of so great Importance in Spain, that one who disbelieves them, would be esteemed an Heretick: And the Spaniards have wrote more Treatises in Support of these two Points, than in Desence of the most important Articles of Faith: Even Mariana himself, amongst his Theological Pieces, printed at Cologne in 1609, in Folio, has something on the Subject.

Lovan. 1608. Baronius, in his Martyrology, maintained the common Spanish Notion of St. James's Arrival in that Country; but afterwards being better informed on this Head, he retracted his former Opinion in the Ninth Volume of his Annals; which raised such a Storm against him in Spain, that the Spaniards to Revenge themselves, have bespattered him with Ribaldry, rather than consuted him by Arguments.

Flavii Lucii Dextri: Chronicon a Christo nato ad An. 430. cum Notis Francisci Bivari, in fol. Lugdun. 1627. This Chronicle is spurious, and not that wrote by Dexter, Son of St. Patianus, Bishop of Barcelona, and Friend of St. Jerome. It was wrote in Spain towards the close of the Sixteenth Century. About that time, the People of very little Learning, to please the Vulgar, and gratify some whimsical Notions took some Pains in bringing to Light, or Forging antient Pieces, such as this Chronicle, which maintains most of those peculiar Fancies which distinguish the Devotion of the Spaniards from the rest of Mankind.

Marci Maximi Cæsar-Augustani Cominuatio Chronici Flavii Lucii Dextri, una cum Additionibus S. Braulionis, Tajonis, & Valderici, cum Francisci Bivarii Commentariis, in fol. Madriti 1651. This Chronicle is the Issue of the same Principles and Persons as the last mentioned.

Joan. Calderoni: Fragmentum Chronici Flavii Lucii Dextri cum Chronico Marci Maximi, & Additionibus S. BrauS. Braulionis, & Helecæ, in 410. Cæfar-August. 1619. This is the first Edition of the Chronicle of Dexter, and some think that Calderoni was one of the chief Managers of this Forgery. Mr. Mencken says, that the Author might have easily known, that this false Coiner was Hieronymus Romanus Higuera, and not Calderoni, who was very much pleased with the Notion of having recovered these antient Manuscript Chronicles, which had so long lain hid, as Dexter lived in the Fifth, Braulius in the Seventh, and Heleca in the Numb Century. Higuera published also two other Pieces of the like Nature, of which take the following Titles.

Juliani Petri, (seu Perez) Chronicon, Adversaria, deque Eremitoriis Hispanis, & Variorum Carminum Collectio, Ed. à Laur. Ramirez à Prado, in fol. Paris 1628.

Poblacion Ecclesiastica de Espana, in fol. Madrid. 1667, & 1668, 3 Vol. This is another spurious Chronicle, from the Creation of the World to the Year 1119. Anthony Cupiano Zapata, pretending to have stole the Chronicon Hauberti, an Author of the Ninth Century, from the Treasure of the Church of St. Denis of Paris, fent it to Gregorius de Argaez his Friend in Spain, who published it in Spanish, under the afore-mentioned Title. But here the Affair did not end. As Andrew Garlias of Molina, (whose true Name was Francis Andrew de Palacios,) and Molina denying the Authentickness of this Book : Argaez, to defend it from farther Attacks, added a fourth Volume, in which he inferted another spurious Chronicle of Liberatus, wrote in Spanish, which comes down to 610; but this Forgery was also soon discovered.

Luitprandi; Sive Eutrandi Chronicon, e Bibliotheca D. Thomæ Tomaio de Vergas, in 410. Mantuæ Carpentanorum 1635. This Chronicle is thought by the Learned equally spurious with the former; which being allowed, it discovers the Nature of the People, and the Historians they are most fond of, are here taken Notice of.

Gaspar Ibanez de Segovia: Dissertationes Ecclesiastitas por el Honor de los Antignos Tutelares de Espanna, contra las Ficciones Modernas, in fol. Zaragoca 1671. This is a most curious Piece; and is wrote with great Judgment, and a good Taste. The Author, who was a Knight of St. John of Alcantara, opposes all the salse Traditions and vulgar Errours of the Spaniards, and quotes the best critical Works that France has produced.

Thomas Tomaio de Vergas: Flavio Lucio Dextro Defendido, in 410. Madrid 1624. Pennoti having declared in his History of the Canons Regular his Opinion, that Dexter's Chronicle was spurious, some of the Spaniards were so touched to the quick, that they published this Apology, to which Pennotus gave an Answer in the following Piece.

These are the best Editions, but that at Florence in 1561, exceeds all the rest, and the next in Order is that of 1567, and that in Latin of 1566.

- Il Sacco di Roma, in 120. Parig. 1664.

Francisci Guicciardini: Historiarum sui Temporis Libri XX. in fol. Basileæ 1566. Guicciardini wrote his valuable History in Italian, and it was translated into Latin by Celsus Secundus Curio, and this is the Version now mentioned. The Author extends from 149%, to 1532. In all the Editions, three long and confiderable Passages are omitted, which may be seen at the End of a Book, intituled, Thumans Residents, printed at Amsterdam in 1663, in Latin, Italian, and French. These Passages had before been separately printed, but the Editions of them were scarce. It was translated into English by Gestray Fenten, Lond. 1599, in 410.

Ludovici Jacobi a S. Carolo Bibliotheca Pontificia: Accessi Elenchus Hareticorum, in 410. Lugd. 1643. It is plain in this Work, that the Author had a good Knowledge of Heretical Authors, as may be seen in page 455, where he says, that Alsmacaldus, Germanus, Lintheranus, edidit de Primatu, & potestate Papa Librum.

Alexandri Donati: Roma Vetus & Nova, in 410. Roma 1639, and Amstelod. 1694. This excellent Book has been often printed at Rome, and in Holland, and I have mentioned the two best Editions.

Famiani Nardini Roma Vetus. This was printed in Italian by Ottaviano Falconieri, and afterwards in Latin by Tolli, and inferted in the Fourth Volume of Roman Antiquities, collected by Gravius, and reprinted with Additions in 1704. in Quarto, and is a good Guide to a Student in Antiquities.

go, in fol. Romæ 1694. This Book is no ways

Philippi Bonanni Numismata Summorum Pontisicum Tompli Vaticani Fabricam Indicantia, in fol. Rom. 1696.

Antonii Bossi & Pauli Aringhi Roma Subterranea, in fol. Romæ 1651, 2 Vol. & Coloniæ 1651, 1 Vol. This Work was first printed in Italian, but the Latin Version is better and more enlarged. In it we may see the Sepulchres and Epitaphs of the Primitive Christians sound in the Catacombs, in, or near Rome. This is also useful to instruct us in the Ceremonies used by the first Christians, as for the History of that Metropolis.

Anastasii Historia de Vitis Romanorum Pomisicum, in 410. Moguntiz 1602. — In 410. Paris 1620. — In fol. Paris. è Typographia Regia 1647. This last Edition is the best, but the two next mentioned Books may be useful on this Head.

Antonii Dadini Alteserra in Anastasium de Vitis Romanorum Pontisicum Nota, & Observationes, in 410. Paris 1680.

Joannis Ciampini Examen Libri Pontificalis, seu Vitarum Romanorum Pontificum, que sub Nomine Ana-stasis Bibliothecarii Circumferuntur, in 410. Rom. 1688.

Martini Icioni: Chronicon Imperatorum & Pontificum, fol. Coloniæ 1616. A credulous and fabulous Author.

Baptista (Bartholomæi) Platinæ: Historia de Vitis Pontisium Romanorum, in fol. Venetiis 1479.
Other Editions printed at the End of the Fisteenth and Beginning of the Sixteenth Centuries, should be procured of this faithful Author. Hallerwodt, and others, have been mistaken in their Opinion, that the Edition at Nuremburgh in 1481, was the sirst, as Anthony Kohnrger, the Printer, endeavours to persuade the Publick, whereas the Journalists of Venice have fully proved, page 426, of the 14th Volume, that the Venetian Edition was the First, and the Notes of the Author following only serve to consound Man-kind.

Onuphrius Panvinius de Vitis Romanorum Pontificum, in 410. Coloniæ 1626. This may be met with in the Edition of Platina, printed at Cologn in 1626, and of it there are other spurious Editions, but this I have mentioned is the most valuable, as the Edition at Venice in 1557, is very incorrect, and full of Errours. That which Panvinius himself published at Venice in the Year 1566, is the best.

Robertus Barns de Vitis Romanorum Pontificum & Joannis Balæi Romanorum Pontificum Atta, in 8vo. Lugduni Batavor. 1615. This is the best Edition of these two Works, the first of which is very good.

Joannes Stella de Vitis & Moribus Pontificum, in 8vo. Venet. 1503. This is a valuable, tho little known Book.

Papirius Massonus de Episcopii Urbis, in 410. Paris 1586. This Author has undertaken to give us the Omissions of Platina, and others.

Andre du Chesne: Histoire des Papes, in fol. Paris 1658, 2 Vol. This Book, of which this is the best Edition, is not much effeemed.

Alphonsi Ciacconii Vita & rei gesta Pontissium Romanorum, & Romanæ Ecclesia Cardinalium, in fol. Romæ 1630, 2 Vol.—In fol. Romæ 1677, 4 Vol. This Book is valued, affords us good general Memoirs of the Popes and Cardinals, with several Medals well executed.

Athanasii Kircheri Latium, in fol. Amstel. 1671.

This is rather a curious than exact Work.

Gasparo Sardi: Storie Ferraresi, in 410. Ferrara 1556. With an Addition by the same Author, and Agostino Faustini in 410. at Ferrara, 1646. Faustini continued the History wrote by Sardi, from 1520, to 1589, in Four Books, printed in 1646, at Ferrara; a Fifth and Sixth were added, which come down to 1655. Ferrome Barasfaldi made a farther Continuation to 1700, in one Volume, at Ferrara 1700, in 410.

I. B. Pigna de Principibus Atestinis, in fol. Ferrarize 1384. This Book was first wrote in Italian, and printed at Ferrara in 1570.

The History of the House of Este, from the time of Forressus, until the Death of Alphonsus, the last Duke of Ferrara; with an Account of the pretended Devolution of that Dutchy unjustly Usurped by Pope Clement VIII. wherein likewise the most considerable Revolutions of Italy from the Year 542, to the Year 1598, are chiefly touched, Lond. 1681, in 8vo.

This Piece is collected from the best Authors Italy boasts, such as Sigonius, Jovius, and Guicciardini, and is compiled with more Sincerity than good Manners, where the Drift of the Author is visible against Image Worship, which he terms Superstition, in a Piece dedicated to a Roman Catholick Princes: His Presace is mostly a Panegyrick on Scotland, his Native Country, and her learned Heroes, and representing Ferrara unfortunate only in being deprived of her Native Prince's Residence, in that Desect (as he thinks) too much resembling Scotland: The Author is so much Bigotted to the Scotch Title of Albany, that he studiously forgets the Superiour, that of York, which we may Pardon his placing last.

Giambattista Giraldi: Comentario delle Cose di Ferritara Tradotto di Latino in Volgare da Lodovico Domenichi, in 8vo. Venezia 1597.

— De Ferraria, & Atestinis Principibus Commentarielus, &c. in 4to. Ferraria 1556. This Book is wrote in excellent Luin.

Histories of the Repullick of VENICE.

Apostolo Zeno: Serie Cronologica di tutti gli Storici Veneziani, con Riflessioni. This Work is to be seen, pag. 165, of the first Volume of the Galleria di Minerva.

M. Antonii Sabellici : Historie Rerum Venetarum Lib. XXXIII. ad Annum Circuer MCCCLXXXX. in fol. Ven. 1487, 8vo. Basil. 1556, and Venet. 1668 & 1718, in 410. The first Edition is very scarce, it is Translated into Italian, of which the Edition in Quarted at Venice in 1668, is the best.

Petri Bembi: Historia Patria Lib. XII. ab Ani 1480, ad Ann. 1513, in fol. Venet 1551, in 410. Paris 1551. Venet. 1718, in 410. And with the other Pieces of Bembo, in 810. Basil 1556. It was translated into Italian in 410. Venet. 1552, and 1570, by the Author himself. Of the Latin Editions, that printed at Paris, with an Index, is the best; and the other by Alemmanno Fini in 1570, was augmented with several Tables.

Paolo Paruta: Storia Veneziana, in 410. Ven. 1605, and in two Parts, in 410. Ven. 1718. This Author who begins at 1513, and ends at 1573, is much valued: Other Editions there are, but those mentioned are the most beautiful and correct: This has been translated into English, in fol. 1658.

Andreæ Mauroceni Historia Veneta ab An. 1521, ad An. 1615, in fol. Venet. 1623, 2 Par. and in 1719, 1720, Venet. in 410. When this Work is compleat, there should be eighteen Books, and before the last Impression it was become very rare.

Giambattista Nani: Storia della Repubblica Veneta dell'Anno 1613, sin al 1671, in 410. Ven. Tom. I. 1662. Tom. II. 1679. And both together since, Ven. 1720, in 410. Other Editions there have been of it, and as the Author had been employed in several Embassies, his Work is esteemed. Mr. L'Abbée Tallemant translated it into French, and published it at Paris in 1679, in 120. but as he castrated the Passages which were not in Favour of France, another Man of Learning very faithfully translated and printed it in Four Volumes at Cologn 1662, in 810. Two more Volumes were added at Amsterdam in 1702. It was translated into English by Sir Robert Honywood, in sol. Lond. 1679.

Michiel Foscarini: Storia della Repubblica di Venezia.

in 410. Venez 1696, and 1722, in 410.

Pietro Garzoni: Historia della Repubblica di Venezia, in 410. Venez. 1705. Second Volume, in 410. 1716, and 1719. The seven fore-mentioned Historians have wrote by publick Direction, and are a Series of Ponezian History. The three last were printed in two Sores of Paper; the larger is the best, and most beautiful.

Flavius Blondus de Origine, & Gestis Venetorum, in .fol. Ven. 1481, & Basilez 1559.

Bernardus Iustinianus de Origine Urbis Venetorum Rebusque a Venetis Gestis, in fol. Venet. 1492. The same translated by Lodovice Domenichi into Italian, in 800. Ven. 1545, and 1608. This second Edition is enlarged with an Index, and the History comes down to the Year 800.

Petri Justiniani : Historia Rerum Venetarum, in fol. Ven. 1560, & 1576, & Argentorati 1611. With either of these two latter Editions, it well be necessary to have the first, which, though not fo full, contains Historical Facts castrated in the others. It is translated into Italian, and printed in 4to. at Venice 1676.

Natalis Comitis: Historia Veneta, in fol. Argentorati 1622. This Author is not exact, and is rather an Historian of his own Times, than of Venice, first printed in fol. Ven. 1581.

Jo. Baptista Veri : Rerum Venetarum Libri IV. in 410. Patavii 1638, and in 120. Amstelod. 1644. and again, in 4to. Venet. 1678. And at Padova much enlarged in 1698; as in it is the Continuation made by Foseph Scarella, to the Year 1692.

Gio. Niccolo Doglioni : Storia Veneta dalla Prima Fondazione sino all' Anno di Christo 1597, in 4to. Vene-zia 1598.

Paolo Morosini: Storia della Città, e Repubblica di Venezia, in 4to. Venezia 1637. He comes down to 1486.

Giambattista Contarini : Storia Veneta, in 410. Tont.

II. Ven. 1662.

Alessandro Maria Vianoli : Storia Veneta, in 410; Venezia 1680, & 1684. Tom II. This would be an excellent Book, had not the Author stuffed it with too tedious Harangues.

Origine di Venezia, in 8vo. Ven. 1558.

Author is Nicholas Zeno.

Bbs Franceico

Francesco Verdizzotti de Fatti Veneti dall' Origina della Repubblica sino al Anno 1504, in fol. Vol. 1. Ven. 1674, Vol. 2. in fol. Venezia 1686, reaches to 1570, Vol. 3. in fol. Ven. 1698, reaches down to 1644. The Style of this Author is too lofty and metaphorical.

Giulio Faroldo: Amali Veneti, in 8vo. Venet. 1577, va sino al 1486. It is for the most Part an Abridgement of Sabelious.

Ferdin. Fougasses: Histoire de la Republique de Venice, Paris 1611. Translated into English by W. Shuse, Gent. in fol. Lond. 1612.

Girolamo

Girolamo Bardi : Vittoria Navale ottenuta dalla Republica Veneziana contra Federico I. Imperatore per la Restituzione del Papa Alessandro III. in 410. Ven. 1584. and in 410. 1619. This History of Pope Alexander III. has given Birth to feveral Treatifes, between the Venetians and Germans; and indeed the Truth of it (though no Honour to the Pope) is a mighty Advantage to the Republick, as the claims the Dominion of the Adriatick Sea from a Cellion then made, the confeauence of their Victory over the Emperor Frederick I. This is indeed denied by Mr. Ameblot, who founds their Dominion on a much more forcible Argument. that of Ratio Ultima Regam, Power: And time was, when the See of Rome, during the Venezian Interdict, (thundered out by Pope Orbin VIII.) thought fit to Erase the Inscription in Favour of themselves, as well as the Republick, painted under a Representation in Fresco on the Walls of the Vatican Palace, fince indeed restored by Innocent X. a Pontiff more favourable to theirs, and better acquainted with his own Interest, which his Predecessor by this Fact very much prejudiced.

Andreæ Mocenici: Bellum Cameracense adversus Venetos gestum ab An. 1500. ad An. 1517, in 8vo. Ven. 1525. Translated into Italian, in 8vo. Ven.

Historie de la Lique de Cambray, in 120. Paris. 1710, 2 Vol. This Piece is wrote by Mr. L'Abbée Bos, the Author of the Imerests of England ill Understood, and is a political Piece on the then State of Europe, as well as of Italy; it was translated into Italian, and though pretended to have been printed at Anverp, was for several Reasons privately printed at Venice 1718, in Quarto, translated from the French into English by R. F. 1712, in 8vo.

Lo Squitinio della Libertà Veneta, without Place or Date: This was wrote by the Marchese de Bedmar, then Embassadour from Spain to the Republick, and the Contriver of a Conspiracy, which executed, had been the Destruction of Venice. It is a refined and studied Satire, yet handled with such Moderation, as to extort Applause: The Suspicion fell on the Court of Rome, and the greatest Men expected, as well as seared, the Effects of it. Father Paul, who had been victorious ever before, declared, that this Piece was by no Means to be answered, it being inconvenient and dangerous to enlighten the World in Matters, which should still remain in the dark Bosom of Antiquity.

This Book is much valued by all who have any Regard to the publick Liberty against the Papal Encroachments, which this Author very justly, and with equal Warmth opposes, and plainly proves the Monastick Wealth to be the Cause of the great Poverty of this Kingdom. The Author was Excommunicated, and his Book prohibited at Rome, while he was obliged to retire to the Imperial Court at Vienna, by whom he was not very warmly received, though he so well defends their Rights. All the Care imaginable is taken to suppress this Book, and it is already very rare and dear. A Proposal has been lately published for a Translation by Captain Ogilvie.

Agostino Inveges: Annali di Palermo, in fol. Palermo 1649, 3 Vol. A Fourth Volume of this Work under the Title of, Palermo Spagnuolo, was prepared for the Press; but the former had given so much difgust, even to the People of Palermo themselves, that it was suppressed. This Author deserved a better Usage than he met with from his Native Country, whose Honour he nobly desended against Messina, by whose Advocates it had been, as usual, attacked. Between the two Cities of Palermo and Messina have been long Disputes, and Animosities have been very high, which to this Day are not entirely extinguished: A like Instance we have of Florence and Siena in Italy, and in Countries somewhat nearer.

Donato Acciajuoli : Storia Fiorentina, in fol. Venezia 1476, and in 410. 1561. The Author of this Piece was Feter Aretin, and Acciajuoli only the Translator. The Edition of 1561, is augmented with a Continuation and Notes by Francis Sansovino.

Leonardi Aretini Historia Florentina, in fol. Argent. 1610. The Florentines were so pleased with this History, that after the Author's Death, they, to Honour his Memory, placed a Laurel on the Head of his Statue, and this Book in his Hand.

Jo. Michaelis Bruti Historia Florentina, in 410. Ludg. 1562. This Book is very scarce, as all the Copies have been collected in Order to be suppressed which is no ill Sign of the Impartiality with which it is wrote, and the Author was obliged to quit staly for the Liberty he took in this History.

Poggio: Storia Florentina, in 4to. Firenze 1598, and in fol. Ven. 1647. This Hiltory was first wrote in Latin, but not printed in that Language till the Year 1715, when at Venice it was published by John Baptist Recanati, a Nobleman of that City, and augmented with several Notes: The Italian Version was made by James, Son of Poggi, and another Translation into French with the Life of the Author, we have printed in two Volumes at Amsterdam 1720, in 800.

Gio. Villani: Creniche nelle quali se Tratta dell' Origine di Firenze, e de' Fatti de' Fiorentini, in fol. Venezia 1537. This is but one Part of the following History.

Niccolo Machiavelli: Istorie Fiorentine, & Altre Opere, in 8vo. Vol. 3. Aldo 1540. — In 4to. Franctort 1550. The Edition at Florence of 1532, is preferable to any other, and has been Sold at an immense Price. It is reprinted in some Editions of his Works, and also separate in Onarto and Twelves, and is translated into English at London in 1720, in Folio.

* Notitia della Libertà Firentina, Part 1. 1724, in fol. Part 2. 1725. Part 3. 1726. Privately printed at Milan by the Emperour's Connivance, if not Encouragement, upon the Succession to the States of Tuscany, &c. parcelled out by the Quadruple Alliance.

* Giulio Negri: Istoria degli Scrittori Fiorentini, in fol. Ferrara 1722.

Pietro Buoninsegni: Istoria Fiorentina, in 4to. Fiorenza 1580. The Author of this Work was not Peter Buoninsegni, but Dominick his Father, who also printed a History of the City of Florence from 1410 to 1460, in quarto, Firenze 1637.

Jacopo Nardi: Le Storie della Città di Firenze dal 1494, fin al 1531, in 410. Frenze 1484, and Lione 1582. At the End of this best Edition is a Cara-

logue of the Confaloniers of Justice of Florence, and a Discourse on the State of the City of Lyons.

Quanto sia Giusto & Convenevole que Comacchio si conscrui al S. Rom. Imper. &c. in fol. Many of these Pieces are wrote against the Temporal Power, or rather Invasion, of the Church of Rome: The two last Pieces were reprinted at Francfort, and presented to the Diet at the Election of the Emperour Charles VI. by the Count d'Olevazzi, Minister of the Duke of Modera. There is also reprinted at Francfort a Collection, though Emmanuelis Meterani: Historia Belgica, in fol. Col. 1597. Tom. I. & Amst. 1618. Tom. II. 2 Vol. [In Low Dutch.] This Book has been translated into almost all the European Languages; into High Dutch at Amsterdam, or rather Franckfort in 1669, in four Volumes in Folio; which comes down to the Year 1638. The Author, who was a Merchant, spared neither Cost nor Pains to perfect his Work, though his Credulity led him into several Mistakes, which were not Corrected till in a fourth Edition.

Michaelis Aitsingeri de Leone Belgico Topographica, & Historica l'escriptio, in fol. Col. Ubiorum 1583. In his History the Author begins at 1559, and ends in 1583. But all that can be said of him is, that he was Bussion to the Kings of Spain of his own Time.

Everardi Reidani Belgarum Aliarumque Gentium Annales, in Latin. versi à Dionys. Vossio, in fol. Lugd. Batav. 1633. This Book bears a great Reputation, was first published at Arnheim in 1626, in quarte, and twenty-four Years after the Death of the Author, who was well acquainted with the Secrets of the Time he lived in, in Low Dutch. Some preser him to Grotius. The Translation here mentioned, made by Vossius, in which he too much affects to imitate Tacitus, is obscure.

Famiani Stradæ de Bello Belgico Decas prima ab Excéssu Caroli V. usque ad Ann. 1578, in fol. Romæ 1640.

chief HISTORIANS. 451

Ejustem Decas Secunda ab An. 1578, ad An. 1590, in fol. Romæ 1647. There are several other Editions of this celebrated Author, but this last is the most esteemed. The first Volume of this History was translated into Italian by Carlo Papini, and the second by the greatest modern Orator Italy boasts, Father Paul Segneri, and printed in two Volumes in quarto at Rome in 1638, with Figures, Plans, &c. He is esteemed much in the Interest of the Spaniards. Some have cried up his Style for a Master-piece and Model, but Scioppius has discovered several Solecisms in his Piece, De Insunia Famiani, and it may be worth a Reader's Pains to peruse the Character of him drawn at full Length, by the great Cardinal Bentivoglio in his Memoirs, pag. 156, &c.

Angelus Galluccius de Bello Belgico ab Anno 1593, ad An. 1609, in fol. Romæ 1673. — 1676, 2 Vol. & Noribergæ 1677. — 1705, in 410. This Continuation of Strada, much inferiour to him, was translated into Italian by James Cellefi, and printed in two Volumes in quarto at Rome 1673.

75 Vol.

Hugonis Grotii: Annales, & Historia de Rebus Belgicis ab obitu Philippi Regis usque ad inducias Anni 1609, in fol. Amst. 1657. — In 8vo. Amst. 1655. This is the most able and experienced Author of any who have attempted the History of Holland, nor was there a Man of his time, except himself, equal to the G g 2

Undertaking. As he is an Imitator of Tacinus, he is fometimes obscure, and difficultly understood by a Stranger to the History of this Country. Mr. Sarras, once offered two thousand French Livres for it, when in Manuscript, but was rejected. It is translated into English by T. Manley, at Lond. 1665, in Office.

Pieter Corneliszoon Hooft: Nederlandsche Geschiedenissen, in sol. Amst. 1677, & 1703, 2 Vol. This Author is much valued by his Countrymen. In his Book have we exact Draughts of all the Intrigues of a Court, and the Art of War; but he comes down no lower than the Year 1588.

Johannes Vander Sande de Wackende Leesen des Niederlanden Leeuwerd 1651. It was afterwards traflated into Latin under the Title of, Rerum Belgicarum Epitome, Ultraj. 1652, in 120.

Leo Van Aizema: Saken van Staet en Oologh, in 14 Volumes in quarto; afterwards at Leyden in Folio, Vol. I. II. III. IV. in 1669, Vol. V. 1670, Vol. VI. 1672. This is an excellent Work, and comprizes several Original Papers of Transactions between 1622 and 1669. The Edition in quarto is most valued, to which might be added the same Author's History of the Peace, of which I shall say more hereafter, and his Book, Intituled, Herstelde Lenur, where he gives an Account of the Affairs of 1650 and 1651. This last indeed may be seen at the End of the Folio Edition. The two following Books are a Continuation to the Year 1686.

C. Sylvius Historien on es Tyds Behalzende saken van Staat en Oorlogh, in fol. Amst. 1685, 2 Vol.

Vewolgh Van Saken Van Staat en Oorlogh, in fal. Amst. 1688.

Petri Valckenier Venvirtes Europa, in fol. Amfl. Vol. I. 1677. Vol. II. 1680. Vol. III. 1683. This Author remarkable for his Negotiations and Embassies, wrote only the first Volume, which comprises prizes from the Year 1664 to 1674. Mr. Andrew Muller has continued it down in two more Volumes to the Year 1682.

Le Noble : Histoire de la Republique d'Hollande, in 120. Paris 1689, 2 Vol. This is almost an Abridgement of Grotius's History; but as Mr. Le Noble has inferted some Passages injurious to the Dutch, the Book was prohibited by the States-General in Holland.

Balt. Hezeneil de la Neufville : Histoire d' Hollande depuis la Treve de 1609, ou finit Grotius : jusqu' à Notre Temps, in 120. Paris 1693, 4 Vol. This Piece wrote by Mr. Baillet, well known for his great Itch of fcribling, is but little esteemed, and like his other Pieces, much more promising when in Embryo, then when born. The Name of Balthazar Hezeneil de la Neufville, is an Anagram for Baillet of Neufville in This Neufville being a Village near Clermont in the Beauvoiss, from whence Baillet's Family came.

Histoire d' Hollande depuis la Paix de Nimegue jusqu' à celle de Riswick, in 120. Amsterd. 1704.

a fort of Continuation of Mr. Baillet.

Histoire des Provinces Unies depuis leur Etablissement jusqu' en 1705, in 120. Amft. 1707, 4 Vol. This

Hollandse Mercurius, in 4to. Harlem-Amst. 1660, 1690, in 41 Volumes. This comprizes the Dutch Affairs from 1650 to 1690, and was continued the fame Year by one stiling himself, Philologo-Politicus.

Antoine Aubery du Maurier : Memoires pour servir a l'Histoire d'Hollande, in 120. Paris 1682. - Paris 1688. These Memoirs contain many Passages, which gave fo great Disgust in Holland, that they were prohibited under the most severe Penalties.

Guillaume Temple: Memoires de ce qui s'est passe dans la Chretiente depuis le Commencement de la Guerre en 1672, jusqu' à la Paix conclue en 1679, in 8vo. Haye 1692. First wrote in English, and from that translated Letters wrote by the Earl of Arlington.

Bizot: Histoire Metallique de la Republique de Hollande, in fol. Paris 1687. — In 8vo. Amst. 1689, & 1690, 3 Vol. Of this curious History the last Edition is the largest, and best: prefixed is an ingenious Differtation, shewing the Value the Learned have put on Modern Medals, and their great Use in History, particularly the Branch of Chronology.

The Author run this Work out into Seven Volumes in Folio, in Low Dutch, but this Edition is the best. It is evident by what has been said before, Mr. Mencken takes Notice, that Mr. Fresnoy consounds two Books together, as the same in themselves, which are very different.

The History of GREAT BRITAIN.

I. ENGLAND.

HE English Historical Library by Dr. Nicholson, Bishop of Carlisle, afterwards Bishop of London-Derry, and Archbishop of Cassel in Ireland, 3 Vol.
Lond. 1696, 1697, and 1699, 3 Vol. and in 1714, in Folio. This Author gives us an Account of most of the Historians of England, as well Manuscript as printed, with his own Thoughts and Observations on several of them. He then promised the Scottish and Irish Historical Libraries, which he has since published. On this Head it may be proper to consult Leland, Eale, Fissens, Anthony a Wood, and some other English Writers on this Head.

A compleat History of England, in fol. Lond. 1706, and 1720, in fol. This is a Collection of English Writers, who have separately wrote the Reigns of several of their Kings, as Daniel, Trussell, Habington, More, Buck, Lord Bacon, Herbert of Cherbury, Heyward, Bishop Godivin, Camden, Wilson, and others. To supply the earlier and darker Ages, Milson is prefixed, and the learned Strype * has added some very curious notes, but I don't know, whether he wrote the Lives of King Charles II. King James II. and William III. in the Third Volume of this Collection.

Acta publica inter Règes Angliæ & alios quosois Imperatores, Reges, Pontifices, Principes, vel Communitates ab Ainlo 1101, ad nostra usque Tempora habita & tractata, accinrante Thoma Rymer, Lond. 1704 to 1723, 17 Vol.
in fol. This is a noble Repository of publick Records, and such as the World cannot boast any equal to, of them were printed only two hundred Copies at the Expence of the Crown, of which sew were ever fold. I have one Copy given me t by my Lord Halifax: After Rymer's Death, it was continued by Mr.
Sanderson, Keeper of the Rolls, whose Character is much † Mr. Menchen.

^{*} These are the Words of the Author, who according to the present Opinion, is mistaken; but as this Book bears a doubtful Character, I forbear more on this Head.

Superior to his Predecessor in the Undertaking; but see more of this Work, pag. 229, of the first Volume.

Chronicon Saxonicum cum Versione & Notis Edmundi Gibson, in 410. Oxon. 1692. It was first printed with venerable Bede's History in 1644, but the latter Edition is the best.

Eadmeri Monachi Historia Novorum, free sui Seculi ab Am. 566, ad An. 1122, cum Notis & Spicilegio Joan. Seldeni, in fol. Lond. 1623. This Work is reprinted at the End of the Edicion of St. Anselm, published by Father Gerberon at Paris in 1675.

Matthæi Westmonasteriensis Flores Historiarum de Rebus Britannicis ad An. 1307, edita a Matthæo

Parker, in fol. Londini 1570.

Florentii Wigorniensis Chronicon ad Annum 1118, editum à Guil. Howard, 410. Londini 1592. These two Books are reprinted together at Francfort.

Guilielmi Nubrigensis Res Anglicæ, cum Notis Jo. Picardi, in 8vo. Antw. 1567.—Paris 1610, in 8vo. This last Edition is better than the former, but the Learned Oxford Antiquary, Mr. Thomas Hearne, M. A. of Edmund-Hall in Oxford, has published, from an Manuscript in the Library of Sir Thomas Sebright of Hertfordsbire, Bart. a more compleae Edition in 1719, in 8vo. 3 Vol.

Matthæi Paris Historia Major à Guilielmo Conquestore ad ultimum Annum Henrici III. in fol. Lond. 1640.—In fol. Paris 1644.—In fol. Lond. 1684. The last Edition of this most excellent Historian is the best.

Sir Richard Baker's Chronicle of the Kings of England, Lond. 1641, in fol. Continued by Edward Philips, in fol. Lond. 1696.

William Martin's History of the Kings of England, in fol. Lond. 1628.

John Milton's History of England; the best Edition of this Book is printed amongst his Works, in fd. Amst. 1698, 3 Vol. He comes down only to the Norman Conquest.

Robert Brady's Introduction to the History of England 1684, and afterwards under the Title of, A Compleat History of England, Lond. 1685. His chief Aim is to prove the Crown of England Hereditary, and Unalienable.

James Tyrrell's General History of England, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, in fol. Vol. I. Lond. 1697. Vol. II. III. 1700, 3 Vol. He is much cried up by the Favourers of a Republican Scheme, and is a strong Opposer of the Principles of Dr. Brady, and others, but comes no farther than the Death of King Richard II.

Bulfrode Whitlock's Memoirs of the English Affairs, from the supposed Expedition of Brute, to the End of the Reign of King James II. in fol. Lond. 1682, & 1709.

Laurence Echard's History of England, in fel. Land. 1707. This is the last Piece wrote on the Subject of English History. He comes down to the Revolution in 1688.

Vanel: Abrece Nouveau de l'Histoire generale d' Angleterre, d'Ecosse & d'Irlande, in 120. Paris 1689. He begins with the Reign of King Henry VIII. and comes down to the Revolution under King James II.

Jouvenel: Methode facile pour Apprendre l'Histoire d' Angleterre, in 120. Amsterd. 1706. This Author opposes with much Warmth the Republican Scheme.

Sir William Temple's Introduction to the History of England, in 8vo. Lond. 1695. Translated into French at Amsterdam the same Year. This is only a Sketch of a General History, which, it is to be seared, will never see the Light.

The true fecret History of the Lives and Reigns of all the Kings of England, from King William I. to King James II. Lond. in 8vo. 1702, 1721. In this Book are some Pieces of History no where else to be found, but so blended with Falsehood, Scandal, and the blackest Calumnies, that without good Judgment and Precaution, it may instil dangerous Notions into the Readers.

Larrey: Histoire d'Angleterre, d'Ecosse & d'Irlande, in fol. Rotterdam Tom. I. 1706. Tom. II. & III. 1697. Tom. IV. 1712, in Four Volumes. This is esteemed a well methodized and regular History of Enoland.

P. d'Orleans: Histoire des Revolutions d'Angleterre, in 410. Paris 1693, 3 Vol. — In 120. Amst. 3 Vol. Translated into Italian, and printed at Venice 1724, 3 Vol. in 410. This History is wrote with so much Judgment, and in so polite a Style, that it has been almost universally applauded both by Protestants and those of the Roman Communion, there are Particulars relating to the Revolution of 1688, which the Author had from the Mouth of King James II. then unfortunately Exiled in France. The Third Volume was translated into English by Capt. Stevens, and recommended by Mr. Arch-Deacon Echard, and printed at London in 1711, and 1722, in 8vo.

Translated and printed in French at the Hague 1704, and 1709, in 120. This History has met with a very different Usage from different Parties, some have mightily extolled it, and others with no less Spleen have decried it. Of it we have spoken before in the first Volume: The most severe Character given, is by Mr. Bevil Higgons, in his Appendix to his Review of the English History. A later Author in pag. 61, 62, of his Work, * affirms, "That it is the great Hyde, and he alone, that in the Know- ledge of Mankind is always Clear, Deep, Eafy, and Periodt. I make no Scruple to confess, that in the History of the Grand Rebellion, there are more Offences against the Truth of Composition, than in all the best Greek and Roman Historians put together: And I think it no Difficulty to prove, that in that single Work, there are more and far greater Excellences than in the whole Body of Antient History. It is indeed the only one of English History we can solory in.

This Work (fays our Author) is become rare, because it was suppressed by the Emglish, as it contains all the Titles to the Church Lands, which were seized on at the Change of Religion under King Henry VIII, and they possibly fear these Charters may be a Title and Information for a future Restitution, but notwithstanding this groundless and idle Opinion may have some Weight with weaker Heads; yet, I think, the Scarcity of this Work amongst us may be attributed to two Reasons, one the Commonness of them in the Libraries (particularly of English Saculars and Religious) abroad, and the Destruction of the greatest Par of the Impression of the last Volume by an accidental Fire: Add to this, the Impressions themselves were not numerous, as the Favourers of this kind of Knowledge are but few.

Dr. Peter Heylin Ecclefic Restaurata; or, a History of the Church of England, in fol. Lond. 1661. According to our Author, the Doctor having afferted several Facts, without Support of good Authors, he was answered by a Piece, entituled, England's Resormation needing to be Resormed, as also by Bishop Burnet, though one of the Authors of his Life has desended him well, his Severity against what he terms Sacrilege, and speaking many bold and unreasonable Truths, raisfed such a Nest of Puritanical Hornets, that he suffered much from them.

That this Author has wrote rather politely, than exactly is Mr. Fresnoy's Opinion, which he thinks confirmed by the Confeffion of the English themselves, who cannot deny his Errours. He was attacked by the Reverend Henry Wharton, M. A. under the Malque of Anthony Harmer, who has laid open some Mistakes, which he Ii3 infiguates

Gothof. Guil. Leibnitii Novissima Sinica Historia nostri temporis ab. Anno 1689. ad Annum 1695, illustratura 800. av. 1697.

Theophilus Spitzelius de Re Literaria Sinenfium, in 12mo. Lugd. Batav. 1633. Here may be added the Observationes Varia by Isaac Vossius, in which are many curious Observations relating to the Chimese, altho' the Author has been a little too credulous. Even this * Isaac Vossius, who could hardly be brought to believe the Existence of a Deity, swallowed greedily, without Proof, any thing extraordinary related about the distant Parts and People of the World.

Eonis Africani Descriptio Africa, 800. Antv.

Jean. Leon. Africain Description de l'Affrique, in fol. Lyon 1556, 2 vol. This is a very curious Collection, and, besides the Description of Africa by La Africanus, contains several other Historians on the Affairs of this Part of the World.

Louis Marmol Description de l'Affrique de la trads-Elion de M. Perrot d'Ablancourt, in 420. Paris 1667, 3 vol. in Spanish, Tom. I. & II. fol. Granada 1573. Tom. III. Malaga 1599. This is a curious and valuable Piece, the Spanish Original is rare, tho' the beautiful Translation by Mr. Ablancourt, to which he has made some Additions, renders this Rarity less to be lamented.

Joan. Baptista Grammaye Africa illustrata, in 410. Tornaci 1622. This Author is, tho' very brief, methodical, accurate, and judicious.

O. Dapper, Description de l'Affrique, in fel. Amst. 1686. This Book was first wrote in High-Dutch in fel. Amst. 1670, and its Author has given us several other Descriptions of different Parts of the World, and particular Nations.

John Greaves: Fyramidographia; or, A Description of the Pyramids in Egypt, Lond. 1646, 8vo. reprinted in 8vo. in 1726. Of this Book there was a Copy in the Library of the late Mr. Rawlinson, corrected and augmented by the Reverend and Learned Dr. Thomas Smith of St. Mary Magdalen College in Oxford. It has been translated into French: As Mr. Greaves travelled in these Parts, and took the Measures on the Spot, and as his Skill was unquestionable, his Accounts are valuable and to be depended on.

CHAP. LVII. TRAVELS and VOYAGES.

D'Avantage que la Recherche des Antiquires procure aux Scavans, 120. Paris 1686. 2 vol. This very learned Piece points out a Method of Travelling with Advantage: It contains most curious Observations upon Talisman's, Antiquities, and Manuscripts. In it is one Passage as to Manuscripts, very particular, which is noted by Father Mabillon in his Treatise De Re Diplomatica, which though it has not been taken notice of by those who have wrote against that Father, yet for the Weight it carries along with it, deserves consideration.

Histoire Universelle des Voyages faits par Mer & par Terre dans l'Ancien & le Nouveau Monde, avec un Discours Preliminaire sur l'Utilité des Voyages, 120. Paris 1707. This is a sort of Abridgment of the Relations of the surfict Discoveries of the East and West-Indies, is curious, and well performed. The Abbé Bellegarde its Author, is well known for several other Works, much esteemed amongst Foreigners.

Work confilts of Genealogical Tables, useful and valued.

L'Origine de la tres illustre Maison de Lorraine, avec un abrege de l'Histoire de ses Princes, in &vo. Toul 1704. This Work, as has been before hinted, is the Labour of Father Benedict of Toul, a Religious of the Capuchin Order in Lorrain: His Notions are good, he deserts the common Lorrain Fables, and sticks to the most probable Conjectures as to this Family: Tho' it is a Work much above the Genius of a Capuchin, yet it has but little Merit to recommend it self.

Supplement à l'Histoire de la Maison de Lorraine imprince à Toul 1704, avec des Remarques sur le traite Historique, & critique de l'Origine, & de la Genealogie de cette Illustre Maison imprime, à Berlin, in 120. Toul 1712. This is also wrote by Father Benedict, in it are several curious Papers, the its Stile is tedious.

Traite Historique, & Critique de l'Origine, & de la Gencalogie de la Maison de Lorraine par le Sr de Baleicourt, 8vo. Berlin 1-712. The Name of Baleicourt in the Title of this Book is fictitious, and the true Author was Father Hugh of the Order of Premenstratenses of Lorrain. The System of this Work is the fame with that of Father Benedict, and the best French Historians, who affirm the House of Lorrain to be descended from one of the Prime Officers of the Kings of Irance of the first Race. This Book, the preferable to the former, is full of bold Passages, for which the Parliament of Paris condemned it September 17. 1712. It was printed at Nascy, not Berlin, where an Author would not have dared to treat crowned Heads with so little Respect, as this Author. It will be proper to read some judicious Observations made by Father Benedict on this Book, in his Supplement to the History of Lerrain.

Jean de Mussy: La Lorraine Ancienne et Moderne ca PAncien Duche de Mosellane, veritable Origine de la Maison Royale, & du Duche Moderne de Lorraine, a 800. 1712. This Work, also printed at Nancy, follows the System of Mrs. Wasselbourg and Rossieres, Authors, who justly bear no Credit with the learned. And tho' Mr. Mulij's Work be much smaller than either of these two Historians, yet is there no Man of Judgment but will spend much more Time, and that agreeably too in reading him.
